THE CITY POST.

FRIDAY MORNING.....SEPTEMBER 9.

THE HORTICULTURAL FAIR.

The annual exhibition of the Allegheny County Horticultural Society opened on Tuesday evening last, at Masonic Hall. The display of articles on exhibition (with the exception of green house plants), exceeds in extent and variety that of former years. The number of articles of fruit on exhibition shows its intended attention on the part of our farmers to that department of horticulture.

The following list presents an exhibit of the premiums granted:

In this, the Committee to the very best of their ability fulfilling a rather ungracious task, they hope they may be allowed to confess their regret that many articles well worthy of notice does by the very menus of the competition exclude from any contest for the premiums. They were this compelled to pass over many things which otherwise they would have gladly noticed but they may have their very innocently given offence. Achaeron, they were totally ignorant of the names of the competitors, they therefore did not have been influenced by personal feelings, and they may claim at least, honest intentions, in their decisions.

The Committee cannot close their report without making a favorable mention of some fine plants consisting of Orchids, Mandrea, Fuchsias, and 15 drawing exhibited by John Chilcote, Esq., also, extra large Sago Palm and a variety of Orchids and other plants exhibited by Joseph W Elliott; and close our report by adding our regret that the fine display of Verbenas, Dahlias, and Verbenas, brought by Mr. Cartwright, which came under the rule, too late for competition; also, a rich collection of fine Dahlias from Messrs. Kennedy & Co., which was not entered for competition.

Deputation.—In Councils, on Wednesday night, the report of the Committee on Aqueduct and Canal, read at the meeting on Tuesday night, was again read, with an addition that the Committee were satisfied that Mr. Beck was guilty of retaining money received as tolls, in violation of the provisions of the ordinance, and they presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That the office of Toll Collector at the Aqueduct be declared vacant.

A letter from Mr. Beck, the Collector, denying the charges and courting investigation, was read and ordered to be entered upon the minutes of both branches.

The resolution, reported by the Ordinance Committee, was read three times, and the yeas and nays called on its adoption. In the Select Council, the vote stood, yeas 11, nays 2. In the Common, yeas 19, nays 2.

A joint meeting of both branches of Councils was then held for the purpose of electing a Collector in place of Mr Beck.

A number of persons were placed in nomination. Wm. S. Thompson was elected on the fourth ballot.

The State Fair Ground.—The fence around Denny's Field has been completed, and workmen are now engaged in the erection of the necessary tents, buildings, &c., in the enclosure. The hall intended for the display of manufactured articles is 425 feet long by 45 wide. The principal office is near the gateway, and is 95 feet long by 24 feet wide. There are within the enclosure 340 stalls for cattle and horses; 25 stalls for hogs, and 23 for sheep. The refreshment stalls are each 120 feet long by 24 feet wide. There are also in process of erection tent, ranging in size from 100 feet in length by 50 feet wide, to 17 feet by 12 feet. There is a race-course within the enclosure 1807 feet in length. A coop for fowls has been erected within the enclosure, 200 feet in length.

Run Off.—Yesterday afternoon, a horse, attached to the carriage of Washington McClintock, which was passing along St. Clair street, took fright, and ran down the street towards the bridge, at a terrific rate. The carriage struck against a lamp post, and was broken to pieces. A lady, two children, and the driver, who were in the carriage, were thrown out. Both the lady and the children were injured slightly. The driver was severely cut on the head by the fall. He was conveyed in a carriage furnished by Mr. Blaisdell, to his residence in Allegheny.

Committee.—Under Mr. Barton's resolution, passed in the County Convention, on Wednesday, the Chairman of the Convention appointed, as a Committee, Messrs. John Barton of Pittsburgh, Henry M'Collough, of Lawrenceville, and D. W. Bess, of Allegheny City.

While speaking of the Convention, we may add, we omitted to mention in our report that the name of Jacob L. Kleiser, of Shaler, was withdrawn from the list of nominations for the Assembly ticket, before the first ballot had been announced.

Improvement to Lawrence.—Judge Woodward yesterday, in an opinion in a case from Lycoming county, decided that when a Judge has written out his charge, and filed it, and made a return to a writ of error that the record is full, his subsequent recollections cannot be certified and made part of the same. The proper course, Judge Woodward observed, would be for the Judge, when he wished to certify to an error in a filed charge, to file an amended copy of the entire charge.

Harvest Home.—Those who wish to spend a day of pleasure, will not be absent from the Harvest Home celebration at Mansfield to-day. It takes place on the property of Alf. Steel. Judging from the list of managers—the Alderman himself is an active one—we feel confident it will be a festivity in which every one who participates, will feel satisfied with the pleasure he has enjoyed. The drive over the Noblestown plank road to Mansfield is a pleasant morning ride. We trust large numbers of our citizens will be present.

Surgeon, Tom Quin, &c.—The ordinance reported to Common Council, by Mr. Fetterman, in regard to switches, turn outs, &c., passed Councils on Wednesday night, as amended. We gave a few days since a synopsis of the ordinance.

Fire Company.—Marshall Swartzwelder has been fully committed, by Mayor Riddle, for larceny.

Perjury.—An information was made before Alderman M'Master, yesterday, by Romana Williams, in which she charged George Gardner with perjury. A warrant was issued for Gardner's arrest.

The Pic Nic which comes off on Tuesday next, at M'Ginley's, (formerly Pryor's,) on the Brownsville road, promises to be an excellent party. There will be a large number of our citizens in attendance, and they will, no doubt, have "a good time."

COMMERCIAL POST.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF PITTSBURGH MARKET.

Office of the Daily Morning Post, Friday, September 9, 1853.

Since the date of our last general review, our market has experienced an unusual degree of excitement and activity in some of the leading articles of trade. Flour has advanced almost $1 ⅌ bbl., as will be seen by reference to our quotations; but how long this price will be maintained, it is impossible now to conjecture. From the tone of the last European advices, and the future prospects, we are led to believe that breadstuffs will rule much higher, for the next twelve months, than for several years past. Coffee has advanced fully ⅝ ⅌ cent. ⅌ lb, and very firm; for particulars refer to the proper head.

In business, we find an improvement over last week Western merchants are coming in and are buying their fall stocks. We find nearly all our merchants busy in filling orders of their various goods to their customers, and it only remains now for them to get a-ble in our rivers, to enable Western merchants to get their produce to market, which will greatly increase the business of our city.

ASHES—The sales for the week were moderate, at former prices. Domestic Sods 3½@3¾; imported 3¼@3½. Pearlash: sales of — bbls at 5½, cash; the demand for this article is limited. Saleratus: some few sales transpired at 4½ for prime.

APPLES—Receipts are increasing and prices are declining; the sales for the week comprise about 300 bbls at prices ranging from $2.25@3.50 ⅌ bbl.

BACON—To this article we have no change to notice from last week; the shipping demand is brisk, and prices are unchanged. We continue to quote at $6, $7 and $8, as to quality and brand.

BESWAX—There is very little coming in, and sales are only in a small way, at 22@24, from first hands and from stores.

BRANS—There is but little demand for Brans; and sales are confined principally to the retail trade. We quote small white at $1.15@1.25, from first hands and stores.

BROOMS—Sales during the week were made at $1.62, $1.12 @2.75, first hands; stock light.

BRICK—The demand continues brisk for Bolivar, at $25 for common, and $40 for extra.

BUCKETS AND TUBS—The manufacturers' prices are $1.25 for Buckets, cash; No 1 Tubs $3.25, No 2 $3.00; Keelers $3.75. Sales of Buckets from stores at $2@2.25.

BUTTER—Receipts up to this date have been very limited, both for packed and roll. We heard of a sale of about 100 lbs roll at 11. Packed would command from 11@12.

BACON—The demand and sales for the week were active, with sales reported of about 200,000 lbs at 6¼@6½ for shoulders, 7¼@7½ for sides, and 9½@9¾ for plain hams; canvassed 10@11 sugar cured 11½@12 as to quality.

BRACKETS—Have undergone a change; the following are the present rates, viz:

Water Crackers, ⅌ lb	4½c
Butter do do	4½c
Sugar Crackers, ⅌ lb	7
Soda do do	7
Butter do do	7
Pic Nic do do	6¾
Pilot Bread, ⅌ bbl	$1.50

COFFEE—There is considerable excitement in this and every other Coffee market, and prices have gradually advanced, as will be seen by reference to our Report of New York, on the 3d inst., large sales were made at 9¾@10. On the 5th, prices ruled at 10¼. In Baltimore, Coffee, Yesterday, advanced to 11, and held firm. In Philadelphia, we hear, by a private letter, we learn that Coffee has gone up from ½ to ¾, and held firmly at 10¾@11. The sale in our market for the week sum up about 600 bags, at prices ranging from 10¼@10½, with some sales reported at 11; some holders asking more.

FISH—Prices remain firm at quotations, viz: 3½@3¾ cash and time.

FEATHERS—Sales are regularly made at 40@45, from stores.

FILE CLAY—Regular sales are making of Bolivar at $12 ⅌ ton.

FLOUR—The receipts of flour since our last, have slightly improved, but not enough to meet the demand; the market has been active, and prices have further advanced, with a still upward feeling. At the close of our last week's review, we left the market firm, at $4.12½@4.25; on Monday prices advanced to $4.50, with a brisk demand—since then, sales have been made at $4.12½@4.25 for superfine; $4.25@4.37½ for extra, and $4.50@4.62½ for family, at $5.50. In the present unsettled state of the market, we may safely quote the ruling rate at $4.12½@4.62½.

FREIGHTS—The following are the freights now charged on steamboats for ports below:

	DRY FREIGHT.
To Cincinnati.....Ctc	40c. ⅌ 100 lbs.
To Louisville.....Ctc	50c. do
To St. Louis.....Ctc	75c. do

By the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad to Cincinnati, the rates for the three classes of freight, from solid to bulky, are 40, 60 and 80 cts. ⅌ 100 lbs, respectively, including all charges, without transhipment. By the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Road the rate to Cincinnati is 50c. ⅌ 100 lbs. Between Hollsburg, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, the rates for Goods are 37½@40 for fourth class freight; third class 50; second class 60; and first class 75; by Railroad, and 50, 75, 87½ and 100. Flour, by Canal, 62½ ⅌ bbl; by R. R. 75.

GRAIN—Receipts are only moderate. We quote sales of Oats readily at 40 to 45 ⅌ bushel. Corn: we hear of sales of Western Corn at 56 to 58. Rye: sales at 75 to 80. Corn meaning at 50 to 55. Rye firm at 58 to 60.

GERMAN CLAY—Sales in small lots are made at $20 to $25 ⅌ ton and cask.

HAY—Sales are made at the scales at $19@24 ⅌ ton.

HIDES—Are in good demand for prime western at 1¼; prime dry 11½ @12½; green 4@4½.

HONEY—The demand is limited, with regular small sales at $1.40@1.45 ⅌ gal.

LEAD—There is a decline in this article, caused by a decline in the eastern markets. We quote Bar at 4½@5; Pipe 5½@5¾; Shot $2.25 ⅌ keg, or $1.75@1.87 ½ cask.

LIME—Sales are made at $1.25 ⅌ bbl, from stores, for Western.

TELEGRAPHIC.

By the O'Reilly Lines for the Morning Post.

RIOT AT SOMERSET, OHIO.

Advices from Somerset, Perry county, Ohio, give us information of a terrible riot in that place, the origin of which we cannot learn precisely. The Irish laborers on the railroad have fire arms belonging to the county in their possession. Two persons were killed and several badly wounded. The Sheriff of Perry county has sent here for one hundred armed men, and one of our military companies, the City Guards, under Capt. Graham, has just started for the scene. More trouble is anticipated, and the life of the telegraph operator has been threatened should he transmit any requests for assistance.

We learn the row commenced in Welch's circus last night, but cannot give particulars.

STEAMER EXPLOSION.

New York, September 8.

An explosion occurred on the steamer Bay State this morning, in Long Island Sound, while bound for Boston, from New York. The head of the steam cylinder flew off, and a number of persons were severely scalded—and among the sufferers are Mr. De Witt, his wife and four children, all of Chicago. Among those slightly scalded are John C. Abbott, of Boston; Charlotte Snow, of Dartmouth; Edwin Wilson, of New York; and Alonzo Harvey, of Fall River. The wounded were all brought to New York.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

Boston, September 8.

Last evening the locomotive at the junction of the Newburyport and Georgetown Railroads, whilst waiting to take up a pleasure party of 600, exploded, and was shattered into a thousand pieces. Spofford, the fireman, was thrown fifty feet into the air, and instantly killed. Many of those belonging to the pic-nic were standing near, and miraculously escaped without injury.

THE DOANE TRIAL.

Philadelphia, September 8.

The trial of Bishop Doane progresses slowly. There has been nothing of importance done to-day, except that the respondent threatens not to plead, on the ground that his diocese has already investigated the charges against him.

STEAMER BURNT.

Cincinnati, September 9.

The steamers North America and Clara were destroyed by fire at Fulton this morning. The former was insured at Pittsburgh for $15,000; the Clara was an old boat. The fire was discovered on the North America at 1 o'clock this morning, while lying near the dock, near Fulton.

The flames spread so rapidly that no effort was made to save her.

The steamers Clara and Europa were lying alongside when the North America took fire; the latter was cut loose, but was considerably damaged. The former was burnt to the water's edge.

New Orleans, September 6.

Ninety-five deaths, of which sixty-five are from fever. The number of deaths at Mobile yesterday were forty-three, of which thirty-three were by fever.
