THE CITY POST.

THURSDAY MORNING:.....JUNE 29.

PITTSBURGH AND STEUBENVILLE RAILROAD.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company, held on Tuesday, the following allotments of work on their line were made: Section A, extending from Wood's rolling mill to Lorenz's glass house, was assigned to Messrs. Moorhead & Murray, and Section B running from the latter point to the end of the Monongahela Bridge, to Messrs. Colohan, Duncan, Blanchard and Geary.

These gentlemen are all able and experienced contractors, and from their high standing as men of business we anticipate their work will be strenuously pushed, and completed by the time specified, viz: by the 1st of December next.

These sections embrace some very heavy work, including masonry. On section A a large bridge across Saw Mill Run, of first class masonry will be required, and about 5,000 perches of vertical and slope walls will be necessary on both. The anticipated expense on the work above allotted is about $50,000.

OUTRAGE ON AN OLD LADY.—A negro man named Thomas Wilson, was arrested by the Cincinnati police on Monday, for an attempt to outrage the person of an old lady seventy-five years of age, on board the Lady Franklin. The lady is a resident of this city, and arrived home yesterday. She had been on a visit to some friends in the South, and had just reached Cincinnati from Louisville, where she was waiting to be transferred to another boat bound upward, when the black scoundrel entered her state room, and closing the door, attempted the perpetration of the crime. The old lady was considerably injured in her struggles with the villain. The Cincinnati papers also mention that he was arrested for a similar offence on the person of a young lady from Pomeroy, Ohio.

After his arrest, he was taken before the Police Court; but both the ladies being anxious to get home, and not wishing the notoriety that a judicial examination would attach to it, did not appear; and consequently, the Court was reluctantly compelled to discharge the villain.

A BAD CORNER.—Complaints innumerable have been made against a gang of rowdies, who nightly assemble in front of the German church, on the corner of Wylie and High streets, blocking up the street, and making it almost impossible for peaceable citizens or ladies to pass without running an almost certainty of being insulted. The members of the congregation, in particular, have been annoyed on Sundays by the loud and profane language made use of during services, by these miscreants; but could never succeed in having the nuisance abated. We are glad to hear that Alderman Major has at last taken the matter in hand, and will disperse the whole crowd. Warrants have already been issued for the arrest of half a dozen of the worst of the lot, and information lodged against about twenty others.

FLORAL CONCERT.—A grand vocal and instrumental Concert will be given by the pupils of the Third Ward Public Schools, under the direction of Mr. D. Shryock, the celebrated music teacher, this evening, in the large hall of the School House. Several of our best musical performers have been secured to take part in the instrumental portion of the performance.

The room in which the Concert is to be held is one of the largest, and best ventilated in the city—better adapted for such purposes than any other we know of. No more persons will be admitted than can be comfortably seated.

QUARTER SESSIONS.—The following is a list of the cases tried at the June term of this Court. Out of the whole list, but two persons were sent to the Penitentiary:

Assault and Battery	26	Keeping Gambling House	1
Burgary of the Person	14	Rape	1
Keeping Tippling House	13	Passing Counter'f Money	1
Larceny	10	Nuisance	1
Seduction	1

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A young man employed at M'Coy's restaurant, on the corner of Smithfield and Fifth streets, met with a very severe accident last Sunday. While walking along the bank of the Allegheny river, a short distance above the city, the earth gave way, and allowed him to fall on the rocks below, a considerable distance, injuring him very badly. He was picked up shortly after, and brought down to Mr. M'Coy's house.

AGNES STRICKLAND'S GREAT BOOK OUT AT LAST.—The Pilgrims of Walsingham, a Romance of the Middle Ages, from the accomplished pen of Agnes Strickland, author of "The Queens of England." This is a great book, and by a great author. It is for sale by Gildersleeve & Co., 70 Fourth street. The above firm have also received a new work by Eugene Sue, called Woman's Love; a true story of the heart.

A FIGHT took place yesterday afternoon between two Irishmen named Carnahan and Harnahan, on High street. During the fight the latter struck the former a severe blow over the head with a poker. Carnahan made information of the fact before Alderman M'Masters, who arrested and held the prosecutor to bail.

EXCURSION TRAIN.—It will be seen by reference to the advertisement of the Ohio and Pennsylvania Railroad, in order to accommodate all who wish to take an excursion to the country on the Fourth of July, that they intend to put an extra train on, and place the fare at half price.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Edward Boyle made information, yesterday, before Ald. M'Masters, against David M'Grundy, for the above offence. A warrant was issued for his arrest. The parties reside in the 7th Ward.

Notice is Hereby Given,

TO ALL PERSONS who have subscribed to the Capital Stock of the PITTSBURGH AND ERIE RAILROAD COMPANY, and which has been made specially payable to the construction of the road in Mercer county, that an instalment of FIVE PER CENT, per share, is required to be paid to the Treasurer of the Company, at his office, in Greenville, Mercer county, on or before the 20TH DAY OF JULY, 1854, and that an instalment of FIVE PER CENT, per share, will be required to be paid at the same place every thirty days therefter. By order of the Board.

Fifth Ward Property for sale at a Good Bargain.

THREE VALUABLE BRICK HOUSES AND LOTS.—These Lots embrace a front on Penn street, of 66 feet 6 inches, to a 8 feet alley; on which there is erected a valuable block of Brick Houses, two stories high, with kitchen and cellar in basement, 21 feet front on Penn street, and 30 feet deep on Locust street. This is a very desirable situation for either a Store or a Tavern; Penn street being the great throughfare of the city; and this property being convenient to the Railroad Depot.

This property would not be in the market only that the owner is living in Washington county, and finds it extremely inconvenient to attend to it.

Terms easy and price moderate; for further particulars enquire of ROBERT DAY, Fifth Ward,
or JAS. O. RICHEY,
Real Estate Agent, at this office.
