PITTSBURGH, August 20, 1853.

TOWN MEETING.

In obedience to this request, I hereby invite the citizens to assemble in Town Meeting, at the Court House, on Monday, August 22d, at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Saturday, Aug. 20th, 1853. R. M. RIDDLE, Mayor.

The Jewell Case.

On Saturday, on an application made by Messrs. Shaler and Darragh, Hon. W. M. Lowrie, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, granted a special writ of allocatur, in the case of David Jewell, who was convicted at the October term of the Court of Quarter Sessions, of murder in the first degree, and is now under sentence of death, in our county prison.

The writ of allocatur will bring the case up for revision before the Supreme Court. The writ is made returnable on the first Monday of September, but as the application is the 1st on the list, it will not, in all probability, be argued before October next.

Gov. Bigler will, of course, grant a respite to the unfortunate prisoner, until the writ of error shall have been argued before the Supreme Court. The above news was joyfully received by the friends of Jewell, who were making strong efforts to secure his pardon. Jewell retained considerable reason when he was informed of the action of Judge Lowrie.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT, Before Hon. P. O. Shannon, President Judge, and Hon. H. W. Williams, Associate Judge.

Brawford vs. Hembetwright; No. 361, January Term, 1852. Defendant being an unincumbered free holder, the execution stayed on payment of costs.

Coyle vs. Robinson; No. 201, April Term, 1852. Judgment entered on the verdict, and notes of testimony and bills of exception filed.

E. Snowden vs. Ann McKee; No. 209, January Term, 1852. Rule on plaintiff to show cause why satisfaction should not be entered on the above judgment at cost of R. McGary, and judgment stayed in the meantime; bill of exceptions filed.

Towers vs. Percival; July Term, 1852. Nol. Pros. taken off in each of the cases.

Wallace vs. Rigby; rule of reference stricken off at plaintiff's costs.

Woods vs. Allen; No. 140, July Term, 1852. Defendant having failed to comply with the verdict, judgment was rendered absolute in favor of plaintiff.

Patrick & Friend vs. James Turbett; No. 201, July Term 1853. Preliminary entered to pay out the money according to the date of the respective liens, except a judgment of P. Chamberlin.

Bollman & Garrison vs. Achelman; No. 602, July term, 1853. Amicable filed, and rule to show cause why judgment should not be opened and defendant let into a defence, and proceedings stayed.

Haslett vs. Flaherty; rule to show cause why judgment should not be entered against garnishee, on his answer filed, for the amount of plaintiff's claim and costs.

HALF A CENTURY AGO.—The Dispatch publishes the following literal copy of a bill found among a lot of old papers at the Court House, a few days ago:

"The County of Allegheny Dr. to Samuel Ewalt, Sheriff, Jan. 26th, 1795.

To the execution of Thomas Dunning	£5 0s. 0d.
To the Gibbet	5 0 0
To the Coffin	1 2 0
To the Grave digging	7 0
To Hauling the Gibbet	5 0 0
To Hauling the Man out to the gibbet	5 0 0
To Liquor canvassed to the Men for the Burial	8 10
	£19 11 4
To be paid the Executioner	0 0 0
	£19 11 4

The Commissioners of Allegheny County requests Col. Neville, Mr. Geo. Adams and Mr. Hugh Alexander, to examine the above act, and state their opinions, as they are at a loss to no in what manner to proceed, as it is a new matter to them.

—On the back of the bill we found the following reply from these gentlemen:

"We are not well acquainted with the nature of the within Bill, but suppose it ought to be paid, as it was for a disagreeable kind of service. PRESLEY NEVILLE,
GEO. ADAMS, Late Auditors.
H. ALEXANDER,"

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—We learn from the Times that Mr. William Courtney, an aged citizen of this county, died at his residence in Courtneyville, seven miles below this city, on the 11th. He was born in the year 1774, and has been a resident of this county upwards of fifty years. In 1816 or thereabouts, he represented Allegheny county in the General Assembly, and has always borne the reputation of an honest, upright and consistent Christian. He has left a very numerous progeny, among whom is our fellow-citizen, W. S. Courtney, Esq. Mr. Courtney was a member of the Masonic fraternity for more than fifty-seven years.

FATHER OFF GERMANTOWN.—General Ross, the Superintendent of the Portage Road, was at Johnstown several days last week, making payments to the hands employed on the Road. Thirty thousand dollars have been paid out within ten days, and ten thousand dollars of this sum was paid out at Johnstown. The Mountain Echo says that Gen. Ross is making the most commendable efforts to liquidate the entire debt of the Road, but at present he is only prepared to pay claims for labor, and the accounts of those who have the most imperative demand for money.

LARGE FREIGHT.—On Friday evening, the locomotive Ashland, on the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, brought into Allegheny City a train of twenty-five freight cars, from the West. This road is doing a tremendous business at present.

On Saturday, one hundred and thirty cars came in from the East, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, laden with merchandise. The train was brought in by three locomotives. The freight is intended for shipment west of this city.

COUNTY JAIL.—There are eighty-three persons in jail at present. During the week, which ended on Saturday, there were forty-nine commitments to the jail—for drunkenness, disorderly conduct, and vagrancy, seven for larceny, five for assault and battery, four for others for offences ranging from murder to surety of the peace. The total number of commitments entered on the books, during the week, was seventy five.

BRANCH ROAD TO UNIONTOWN.—The Uniontown Democrat, states that a committee of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will visit that place next week to examine the various routes already surveyed from Uniontown to Greensburg, and that negotiations having failed to connect with the Hempfield road, it is probable that the Connellsville route will be adopted. One thing is fully determined, the Democrat says—the road will be made.

ELECTION OF MANAGERS.—The following persons have been elected Managers of the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum for the ensuing year:—President, Rev. E. M'Mahon; Managers: Hugh Kane, Patrick Rickert, Morris Brierton, John O'Brien, Owen Flanigan, Dennis Carlin, John Savage, Dani. Donohoe, John Sweeny, Stephen Doyle, Stephen Darrah, Philip Flowers.

THE ALLEGHENY SECRETS CASE.—On Saturday morning, the physicians in attendance on Dawson, gave up all hope for his recovery. He has not tasted food, we are informed, since he was shot. On Saturday evening, he was sinking rapidly.

Gould was recommitted to jail, on Saturday, by Mayor Park, for a further hearing to-day.

CONFESSION.—Justice Finch, a toll collector on the Hand Street Bridge, made an information before Alderman Major, on Saturday, in which he charged Jacob Hill with firing on him in the storm low heat, while the boat was lying, during the night, under the Hand Street Bridge. Hill was arrested and held to bail.

SUIT AGAINST THE MAYOR.—On Saturday, Wm. W. Spiane, a member of the Police Committee, brought a civil action against Mayor Riddle and E. W. Cook, charging them with trespass, vi et armis, and false imprisonment.

This action grew out of the summary manner in which Mayor Riddle treated Mr. Spiane, on Wednesday night last.

REMOVAL.—It will be seen by an advertisement in today's paper, that our friends, Messrs. Smith & Sinclair, have removed to the warehouse lately occupied by English & Bennett, 102 Second, and 101 First street, where they are prepared to wait upon their old friends and customers.

BREAKING PRISON.—Several jails were taken before his honor, Mayor Park, on Saturday, charged with stealing fruit from the residence of Mrs. Stuart, in Allegheny. The Mayor after admonishing the lads to behave better in future, discharged them.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Amasa Inly, residing in South Fayette township, named Mrs. Mary Ehrich, died suddenly on Saturday evening. Coroner Lowry held an inquest on the body, and the jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to her death by visitation of God.

SUPERINTENDENT.—T. T. Eckert, Esq., of Wooster, is the Superintendent of the line of telegraph now in course of erection on the line of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, between Allegheny City and Crestline.

RETURNED.—Officer Hague returned on Friday, from his tour down the river, in search of the murderer of Donahoe. He went as far as Madison, Ia., where he ran from the New Kitt. It is needless to say his mission was unsuccessful.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.—John M'Guffey was admitted, on Saturday, to practice law in the various Courts of Allegheny county, on motion of Mr. Rogers.

POLICE NEWS.—There was no police matters worthy of note, occuring in the city, on Saturday.

A BRUTE.—Named McGuire, for beating his wife, and threatening to kill his mother-in-law, was fined by Mayor Park, on Saturday.

A LARGE amount of fancy and staple dry goods will be sold at M'Harg's Auction Rooms, this morning at ten o'clock.
