Having received the appointment as Agent in Pittsburgh, and vicinity, of the Ætna Insurance Company, lately held by R. H. Beeson, I take occasion to call the attention of its former patrons, my friends and the public, that I am prepared to issue Policies, or renewals of them, at fair rates of premium, on all the various descriptions of buildings, merchandise, mills, machinery, and all risks needing the security of insurance from loss or damage by fire. The Ætna Company recommends itself to the community from its prompt liberality and promptitude, not only in settling its losses, but in the adjustment and payment of its losses. It does not profess so much to give cheap insurance, as it does promise valuable indemnity.

Is your Life Insured,

IF NOT, read what some one has written. Among all the contrivances of man to protect the family circle from want, none can be found more simple in its character, noble in its nature, or certain in its results, than LIFE INSURANCE. It is the prop which the dying husband leaves to support the wife of his bosom.

It is the unseen hand of the Provident father reaching forth from the grave, and still nourishing his offspring, and keeping together the family group.
