Henry K. Strong vs. Hammond Dugan, Frederick Dugan, John Spear Smith, Robert S. Hollins, Smith Hollins, and all other heirs and legal representatives of Cumberland Dugan, late of the city of Baltimore, dec. and on all others interested in the premises in question;	In the Common Pleas of Schuylkill County at March Term, 1839.

March, 26, A. D. 1839.

IN the matter of the petition of Henry K Strong, for a commission to perpetuate the testimony of witnesses in relation to the title to five adjoining tracts of land containing each four hundred acres, or thereabouts, lying on and near Raush creek, in Pinegrove and Lower Mahantango townships, in the said county of Schuylkill, surveyed in the names of Robert Kinnear, Nancy Kinnear, Sophia Moyer, John Harris and Christiana Layenbugh, in whose names warrants were respectively granted by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the 5th day of May, 1794. The court granted a rule on Hammond Dugan, Frederick Dugan, John Spear Smith, Robert S. Hollins, Smith Hollins, and all others, the heirs and legal representatives of Cumberland Dugan, late of the city of Baltimore, dec. and on all others interested in the premises in question; to show cause by the 22d day of July next, why a commission should not issue under the seal of the said court, to be directed to such person or persons as the court may appoint for the examination of the petitioner's witnesses, in perpetuam rei; and the court also made an order that the service of notice of the said rule should be by publication in the newspapers therein described.

By the Court,
GEO RAHN, Prothonotary.
