THE CITY POST.

THURSDAY MORNING.....JUNE 9.

"COMMON SENSE."—We have been handed by Dr. Keyser of 140 Wood street, a book of some 330 pages, bearing the above title, and treating principally of the cure of chronic diseases by means of mechanical and lateral appliances; also containing a lecture on dress, and another on the philosophy of the human voice—either of which is worth ten times the price of the book, and should be read and observed by every one who has the least tendency to any of those maladies of which it treats. The object of these appliances is to give support and free action to the important organs of the chest and abdomen, whose functions are frequently impaired, and sometimes incurably, by a neglect of what may in the beginning a trifling matter. At first glance one would hardly suppose that outward stays or proper would have any effect on a weak lung, or cracked voice, and the various chest ailments which are intended to be cured, especially when those habits have grown to be "second nature." But the author of this work, Dr. Banning, of New York, has shown the entire practicability of curing numerous distressing maladies in which medicine, in the form of drugs and potions, has proven entirely useless, by means of his Body Braces, Trusses, and Abdominal Supporters. We know, from evidence of a reliable character, that these appliances are of great value, and have succeeded in restoring to health and vigor persons who have suffered for years, and who were apparently beyond the reach of medicine. We have been shown a letter from one gentleman, in relation to this Brace or Supporter, who says "that he would not take a thousand dollars for it, in case he could not get another of the same kind." Dr. Keyser has given this subject of medical science much study, and has had considerable experience in making applications of the instruments. We take pleasure in recommending them to the consideration of the afflicted, believing, at the same time, that by their use an immense amount of human suffering can be relieved. At any rate, buy the "Lecture on Dress," read it, and practice its teachings, and you may be saved much suffering. The instruments are an improvement on Dr. Banning's old Supporter, by himself, and are recommended by Drs. Mott, Kirby and Rogers, of New York, and other medical authority in various parts of the country, of the highest character.

MEETING OF THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD CO.—According to notice, which was given some time since through the public press, a meeting of the stockholders of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad was held yesterday afternoon, in Lafayette Hall.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of Norman B. Craig, Esq., of this city, as Chairman, and Jos. Dilworth, Esq., as Secretaries of Col. Darius S. Bayard, of Fayette county, and E. D. Gazzam, of this city.

General Larimer, the President of the Company, stated the object of the meeting, which was to accept or reject the acts supplementary to the charter of the Company, passed by the Legislature of this State. General Larimer also informed the meeting that the Legislature of Maryland had granted to the Company the right of way from the State line to Cumberland. The speaker stated, in explanation, that the first section of the supplementary act authorizes and grants permission to the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny to subscribe to the capital stock of the Company an amount not exceeding two thousand shares each, and for which no bond shall be issued for a less sum than one thousand dollars; permission is also given the boroughs of West Newton and Connellsville to subscribe for an amount not exceeding two thousand shares each. The second section provides that the Company shall pay to the persons authorized to receive the same, six per cent interest on the bonds this sum to be charged to the cost of the construction of the road; the Company, it is provided, shall continue to pay the same until the road is completed, and dividends paid. The fifth section states that the counties heretofore authorized to subscribe to the road, and to borrow money for that purpose, shall issue no bond for less amount than one hundred dollars—the bonds to be received as cash, and not sold for less than par value; and, furthermore, "that no such of the act incorporating said Company as limits the route of the Railroad to the course of the Monongahela and Youghiogheny rivers, be, and the same is hereby repealed—so far as the same affects that portion of the line lying between the city of Pittsburgh and a point on the Youghiogheny river, not less than six miles below Connellsville." The sixth section authorizes the Company to extend their road to any point that may be adjudged in Somerset and Bedford counties, or to connect with the Chambersburg and Allegheny Railroad, or with any other road that may be hereafter constructed. After giving the points in the supplementary act to which the assent of the stockholders was asked, General Larimer made a few remarks. He was followed by Hon. John C. Plummer, of Westmoreland, and Col. Hill, of Fayette county.

On a vote being taken, the supplementary acts were adopted as a portion of the charter of the Company. One hundred and ninety-nine votes in favor of the supplement were cast, being a majority of the whole body of the stockholders. Allegheny county was represented by 110 votes, Fayette county by 30, and Westmoreland by 59.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

SEVENPENCE, HALF AND SIXPENCE.—A grand concert will be given at MOZART HALL next week, by Rallina Sevenpence, Paul Julien, Maurice Strakosch and Madame Amelia Patti Strakosch—Sevenpence is noted as an unrivalled Italian vocalist; Madame Strakosch has also achieved celebrity in the same line, while Julien is acknowledged as one of the greatest wonders of the age his wonderful performance on the violin, coupled with his youth, have attracted to his concerts in the east great crowds; and Maurice Strakosch is celebrated as a pianist of great skill. Our citizens will await the arrival of the troupe, and the announcement of their first concert, with impatience.

MANSFIELD SEMINARY.—The summer session of this Seminary opened on the 3d of May. This establishment is under the superintendence of Mr. R. M. Kerr, and his lady, formerly Miss McKaig, of the Washington Seminary. The Mansfield Seminary is located about five miles from this city, near the junction of the Pittsburgh and Washington Plank Roads. The scenery in the neighborhood of the Institute is beautiful, and the location is noted for the generally prevailing good health.

THE FAIRY OF STYLE.—This gentleman leaves to-day or to-morrow for Harrisburg, there to charm and delight the good citizens of the capital with his wondrous feats in the cabinet art, his surprising powers of ventriloquism, and his inimitable drollery. The Fakir has been very successful during his stay in this city, and we have no doubt that like success will attend him wherever he wends his way. The press in Harrisburg, we trust, will take care of the Fakir; he is worthy of their civilities.

MR. MURDOCH, the American actor, is now performing an engagement in Baltimore. It is the intention of Mr. Murdoch to visit England, this year, on a professional tour. Where Forrest, Buchanan, and others, have succeeded, we entertain no doubts as to the success of Mr. Murdoch, who is admitted to be one of the most accomplished and versatile actors that ever graced the American stage.

CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY.—Two men, named Michael Hughes and Patrick M'Laughlin, were arrested yesterday and taken before Mayor Riddle, on a charge of conspiracy. They were arrested at the instance of R. S. M'Coy, a contractor on the Steubenville Railroad, who charged them with inciting hands in his employ to quit work. Mayor Riddle committed the two men for trial.

REFUSING TO PAY DRAY LICENSES.—A number of persons who were taken before Ald. McCaus, of the Ninth Ward, for refusing to pay their dray licenses, were discharged yesterday, on paying the costs of the suit, the license money, and twenty per cent additional, on that amount, the fines being remitted.

THE remainder of those desirable country seats, at Oakland, will be sold this afternoon, at 3 o'clock. Omnibuses leave the corner of Fourth and Market streets, at 2 o'clock, to convey those wishing to attend the sale.

COURT NEWS.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS, before Judges M'Clure, Boggs, and Adams.

Commonwealth vs. Charles New; indictment, assault and battery, on the oath of his brother, Gottlieb New. The parties in this case reside in Birmingham. It was proved conclusively that the defendant was insane, and frequently committed such acts of violence as were complained of. The jury, in this case, without leaving their seats, returned a verdict of not guilty on that ground. New will be sent to the asylum, in Harrisburg.

Three or four surety of the peace cases were next disposed of, the court acting, generally, on the very correct principle of making each party pay their own costs, and dismissing the case.

Commonwealth vs. John Ryan; indictment, larceny. The defendant in this case was accused of stealing a $20 gold piece from Charles McClean. The evidence was conclusive, and, after a short absence, a verdict of guilty was returned.

A little boy aged about eight years, named John Jones, was next placed in the dock, to answer a charge of larceny. The counsel of the prisoner being sick, the lad was remanded.

Commonwealth vs. Nathan and Elias Whiting; indictment, assault and battery. The defendants, father and son, were accused of assaulting a lady named Davison, a milliner, with whom they had business transactions, and in regard to which the difficulty arose, which ended in the assault complained of. On trial.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT, before Hon. P. C. Shannon, President Judge.

The case of Lemon vs. Tullis & Co. occupied the court all day yesterday.

Owing to a death in the family of Judge Williams, yesterday, his honor held no court during the day. The trial list has been laid over for the present.

ALMOST A SERIOUS CASE.—A man named Morgan Day was arrested yesterday, and taken before Alderman Major, charged, by his wife, with assault and battery. Day, it appears, while in a state of intoxication, endeavored to stab his wife with a knife, and was only prevented from committing his sin by the quickness of the lady, who eluded his grasp, and ran away. The Alderman committed Day—who is a coal-boat pilot, and resides in the Sixth Ward—to jail, for trial.

CONTEMPTUOUS ARGUMENT was created in the District Court room, by a gentleman who quietly took his seat on the Bench, alongside of his honor, Judge Shannon. The intruder, after having satisfied himself as to the workings of the civil law, left the District Court room for that of the Quarter Sessions. But "he went farther and fared worse," for, on attempting to reach the same high position, he was ejected from the Court room by the tipstaves.

FIRE IN NEW BRIGHTON.—A fire occurred yesterday morning in the village of New Brighton, on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad. About 2o'clock, the paper mill of Messrs Reeves & Stauffer, was discovered to be on fire, and, before the alarm could be extinguished, the entire building was destroyed. The loss to the proprietors will amount to near $6000, as there was but an insurance of $200 on the building. We did not hear how the building took fire.

BRADDOCKS AND BROWNSVILLE PLANK ROAD.—The work on this road is being prosecuted with great energy, and with a determination to overcome all difficulties, and complete the road as soon as possible. A portable saw-mill is to be taken out on the road to-day by the contractor, Mr. Trunick, capable of sawing four thousand feet of lumber each day; the plank will be laid as rapidly as the saving machine furnishes it to the laborers.

THEATRE.—The comedy of "Extreme" will be presented to night. This play was very popular in the East, and is said to possess great merit. Both Mr. and Miss Richings appear in it. A benefit on Friday evening is announced for these two talented performers.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Robert Hall was committed to prison yesterday, by Alderman Major, charged with an assault and battery on T. Conoly.

POCKET-BOOK FOUND.—Containing nothing but receipts and papers, which the owner can have by calling at our counting-room.

SOUTHERN CONVENTION.

CINCINNATI, June 8.

The Convention met yesterday morning, and a committee of two from each State was appointed to draft resolutions, which will be ready shortly.

Judge Sloane, of Arkansas, then offered resolutions relative to the construction of a railroad from the Mississippi to the Pacific ocean. The resolutions set forth the importance of practicable means of increasing the commercial facilities of the Southern and Western States, and assert that Congress has the power to grant portions of the public lands in aid of the road. The resolutions were referred to a committee.

Bishop Otey offered a resolution relative to the free navigation of the Amazon river.

A committee report was then read, recommending the early development of the navigation of the Amazon, and of the mouth of the Mississippi river, as the best ports for a Pacific Railroad, viz: Charleston, Savannah, Mobile and Mississippi.

The Convention then adjourned till 4 o'clock.

EVENING SESSION.—The Convention having met again, Mr. Quitman offered a resolution relinquishing the territorial jurisdiction in regard to the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi river, which created an animated discussion. The resolution was finally lost by a vote of five States to two, and nine against the same; and the resolution of the committee was almost unanimously adopted.

Mr. Merrill moved for a general and liberal system of education among the Southern and Western States.

Mr. Eaton moved the establishment of a bureau of statistics among the Southern and Western States.

The committee on resolutions not being ready with any further reports, the Convention adjourned.

CINCINNATI, June 8.

A case came up before Squire Chilcoy, to-day, which excited a great deal of general interest. The parties, a white boy and a colored man, named Gilbert, were charged with kidnapping a free colored girl, named Henrietta Wool. They were both held to bail to answer.
