THE CITY POST.

TUESDAY MORNING.....OCTOBER 26.

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.—Republicans, remember the FIRST TUESDAY IN NOVEMBER, and rally in your strength for Pierce and King. You have elected your State candidates, Woodward and Hopkins, by an average majority of 16,000; you can give the State to our National candidates by 20,000. Our opponents are desperate; their late overwhelming defeat has alarmed them, and they are now laboring with unscrupulous determination to retrieve themselves in November. They must be met and again vanquished. Let every Democrat put his shoulder to the wheel and victory is sure.

The County Committee of Correspondence have appointed meetings in the following places, prior to the great contest in November:

In Manchester, on Tuesday, Oct. 26th, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

In M'Keesport, on Wednesday, Oct. 27th, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

In Mifflin tp., at Blackburn's Mills, on Thursday, Oct. 28, at 6 o'clock, P. M.

In Shousetown, on Friday, Oct. 29th, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

In Allegheny city, on Saturday, October 30th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

In Pittsburgh, on Monday, Nov. 1st, at 7 o'clock, P. M.

DEATH OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—In the District Court, yesterday, before Judge FORWARD, Hon. A. W. LOOMIS rose, and made the following remarks:

May it please your Honors—I have been desired by the members of the bar to announce the death of one of the most eminent men of the age, and instructed, as an appropriate mark of respect for his memory, an adjournment of the Court. Whatever judgment may have been formed of the political opinions and actions of DANIEL WEBSTER, now no more, all will accord to the great expounder and defender of the Constitution the most lofty and expansive patriotism; the most sincere and ardent devotion to the honor and interests of his country. With powers of intellect and eloquence unsurpassed in this, and perhaps any other age, his indirect and direct have shed an influence and illumination over the fame, the fortunes, and the destiny of this great republic, that have attracted the attention and excited the admiration of the civilized world. His words of wisdom and power engraven upon the lofty pillars and registered upon foundations of the Constitution, will live, until wasted by time, or smitten by destiny, our great political fabric shall have perished. In view of this calamitous event, it is meet that we should pause and ponder. A single day may well be devoted to a just contemplation of his exalted fame and mighty deeds; to the grave and momentous considerations suggested by his sudden and lamented departure.

In obedience to my instructions, I now move that the Court adjourn.

This notice was seconded, and Judge FORWARD, in adjourning the Court, made some eloquent and touching remarks in relation to the death of Mr. WEBSTER—the talents of the deceased, and the honor he reflected on his country.

The Judge declared the Court adjourned, in obedience to the motion of Mr. Loomis, and directed the proper entries to be made.

In the Court of Quarter Sessions, yesterday, before Hon. Wm. B. McClure, President Judge, and Patrick McKenna and Wm. Boggs, Esqs., Associates, Hon. CORNELIUS DARRAGH announced the death of DANIEL WEBSTER, in a feeling and appropriate terms; and moved, as a mark of respect to the eminent dead, that the Court adjourn.

The motion of Mr. DARRAGH was seconded by Hon. W. W. EWIN who also spoke in relation to the services of the deceased.

Judge McCLURE in directing the proper entries to be made in the record, delivered an able address on the character and distinguished talents of Mr. Webster. He passed a glowing eulogy on the professional character of the deceased, and his abilities as a Statesman, and the Court accordingly adjourned.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—This Court met yesterday,—Judges Shannon, McDermitt and Boggs on the Bench.

The Grand Jury were sworn in, and Judge M'Clure delivered his charge. The Judge stated that the criminal calendar which would be brought to the attention of the Jury was very large, comprising many hundred cases—among which he regretted were a number of cases of murder and manslaughter. The Jury were not to judge from this, however, that there had been a large increase of crime in this county here had always existed in densely populated districts, a great excess of crime over that found in rural districts. The proportion of crime in this county to the population, was not greater than that in other large cities, such as Cincinnati, New Orleans and St. Louis.

Judge M'Clure stated that various documents would be presented to the Grand Jury soliciting a subscription to the Allegheny Valley Railroad. Subscriptions to this improvement had been made by the counties of Armstrong, Jefferson and Elk, to the amount of over a million of dollars: and pursuance of an act of the last Legislature, authorizing a subscription, the Directors of the Company would present to the Grand Jury various documents soliciting a subscription for Allegheny county.

Immediately after the delivery of the charge, the death of Mr. Webster was announced, and the Court adjourned.

THE BITUMINOUS ASSOCIATION held a meeting on Saturday night in the Diamond. The conference committee was called on and reported that they had learned from the building committee of the new market house, that the market houses, both old and new, were at the disposal and under the control of the City Councils. A petition to Councils was drawn and signed by the president of the association and Messrs. Shaun and Hunter appointed to present it. A communication was read from Mr. Livingston, proposing to sell or lease a lot suitable for a market house. Messrs. Graham & Flanigan were appointed to wait on Mr. Livingston, for the purpose of learning the terms on which the lot could be secured.

After the transaction of other business, the society adjourn, to meet on Saturday night.

SUMMARY.—The following resolution was read in Allegheny Councils at their last meeting and appropriately referred. I suppose it indicates that one of the engines is to be taken out of the hands of the present guardians and handed over to another company. It is quite a Philadelphia way of doing things:

Resolved, That the committee on Engines be and are hereby instructed to take possession of the Fourth Ward Engine, hose and apparatus of the Reliance Engine and Hose Company, and to employ a suitable person to act as pilot for the same, and also to have the present locks on all the doors changed, and to secure to their keep and safe manner, to be with some of the citizens in the immediate neighborhood said engine.

AS IN ATTENDANCE.—A resolution passed the Allegheny Councils at a late meeting, which stated that the proposal of Gas Company be accepted, and a committee appointed to street with the lowest and best bidder immediately, for erection of 100 lamp post, of a good quality, to be placed with the 50 given by the Gas Company, on the most public streets of the city, upon which gas pipes are now laid, to be laid, and to be designated hereafter by Council.

Committee consisting of Messrs. Nixon, Lang, Gallagher, Dold, Walker, Bulford, Moffit and Dalzell, was appointed carry out the resolution.

YOUNG STIMES, of Birmingham, yesterday committed Stutman to prison, charged with assault and battery, bath of Henry Dethorn. The prisoner was fully committed for trial, at the present term of Court.

The prisoner noticed above was afterwards discharged, the mitting magistrate having taken bail for his appearance Court.

Squire Symmes also committed, on Saturday night, Thos. on a charge of Surety of the Peace, on oath of Thomas ner. This person was also discharged on bail.

LITTLE UNIVERSE.—The present number of this valuable work, contains an engraving sufficient to render it dear every American—we mean a beautifully executed steel of Mount VERNON, the home of Washington; where the ot patriots retired to the endearments of domestic after doing more good for his race, his country, and anyrhere, than any other man the world ever saw. The ch of Mt. Vernon, its history and appearance, was written by Horace Greeley. Besides this, the Universum contains engravings of Erlangen, in Bavaria, and Cape Horn.

THE most favorable opportunity for profitable investment offered for many years is that very desirable property in Birmingham, East Birmingham and South Pittsburgh, which has been selling at auction by P. M. Davis, Auctioneer. The sale will be concluded this afternoon at three o'clock, on the premises, when we would advise all who wish purchase real estate, either for residences, business purposes, or rapid advance in value, to attend. Sales to the amount of $27,500 were effected yesterday, but at very low AGENCY.—A woman named Susan Atchinson was arrested brought before the Mayor, on Sunday, charged with the ny of a sum of money, and dresses to the value of forty dollars from Mrs. Martha I. Deely, of Birmingham, on the 23d of October, on the canal boat Keystone State. The money was taken from Mrs. Deely between Pittsburgh and Allegheny City. The prisoner was a passenger on the boat. She was committed for a further hearing.

CASES OF DRUNKENNESS.—John Hays was arrested yesterday, by officer Kelly, in the house of George R. White. He was arrested, the prisoner had in his possession several articles of ladies wearing apparel. On a hearing before the Mayor, the defendant alleged in excuse, that he was drunk, and did not know what he was doing at the time.—He was committed for a further hearing.

CASE REVIVED.—A quantity of goods stolen from the house of James A. M'Knight, were recovered on Saturday, by Officer Hague: The goods were taken by a colored man employed at the store to wash windows. An anonymous note led to the discovery of the goods but not to the arrest of the person who is at present "some where else."

PITTSBURGERS ABROAD.—Col. Samuel W. Black and J. Ross Snowden, Esq., addressed the Democracy of Cleveland on Friday evening, and spoke on Saturday at Erie. They were expected on Monday at Meadville, Tuesday at Franklin, and Wednesday at Mercer, and on Thursday at New Castle.

DRUNKENNESS.—About half a dozen persons were committed by the Mayor, on Sunday and Monday mornings, for drunkenness and vagrancy.

OYSTERS.—Messrs Bliss & Horbach, under the office of the Post are daily receiving fresh Oysters from Baltimore.

DEATH OF A MINISTER.—Rev. John Tassey, of Allegheny died yesterday morning, after a short illness.

FERGUSON STREET, Allegheny city, is to be opened to eighty feet width and paved—the south end of the street, we mean.

FIRST PIECE.—Robert Farley was committed, by Court, on this piece, yesterday.

Rider vs. Johnston, for use. No. 18, 1850, Fayette county; death of plaintiff suggested A. James, S. Rohrer, A. Josiah, S. Allebaugh, executors, substituted of record.

Robinson vs. R. Fagraves, No. 14, 1851, Green county; death of plaintiff suggested a cause discontinued.

Rider's executor vs. Johnston et al., No. 18, 1850, Fayette county; argued by Mr. Howell for plaintiff, and by Mr. Kaine for defendant.

In the matter of the estate of Reed, deceased, No. 19, 1850, Fayette county; argued by Mr. Kaine for appellant, and by Mr. Howell for defendant.

In the matter of the guardianship account of Rankin, No. 20, 1850; Fayette county; case argued.

Harper vs. Little's executor, No. 28, 1852; Fayette county continued by consent.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT—NARROW ESCAPE.—An accident occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Sunday morning about 6½ o'clock. The express baggage car of Messrs. Adams & Co., was being hauled up Plane No. 8, when the rope which held it, broke near the top, and the car immediately came down the plane at tremendous speed. A baggage car on the level, and in the front of another train, was dashed to pieces, by the express car, and a passenger car on the rear of the baggage car, also injured. Several persons were in the baggage car at the time, but narrowly escaped with their lives—one man with broken ancle. The passengers on the train, under the direction of the officers, Conductor Jones and Baggage Masters Abel and Delaney, immediately set to work, and in the incredible short space of ten hours, the train was again on its way.

An incident of rather an amusing, but at the same time fearful character, occurred. The locomotive was in the rear of the train, pushing it up the plane, at the time the accident occurred. When the alarm was given, the Engineer, thinking to evade the danger, reversed the engine, and the locomotive with a single car, moved off at tremendous speed in another direction. The engineer, on reversing the engine, immediately jumped off the locomotive, and left it and a car full of ladies (the only one attached to the locomotive) to take care of themselves; but by the most fortunate accident, the coupling which held the passenger car to the locomotive, became detached from the locomotive, which after proceeding a short distance further, ran into a train and was smashed to pieces. The usual verdict in regard to railroad accidents, is, that no person attached to the Company is to blame—but in this case we do not think it will hold good. The engineer deserves censure, and we do not understand the case, to merit a redly guilty of a direction of duty.

IN TROUBLE.—Another commitment was lodged yesterday against William Taylor, now in custody of the jailor, on charge of murder and riot. The present charge arises the prisoner of assault and surety of the peace, on oath of John Gordon.

REVIVAL.—The Corsican Brothers, with Mr. Roberts as the Twin Brothers, has been revived, and will re-again performed the Theatre.

PARTICULARS OF MR. WEBSTER'S DEATH.

MARSHFIELD, October 25.

During the day on Saturday Mr. Webster conversed freely, and gave, with great clearness, a detail to his relatives of his private affairs. He spoke of the condition of his farm, stating his plans fully. At five o'clock in the evening, he was seized with violent nausea, and raised considerable dark matter, tinged with blood; great exhaustion ensued, and the physicians announced that his last hour was approaching. He received the announcement calmly, called in all the females of the family, and addressed to each, individually, a few words of farewell; he then called in the male members of the family, and his personal friends, and addressed them individually; he referred to past relations calling the richest blessings of Heaven upon Peter Harvey Webster, he said, speaking to himself: "On the 25th of October, all that is mortal of Daniel Webster will be no more." He then prayed fervently in a full clear voice, his prayer ending with the words "Heavenly Father, Forgive my sins, and receive me to thyself through Christ Jesus." He then conversed with Dr. Jeffries, who said he could do nothing more. Mr. Webster then said, "Then I am to be here patiently until the end? It is so, may it come soon."

Between ten and eleven o'clock, Mr. Webster repeated, indistinctly, words of the poetry of Gray and Fletcher. He repeated the first line of Gray's Elegy,

"The Curfew tolls the knell of parting day;"

"That's it; that's it," said Mr. Webster; the book was brought, and the stanza were read, and seemed to give him much pleasure. From twelve to two o'clock on Sunday morning, there was much restlessness; a slight suffering, and dizziness now occurred which led him to think that death was near; while in this condition some expressions fell from him indicating that his mind would remain with him to the last. Mr. Webster spoke of the difficulty of dying; when Dr. Jeffries repeated the verse: "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod, and thy staff, they comfort me." Mr. Webster said immediately, "the fact—the fact—that is what I meant—thy rod—thy rod—thy staff—thy staff—"

The close was perfectly tranquil and easy. Mrs. Webster was unable to witness the last moments, and awaited the event in an adjoining apartment.

Mr. Webster gave especial directions that he be buried in an unostentatious manner. He will be interred in the South Marshfield tomb; no day is yet fixed for the funeral.

PHILADELPHIA, October 25.

Mayor Gilpin presided over a large meeting convened at Independence Square, this evening, for a suitable expression on the death of Daniel Webster. Members of Congress participated as officers. A series of resolutions were offered by William Brown, and seconded by George M. Dallas, who delivered a speech. Speeches were also made by Henry D. Gilpin, Josiah Randall and Robert Ralston. The public offices and the County row are draped in black.

A large Democratic meeting this evening, was addressed by James Campbell, F. J. Grund and Mr. Hughes.

NEW YORK, October 25.

The city Flags at the City Hall, and those on our principal hotels, were at half mast yesterday.

At Boston, a gloom is spread over the whole community. At eight o'clock, yesterday morning, one hundred minute guns were fired on the Common; and the bells were tolled one hour. The Flags of the "Webster Club Room," were dressed in mourning, with the motto: "Men die, but principles live."

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.

All the Courts adjourned to-day on account of the death of Webster. The members of the bar then met, and passed a series of resolutions expressive of their sentiments in regard to the talents and character of the great Statesman. A meeting is called for to-morrow evening, to express the feelings of the citizens in reference to the national calamity.

NEW YORK, October 25.

At a regular meeting of Aldermen a message was received from the Mayor, recommending a suitable demonstration on the death of Webster. A committee was appointed to correspond with a committee of the lower branch.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.

Mr Webster's death has caused universal gloom. The bells were tolled to-night from ten to two o'clock. A public meeting is called for tomorrow night.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 24.

Mess Pork has materially declined to-day: it is quoted at 15½.

BURLINGTON, VT., October 25.

A fire occurred last night, which destroyed three stores. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

ALBANY, October 25.

The Circuit Court of the United States adjourned until the 4th Tuesday of December next; when the Jerry Rescue Case will be tried.

BOSTON, October 25.

Mr. Webster's funeral is announced to take place on Friday next at noon. Gen. Pierce will be present.
