Pittsburgh, July 1st, 1853.
I have analyzed a sample of MANCHESTER MINERAL PAINT for PURDON & FOSS, and find it to contain the following:

Silica	67.21
Alumina	6.34
Per Oxide of Iron	19.41
Lime	03
Magnesia	21
Oxide of Manganese	12
Water and Loss	6.00
	100.00

The Powdered Sample, contained in the box, which I suppose was the one you desired also to have analyzed, was found to differ from any average of the lumps powdered, and mixed together. The final yields as follows:

Per Oxide of Iron	58.50
Silica and Alumina	33.00
Lime	03
Magnesia	16
Water and Loss	7.98
	100.00

This difference I presume arises from the mineral not being uniform, some portions containing more Iron than others. The analysis shows the article to be well suited for a durable paint. It may be used by calcining the Sample at a pretty high heat, the color is much improved, or at least converted into a fine red.

LIPPINCOTT & BAKER,
(LATE J. & J. SCUDDER & CO.)
No. 175 FOURTH st., PITTSBURGH, PA.,
MANUFACTURERS OF PATENT FIRE PROOF SAFES.
On Thursday afternoon, July 22, 1852, the undersigned were called upon by Messrs. Lippincott & Baker, to witness the severe and fair test of one of their Fire proof Safes. The furnace being heated, Books were placed inside thereof, with plenty of papers and some money; when the door of the Safe was closed and the fire kindled at a quarter past 2 o'clock, and in a short time the Safe was red hot on the tops, for full 1 hour and 5 o'clock, being about four and a half hours, when the committee expressed their satisfaction that the time occupied with the fire was sufficient. The furnace was then allowed to cool down, Safe cooled, and door opened—the books, papers and money, found in good order, and as great as to melt of the brass mountings. We therefore take pleasure in recommending these Safes to the public, as being, in our judgment, entirely fire proof.

In calling upon the above gentlemen, for their signatures, they all spoke in the highest terms of the fairness of the test, and their full confidence of the Safe's being entirely fire proof. We have constantly on hand and for sale a full assortment of the above safes. [mar31 BELL & TERRY.
