☞ What is Forest Wine!—This is a question that has been sometimes asked, since the introduction of this truly splendid tonic preparation, compounded of various vegetable ingredients of known efficacy in the healing art. The Forest Wine, as its name imports, is made out of some of the most valuable medicinal plants and herbs of the vegetable kingdom, and combined in such a way as to give the compound the taste and smell of Wine, and all the healing and healing qualities of the Wine made of Grapes, and without any of its deleterious effects. As a tonic, in diseases of the stomach, and a diuretic in affections of the kidneys, it stands without a rival. This is the opinion of one who has tried its virtues.
