Ten Acres for Sale.
THE subscriber offers for sale Ten Acres of Land, near the residence of Rev. Dr. Campbell, in Manchester, all which is in the highest state of cultivation. There are on it bearing apple, peach, plum and pear trees, all of which are grafted fruit, are on the lot; also, about three acres of strawberry vines, of various kinds, and the other improvements are two Dwelling Houses and outhouses; one of the dwellings is new, and having been recently finished, the improvement from this place is among the most extensive and beautiful in the country. It is abundantly supplied with fine springs of water, and would be a desirable place for manufacturing establishments.

Two Hundred acres of superior Stone Coal, with House, Railroad, &c. This property has a front of 140 rods on the Monongahela river; an excellent landing; good grade and foundation for railroad—with enough level ground at one point for houses and gardens, or location for manufactories. The vein is deep enough to allow horses to be used in hauling out the coal—the quality of which is equal to any for iron, gas, or for any ordinary uses, is not surpassed by any in the country.

In my absence, my agent, James Blakely, Esq., will give all necessary information, and be authorized to give warranty deeds for any property sold. JAMES MAY, mr25 No. 110 Penn street.
