FLORENCE HOTEL,
NO. 400 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
THE proprietor of this well known Hotel, situated on the corner of Broadway and Walker street, has had thoroughly renovated and partially re-furnished it, and has prepared to offer the traveling community accommodations equal to any other house in the city.

The House being conducted on the European plan, has the most elegant and spacious Saloon in the United States, together with some thirty private eating rooms attached, where individuals, families, or parties, can be furnished with a meal at any hour of the day or evening.

The House is centrally located, and within forty yards of the New Haven Railroad Depot, where the porters of the House are in constant attendance.

Passengers arriving in New York can immediately walk to the House, and deliver their checks at the office, and have their baggage conveyed to their Rooms, without any charge whatever, (which is no small item of expense in New York.)

The Proprietor has furnished with a line suit of Parlors on Broadway (with Balcony,) and all the modern improvements, which tend to afford the traveler pleasure and comfort. It is the best and only one in the United States, also, Sitting and Bedrooms, in fact, every way calculated to please gentlemen travelling with their families for pleasure, or men of business, who are compelled so to be absent from home. Also, a full supply of Sole Cotton and Sugar Plows: with Plow Points and Castings of every description.
