DAILY MORNING POST.

THURSDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 14.

HUMOROUS.

"A short time since the little ones" of a family were gathered in the kitchen discussing the merits of a new cook, and comparing her with one who had left half a dozen years before, when a bright-eyed little girl, remarked:

"Didn't she make beautiful gingerbread Pan?"

"Yes she did, and I loved it better than any I've eaten since."

"So did I love it too," said Davy, a little blue eyed four year old boy.

"You!" said the little girl, "you never eat any of it, you wasn't here, you was in Heaven then."
