FROM PUNCH.

THE RUSSIAN GUY FAWKES.

AIR—"Popular."

I sing a Northern Autocrat, old Nick the prince of Sinisters,
Who made away with Turkey once, the Sultan and his Ministers:
That is, he would have made away with them, but was prevented.
For France and England stopped the way, and Nick was circumvented.
Chorus—Bow, wow, wow!
The Russian Bear is going to the dogs I trow.

A flimsy quarrel to hash up he soon was at no less, you see,
And being out temper, cold, "I'm fighting for the Cross you bet;"
Most piously upon his sword he then invoked a blessing,
And vowed that with its naked edge he'd give the Turks a dressing.
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

With coolness quite cucumbrian, dispising all formalities,
He sent his army to invade the neutral Principalities:
Then passing over the Danube, he besieged Constantinople,
At least he has not done so yet, and never, we may hope, will.
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

By sea his arms with victory not long were unrewarded:
Sinope's famous triumph stands in history recorded;
And yet opinions differ—no two men think the same now,
For what he calls a victory, we've quite another name now.
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

Another drubbing soon he gave the Turks at Oltenitza;
And made them run with holy gun, and holier howitzer—
Twas so at least his version ran—to home-marines and Frusciains.
But according to the Turkish tale, the rush was by the Russians,
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

At Cronstadt, too, great stones he sank, with powder each well loaded,
And thus blew up the British fleet, and all our hopes exploded:
That is, he means to blow them up—the papers clearly show it,
But how the trick itself is blown, we think he'll hardly do it.
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

His pledged "parole de gentleman" he never once has broken,
Nor crooked policy has shown, but upright and plain-spoken.
Upright, at least, he might have proved, but in truth there's no denying
The attitude he has preserved towards us has been lying.
Bow, wow, wow, &c.

They say his ships outnumber ours, but it must not be forgotten,
That recent travelers have found out that one-half his ships are rotten;
If his forces are his weaknesses, he can't be very strong, now,
So we hope to make short work of him; it will not take us long, now.
Bow, wow, wow!
The Russian Bear is going to the dogs I trow.
