DAILY MORNING POST.

MONDAY MORNING.....MARCH 26.

A HUMBUG EXPOSED.—It seems, from a letter in the Ithaca Chronicle that Gen Hasley, who has gained such a newspaper celebrity for having written a letter to the tax collector, directing him to present the unpaid poor of that town, to him, for payment, first ascertained that the total amount of these bills did not exceed the enormous sum of $2.20! It cost two dollars more to advertice the matter in the papers of the town. Total cost of a national reputation for charity and liberality—four dollars and twenty six cents—"dog cheap, even in these hard times!

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN NAPIER AND DUNDAS.—Punch says the following appears to be the distinction between two Admirals who have not achieved much distinction of any other kind—Napier was expected to do something, and didn't do it. Dundas was expected to do nothing, and did it.

HERPETIC SOAP EXCELSIOR!

Ain—"I would I were a boy again.

I'll go sure to that store again,
On Third street, kept by S. L. C.,
And some Herpetic soap I fain
Would buy, for it always suits me,
Herpetic Soap always suits me.
That Soap removes redness and tan
And cures all chaps and soreness too;
Brightens complexions pale and wan—
I'm very sure it will please you:
Oh yes, I know it will please you.

This valuable remedy for sore rough hands has proved of great benefit to hundreds. Price only 12½ cents per cake. Sold by S. L. CUTHBERT, 140 Third street.

MINER & CO., No. 32 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh; We will send it anywhere, free by post, on receiving one dollar and the address.

New York Prices for Ladies.

HAVING sold out my entire stock of old Collars, (the profit of a combination of the Ladies,) I have received this morning 200 fine Swiss, French and Jaconet Collars, which are out for one week only, on commission, consequently they must sell at half the usual prices or low as to enable every buyer to buy their friends some for New Years. The lot of Collars are offered to be sold at not what they are worth, but whatever they will bring. As this is the last week, those persons intending to purchase anything in the line will find it to their interest to call soon at Van Gorder's Trimming Store, and make their selections.
