MEETING OF COUNCILS.

The City Councils met last evening, in their Chambers, in the City Hall.

The Common Council was called to order by Mr. Rowley, who moved that Mr. M'Auley take the Chair. The motion was carried.

Mr. Little stated the meeting of Councils was called by three members of the Police Committee, at the request of the Mayor.

Resolutions in relation to gas on Webster and Elm streets, in the Sixth Ward, and in Baldwin street, in Mulberry alley, in the Fifth Ward, were presented, and reported to the Gas Committee. Concurred in by Select Council.

A petition was presented from a number of citizens of the Fifth Ward, protesting against the laying of rails by Coleman, Hallinet & Co., on Harrison street. Referred to Committee on Streets. Concurred in Select Council.

Mr. M'Auley read a communication which had been read and accepted by Select Council, from Robert M. Riddle, Mayor of the city. The communication, was in relation to the difficulty between the Mayor and Police Committee. It stated that there was no likelihood of the Mayor and Police Committee agreeing in the selection of name or in adopting measures calculated to enforce good order in the city. The Mayor asked that either sufficient power should be granted him over the Night Police to render them efficacious, or the withdrawal by Councils of all his power over them. The Mayor next recounted his reasons for dismissing Gillespie, which were, first, his refusal to arrest young Gracey, at the fire, when M'Cleskey was stabbed; second, that Gillespie had been out of Middletown to arrest Gracey, when, in fact, he was at Jones' tavern, on the Noblestown Plank Road, with a prostitute; and third, that Gillespie had been employed, and received pay, as a door keeper for a house of ill fame on Third street. The Mayor dismissed the officer, but the Police Committee placed him on the Night Watch. The Mayor either asked that Councils should give him full dismissing and appointing power, over the Night Police, or define the powers of the Police Committee.

Before the communication was accepted, Mr. Little, a member of the Police Committee, made a statement, in which he denounced, in severe terms, the Mayor. Mr. L. said it was a question of sympathy between the Committee and his honor. He charged Mr. Riddle with appointing drunkards on the night police, and when the Committee refused to concur, re-appointing them under assumed names. He also charged him with appointing "political pets" to the watch, who had been guilty of crimes, who were drunkards, and who had been caught sleeping in their boxes. These, he contended, were the men whom the Mayor wished to place on the night watch. In regard to the appointment of Gillespie, Mr. Little stated that the Mayor urged no objection in regard to his appointment, when it was first mentioned, and that it was not until afterwards that his objections were raised. Another charge made against the Mayor was that he had signed warrants, in violation of law, for the pay of watchmen, whom the Police Committee refused to appoint.

Mr. Moorhead, hoped the Councils would not be divided into a "Mayor Party" and a "Police Committee Party." The police system was defective, and it should be remedied. The present system had been shown to be defective, both under the administration of the present Mayor, and his predecessors. He was in favor of placing the power where the responsibility rests—no matter whether the officer was a Whig or Democrat. He related an instance as an argument in reprobation of the action of the police, of an Ohio merchant, who was afraid to come to Pittsburgh and purchase his goods, which he had formerly done, because men were assassinated in the streets.

The communication of the Mayor was accepted and filed.

After some conversation it was moved by Gen. Moorhead, that the Mayor be invited to address Councils on the Police system of the city. This motion was adopted.

The Mayor made a statement to Councils, in which he argued the uselessness of the present system for the wants of the city. He stated that it was impossible for him to agree with some members of the Committee. A portion of the Committee appeared desirous for the welfare of the city, while another part seemed only to think of quarrelling with the Mayor. Three-fourths of the police force employed were unfit for duty, and would never have been appointed, had he the power of appointing. His honor desired that the powers of the Committee should be restricted, and that Councils should grant him power to select the night watch, subject to the confirmation of the Committee. By this means, a check would be placed upon the Mayor, but power would be left him to select his own officers.

After some conversation, the Chairman stated that during the administration of Mayor Irwin, the appointing power had been taken from the Mayor, at the request of that gentleman, and a system similar to the present adopted. During the difficulties between the late Mayor and the Committee, Mr. (Gen. Moorhead) and the present Mayor, (Mr. Riddle,) had supported the Democratic members of Councils in their attempts to give the Mayor greater powers than he possessed—but a majority of the Whig members successfully opposed the attempt.

Gen. Moorhead was sorry to hear that the Whig member had exhibited such a bad feeling, and he hoped his fellow Democrats would act more liberally in the present emergency. It would be to their own advantage too, as it was pretty certain they would elect the next Mayor.

A preamble and resolution were presented by the Clerk of Select Council, which provided that, on account of the inefficiency of the present police system, a committee of five—three from the Common and two from the Select Council—be appointed to prepare a new system of police; and that no member of the Police Committee should be named as a member of the Select Committee. In Select Council, the resolution was adopted.

It was insisted by Mr. Kennedy that the words "and that no member of the Police Committee be a member of said Committee," be stricken out. Carried. The resolution, as amended, was adopted, and Messrs. Moorhead, Duncan, and Smith, appointed on the part of the Common Council.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, on motion, Council adjourned.

IN THE SELECT COUNCIL, after the reading of the Mayor's letter, considerable discussion ensued, which was participated in by Messrs. Howard, Armstrong, Kimmell, McClowry, and others.

Various resolutions were presented, but were withdrawn. Mr. Taylor, of the Fifth Ward, offered the resolution read in Common Council. An amendment was added that no member of the Police Committee should act on the Select Committee. As amended, the resolution was adopted.

The amendment of the Common Council was agreed to by Select Council.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—A temperance meeting will be held in East Liberty, to-night, and on Monday evening a mass meeting, at the market house, in Allegheny city, will be addressed by J. M. Kirkpatrick and others.

During the past week the temperance "orators" have been very busy in different sections of this country. On the 10th instant there was a meeting held at Lawrenceville; on the 12th at Rev. Mr. Eaton's church, in Robinson township; on the 13th at Temperanceville; a meeting was also held in Temperanceville on Sunday, the 14th inst., which was addressed by Mr. Burleigh; on the 16th a meeting was held at Concord church, in St. Clair township; on the 16th at Francis McClure's, in Mifflin township, and at 8 o'clock, P. M., on the same day, at Port Perry; on the 17th, in Patton township, at the stone church, near Mansfield; and also at Peter's Creek, at the Rev. Dr. Edge's church; and on the 18th at Toxes, in Elum township.

Last evening a meeting was held in the Rev. Mr. Harling's church, near Wilkinsburg. The above meetings were addressed by Dr. Cavitchen, Rev. Samuel Williams, Rev. P. Weddell, John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., John D. Bailey, Col. Holts, and other devout believers in the efficacy of the Maine Law, as a remedy for all the ills of the body politic.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY CASES.—Charles Hole appeared before Alderman Parkinson, on Thursday evening and made information, in which he charged Stephen Yester with assault and battery. Yester went into Hole's house, on Penn street, in the fifth ward, and committed the assault complained of. Yester was arrested and held to bail.

John Turner made an information, in which he stated that while he was cutting wood in front of the United States Hotel, on Penn street, on Tuesday last, John Stoneman came up and knocked him down. Stoneman was yesterday arrested, and taken before Alderman Parkinson. On giving bail he was discharged.

A few days since Ald. Dark committed Henry Nichols to jail, for making threats against Henry Simple. On Thursday, Nichols was discharged, and he yesterday entered a cross suit, against Simple for assault and battery.

THE ACTION TO STOP the Omnibuses from running on Sunday, was commenced yesterday, before Ald. Buckmaster. A man named Normine, of the Ninth Ward, brought suit before Ald. B. against drivers of the 'buses, for running their vehicles on the Sabbath. The hearing of the case was postponed until Monday next, when the Excelsior line, will be represented by Judge Fisher and Mr. Stanton, and the "Association for the better preservation of the Sabbath," by Thomas Williams, Esq.

Normine, who brings the suits, is merely "used" for that purpose by his "backers," the pious gentlemen who passed such terrific resolutions in the basement of the Second Church, a short time since.

LETTERS TO COUNTRY GIRLS.—Callow, opposite the Post Office, has received "Letters to Country Girls," by Mrs. Switchem, editor of the Visitor. Also, fresh supplies of "Old Put;" "Prolesh Wilson;" "The Rover's Wife;" "Eugenie, or the Soldier's Bride;" "Minnie Lawson;" "Capt. Hawke;" "Jack Onde, or the Bondman's Struggle;" "The Green Hand—a Sheet Yarn;" "Mark Hurdlestone, or the Tay Brothers, by Mrs. Moodie, author of "Roughing it in the Bush;" "Sixteen Quentin," the conclusion of "Mary Price," by G. W. M. Reynolds, one of the most popular authors of the day; Waverley Novels, complete; Harper's Magazine, bound, from vol. 1 to vol. 6.

[ADVICE OF SUPREME BOGGERY.—Officer Fox yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Altoona, which stated that a trunk had been stolen from the station house, at that place. Officer F. yesterday arrested two men, both of whom gave their names as Michael Ward, on a charge of the robbery. A trunk answering the description of that stolen, they contend that the trunk belongs to a relative. The two men were committed to jail for a further hearing, to-day.

[A STRAIGHT second-hand Damascus twist double-barrelled fowling piece will be sold at Matthews's Auction House this evening, at early gas light.

LAST DAY.—Happens that Rossiter's great paintings close to-night, at 10 o'clock. These paintings have had crowds of admirers for the last month. Next week our public schools are in session. We think it would be a good idea for the exhibition to remain one week more, as many of the teachers desire that their schools should witness this rare exhibition.

THE English Lutheran Church on Seventh street, under the care of Rev. W. A. Passavant, having been closed for some time past for repairs, will be reopened for public worship, on to-morrow (Sunday). There will be preaching by the Pastor, in the morning, and by the Rev. W. M. Paxton in the evening.

THERE are none so blind as those who will not see; and if there are any who have, from stubbornness or other causes, not seen those hats for three dollars at the "Banner Hat Store," they have missed it. But still it is never too late to do good; and to all and to every one we say, go to the "Banner Hat Store" if you wish to buy a good hat for $3. Remember, 147 Wood street is the number, and the Banner is the sign.
