DAVID CAMPBELL, Chairman.

IMPORTANT.—Will Mr. Ekberts and Mr. York, newspaper carriers, please call at our counting room and settle the amount of their bills due this office?

SUPREME COURT.—In the Supreme Court yesterday, the suit of Miller & Ricketson vs. Thomas Overton came up. It was argued by C. O. Loomis for plaintiff in error, and C. S. Ryster for defendants in error.

Lowrie et al vs. Brown. Argued by Robert Wick for plaintiff and Andrew Burke for defendants.

Commonwealth ex relations Gregg vs. Gregg. Judgment for non pros.

Blackstock et al vs. Long, Duff & Co. Argued by Williams and Shaler for plaintiff, and Hepburn for defendant in error.

Moore et al vs. Walsswright. Judgment of non pros.

Cooper vs. Vernon. Settled by plaintiff paying the costs.

In the matter of the estate of Rev. John Riddel, appeal from the Orphan's Court of Allegheny County. This was a bill of review granted on petition of John Riddel, grandson of Rev. John Riddel, and eldest son of the late John Riddel, Esq., of Erie, Pa., son and devisee of Rev. John Riddel. The legal questions in controversy are—first, whether the expenses of a child's tuition or education, while under the age of 21 years, contracted in the various items, clothing, boarding, books and tuition, can be considered, technically, as an "advancement," and chargeable as such, against such child's portion of his or her fathers estate; second, whether such "advancement" is to be confined to the expenses of a "classical" education, or to any kind of an education; third, at what period of the child's educational life are such charges to be considered technically as "advancements." Argued by Allen for appellant and Woods for appellee.

Hays vs. Sampson & Co. for use. Messrs. Allen and Barton submitted printed arguments.

Kennedy vs. Justice. Argued by Hampton for plaintiff, and by John Mellon for defendant.

LIFE OF PITCHER, BY HAWTHORNE.—This biography of our candidate, which has been anxiously looked for by the public for some time past, has at length been issued from the press of Tickner, Reed & Fields, of Boston. Mr. HAWTHORNE is well known as the author of the Scarlet Letter, Twice Told Tales, and more latterly as the author of the Blithdale Romance. In thus entering the field of politics to vindicate a friend from the indiscriminate abuse of political enemies, and the aimless praise of overzealous friends, Mr. HAWTHORNE sustains the reputation he has already acquired, as a writer of great power and beauty. Besides many new and interesting facts in relation to Gen. Pierce, the author introduces into his book extracts from the Military Journal kept by Gen. P. while in Mexico. The extracts are mere hasty jottings down in camp, and at the intervals of every marching, but they bring the reader closer to the man than anything which could be substituted.

The book should be in the hands of every person who seeks truth during the present canvass. It is printed in a neat form, clear type, for a low price—75¢ cts—and contains an authentic portrait.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—The Blairsville papers state that an aged woman, named Margaret Hammond, was killed on the Pennsylvania Railroad on the night of the 7th. She was thrown by the train in the deep cut near the junction of the Branch Railroad to Blairsville, and instantly killed. The unfortunate woman had lost part of her baggage in Blairsville, and on finding that it was gone when the cars arrived at the junction, she proceeded, in spite of all opposition, in walking back to Blairsville to obtain it, and in so doing the lamentable accident occurred. Mrs. Hammond had taken passage from this city to Blairsville, by canal; she resided in the State of Indiana, and was on her way to Europe.

WE BEG LEAVE to call the attention of the public to Mr. W. I. Wright's advertisement in the columns of our paper—he has just received from the East a great variety of magnificent ornamental lamps and chandeliers, for burning thereal oil, and lard and lard oil. Either kind give a brilliant and transparent light. The chandeliers, pendants, hall lamps, globes, &c., are of patterns of the latest and most approved styles, and made of the best materials. Persons desirous of purchasing, would do well to give him a call at 52 Fourth street, under Apollo Hall, next door to Adams & Co's Express Office.

NOT BRASS.—We have been requested to state, on the most unquestionable authority, and in advance of our correspondents, that the jewelry which Herr Alexander is about taking to the country, for the purpose of giving gift exhibitions, is not brass, but pure gold; the diamonds are not paste, but genuine, having been imported from the Brazilian mines expressly for this performance—the rubies, topaz, jacinths, emeralds, &c., are all genuine, we are assured, on the most undoubted authority. We make this statement in order to correct an impression which has gone abroad that the jewelry was all paste.

NORTH BRITAIN REVIEW.—We have received from W. A. Hindenfeny, No 76 Fourth street, the above named Review for August. Its contents are varied and interesting, and consist of the following papers—Lord Cockburn's Life of Jeffrey; Ornithology; Liturgical Reform; American Poetry; Life and Letters of Niebuhr; Primeval Archeology of Britain; Archbishop Whately on the Errors of Romanism; Prince Albert's Industrial College of Arts and Manufactures; Crisis in Political Parties. One of the articles—American Poetry—discusses the poetical writers of this country in a severe manner.

HUSBAND AND WIFE.—A woman, named Emma Jones, made a complaint, yesterday morning, before Alderman Parkinson, against her husband, David Jones. It appears that said husband is a very unruly manner, threatening to kill his wife, and by his actions made her believe that her life was in danger. A warrant was issued by the Alderman, on which Mr. Jones was arrested and committed in default of $1.

HARD TO BAIL.—David Gonerman was arrested yesterday, and brought before Ald. Major, to answer an information preferred against him by his wife, Adelaide Gonerman. The drift of the prisoner charged her husband with beating and otherwise maltreating her. She also stated that her husband swore he would kill his children, and her too. The Alderman held the pugnacious man to bail, in the sum of $1,000.

ASSAULTING THE MARKET CLERK.—Mr. Dunn, the clerk of the market, made an information yesterday, against James Crawford, charging him with assault and interfering with him in the discharge of his duty. Mr. Dunn attempted to expel Crawford from a stall which he was occupying, and not paying for. The Mayor, before whom the action was brought, discharged Crawford on the payment of the costs.

COTTON GOODS.—Among the articles entered at the State Hall in Cleveland, we see a list of cotton goods, consisting of fine, carpet chain, &c., which were entered by Kennedy, Childs, & Co., proprietors of the Penn Mill, in Allegheny City. Warrier, Parke & Co., of this city, are also announced in the published list as having entered a lot of brown sheetings, chambrays, carpet chain, &c.

DEFERRED.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. the President and Managers of the Allegheny Bridge Company, was to have been taken up in the Supreme Court yesterday, but was deferred, owing to the absence of Judge Woodward, detaining the desire of the Judges to have a full bench, when this important cause came up.

ARM BROKEN.—A gentleman named Dickson had his arm broken yesterday afternoon at George Moore's brick yard, on Pennsylvania Avenue. Dickson was on a brick kiln, when the wall gave way, and he jumped to the ground, but he could not get away before the scaffolding fell on him, crushing his arm.

INJURED.—Mr. Semple, of Allegheny city, was severely injured on Thursday afternoon, on Penn street, in the Fifth ward, by being thrown from his buggy. His horse had taken fright, and running off, the buggy came in contact with a lamp post.

FOR CLEVELAND.—Quite a number of our citizens left for Cleveland yesterday. This is the closing day of the Fair, and the most attractive of the three days, on account of the presentation of the prizes to the successful competitors.

PRIZE COMMITTEE.—John Dickson, accused of the larceny of a coat from the Half Moon Hotel, on Grant street, was committed to jail yesterday, by the Mayor, for trial.

REVIVAL.—Rev. Nathaniel West, Sr., has removed to Beaver, in this county, to take charge of the Presbyterian church in that flourishing borough.

ALDERMAN PARKINSON wishes it distinctly understood that he is at present sojourning on this sublunary planet, not having, as yet, taken his departure for another world, some or two of our city papers have intimated. The Alderman is at present ready and willing to dispense the law and justice to any person who may stand in need of doctoring at his hands.

ANNIVERSARY ADDRESS.—We are indebted to an unknown friend for two copies of the Anniversary Address delivered before the Franklin Literary Society, of Jefferson College, at the semi-centennial commencement, on the 31 of August. The address—which is an able one—was delivered by J. R. W. Sloan, A.M., President Geneva Hall, Ohio.

A DRAYMAN named Thrasher was nearly drowned on Thursday in the Monongahela river. He was driving on the shaky, when his horse took fright and ran off, throwing Thrasher into the river and cutting his face. He was dragged out by the bystanders, and taken to Dr. Wernecke's office. The Doctor dressed his wounds.

THE magnificent Panorama of Ireland will open at Philo Hall to-night only 25 cents to visit the Emerald Isle, and to hear Henry D. O'Reilly's descriptions. We pity those who will be absent. The Hall has been newly decorated for the occasion.

FREIGHT CARS.—We noticed on Liberty Street yesterday about a dozen of new freight cars, intended for the Pennsylvania Railroad. They are of a superior manufacture and were built by S. S. Fowler & Co.

AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.

There is a great display of Agricultural and Horticultural products and implements and Fine Arts at the Fair. In the opinion of many good judges it surpasses any preliminary exhibitions in the United States. Twenty thousand people are on the Fair Grounds, and others are yet coming; the railroads are not capacious enough to carry all wishing to come. The Pittsburgh train has just come in with 42 passenger cars, containing about 2000 persons. There is an extensive and fine display of horses, sheep, cattle, &c. Floral Hall is the attraction of the day; Telegraph and Merchantile Hall next in importance. The weather is delightful, and we have a glorious time. The O'Reilly Telegraph line is in full operation on the grounds.

MASSACHUSETTS AND MAINE POLITICS.

BOSTON, Sept 16.

Gen. Hood, Free Soil Democrat, of Lynn, has been nominated for Congress in Mr. Rantoul's District. The nomination is cordially opposed by the Hunkers, and there is considerable excitement.

The Portland Advertiser says that the Senate has six of a whig majority. In the House there are 67 whigs and 67 democrats; 26 districts to hear from.

FROM HAVANNA.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY MORNING POST,
Friday, September 17, 1852.

REMARKS.—In reviewing our market for the week just closed, we find nothing to indicate any material change, from our last. The weather has been cool, and rainy for a part wet and disagreeable for out door business. Our stores have kept up moderately, to enable our smallest class of steamboats to arrive and depart with freights. The effect of the heavy rains, during the first part of the week, are so high and rapid on our rivers; but, as the rain ceased we appeared to be general, there is no doubt of a sufficient rise for all boating purposes—consequently, a commencement of Fall trade must ensue. The merchants of our city never have had larger and better selected stocks of Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Shoes and Boots, Iron and Nails, and every other article in our line, and we feel confident that all persons who are determined to hold out such inducements to western merchants, as to make it their interest to purchase here. In Flour, receipts for the week ending today, have not been equal to the demand, being exclusively for home consumption. In Grain, there has been very little doing; owing to light receipts, prices are firm. The Bacon market, is dull and nominal; supplies have come forward more freely; holders seem very anxious to realize at present prices. Cotton, Cotton Yarns and Batting, have been more enquired for, and manufacturers have been compelled, in consequence of the advance in raw cotton, to insist on a further advance, as will be seen by reference to corrected card. Iron and Nails, too, have advanced—the advance on Nails 25 cents per keg, and Bar Iron ¼ cent per pound.—Butter, roll and packed are in good demand at previous rates. Tallow is scarce, and advanced. Soap and Candles have been put up by manufacturers, 1 cent per pound—Oils have advanced, as will be seen under the proper head. APPLES—The supply is moderate, and sales are made at $1,50@1,75, as in quality.

ASHES—The supply is equal to the demand, and prices are firm.

BACON—The market remains about the same as last week, if anything, not quite so firm. Among the sales, we give the following: 15,000lbs Shoulders, in lots, at 3¾@3¾c; 4 hds at 5c; 100 pcs Hams, 1000 do at 9c; 8000 do at 9c; 6500 do, in lots, at 8¾@9c; 5 tcs sugar cured Hams at 14c; 100lbs do at 13½c.

BLOOMS—Since our last there has been no change in Blooms, and small lots are sold at full prices, the demand being confined mostly for the best quality; we quote the market firm at $55@60.
