The Miners' Journal

MINERS' HOUSES.

There is represented to be a remarkable lack of accommodations for Miners and their families in some portions of our Region, which accounts in a great measure for the scarcity of Miners, now become a complaint with our ...

further discussion by Messrs. B. Jackson and Dr. Wythes, a committee of three to ... text books, ... pointed ...

...peaking of ... bugs, a friend of ours ...ports ... at the Kalamazoo House, ...s the lot ...owing "strong one;"

"You see, I went to bed pretty all-fired ...d ... after a hull day on the old road, be...e the plunk was laid, calkulatin' on a good ...ooze. Wall, just as the shivers began to ease off, I kinder felt suthin' tryin' to pull off my shirt, and diggin their feet into the small of my back to get a good hold. Wiggled and twisted, and doubled and puckered —all no use—kept agoin' it like all sin.—Bimeby I got up and struck a light, to look round a spell—found about a peck of bedbugs scattered around, and more droppin' ... my shirt and runnin' down my ... every ...minit. Swept off a place on the ... door, shook out a quilt, lay down and ... covered up in it kut a quilt, lay down and ... right on to me, for a nap. No use ... on a meal tub—dug a hole a passel of ... rid, and crawled through ...nole in the ... as fits for tryin' to hide. Got up and gi... went down stairs and got the slush ... from the wagon. Brought it up and ...ade a circle of tar on the floor—lay down in the inside, and felt comfortable that time ...ny how. Left the light burnin' and watching 'em. Fact by ...under.

"Well, I swept 'em up agin, and made a ...rcle of tar on the ceilin' too. Thought I ...d 'em foul, that time; but I swan to man, they didn't pull straws out of the bed, and build a regular bridge over it!"

Seeing an incredible expression on our visage, he clinched the story thus:

"It's so, whether you believe it or not, and some of 'em walked across on stilts."—...ed-bugs are curious critters and no mistake; ...pecially the Kalamazoo kind.—Grand River Eagle.

☞ The following "poem," which we find in an exchange, is a decided jewel. It is also equal to the heroic production of Cayenne Pepper, Esq., the weeping "genius" of the Knickerbocker. We believe it was originally published in the Louisville Journal, or at least it should have been:

THORTS ON A FADED BOKA

BY H. JEEMS SNOOKS.

In looking over my trunk wot day
I lit into a old boka
Immegitly thurts gum into mi hed
& thus to the boka I sed—

Pore dried up thing what made u fad
Or rinicle up like a old made
What made you luze your sweet purplime
Which u had about the middle of gume.

A lass what a lesson in u lyze
To awl hu see u with thare eize
But most ov awl shood the plane seck
Thare gerfedom true to pleze

Thare phorms so plane and pump to sea
Lyke ded reac leaves wil dryed up bee
There shorders which they sho trawl
Will then be kivered with a sholl.

There round hair arms so very whyte
Will then be hidd in sleve & glove
& varyous other ov these mus-kittes
Will bee conceiled by phyne mantillers.

☞ They have some queer jurymen in Iowa. A few days since an old tiper died rather suddenly. The coroner, in consequence, held an inquest, listened to the testimony of a physician, and was about rendering a verdict "water on the brain," when Mr. Slocum Hopplepodis rig to object. "Mr. Coroner, I have known the deceased for ten moral years, and I know he has never seen a sober moment in all that time. To say that such a man can die of water on the brain," is therefore d—d nonsense. It can't be did! Cause why? He never took any into his system. The true verdict, Mr. Coroner, should be gin, rum, or brandy on the brain; but as I am willing to split the difference, I compromise, and bring in a verdict as follows: "Died from the effects of brandy and water on the brain." The compromise was agreed to, and the verdict is part and parcel of the recorded doings of Iowa.

☞ In Pursuit of Mrs. Partington.—The following, from the Springfield Republican, should be a caution to Mrs. Ruth Partington, to look to her laurels: Mrs. Cubbidge (a poetical name) is after her:

"Dear me!" exclaimed Mrs. Cubbidge, as she returned from church last Sunday, "Dear me this is an age of conventions. When I was a girl, orgins was in their infancy. A forerunner used to turn the crank, and a little monkey take the pennies. But now an organizer provides over the estimate, while the deacon takes up a constitution. Oh! you should hear the fellow perform one of his closing voluptuaries, when he pulls out all the stopples, and plays on the pedlar base so loud as to jar the conflagration—they pass out to their respective places of abodement.

☞ Getting out of a Dilemma.—A creditor, whom he was anxious to avoid, met Sheridan coming out of Pall Mall. There was no possibility of avoiding him, but he did not lose his presence of mind:

"That's a beautiful mare you're on," said Sheridan.

"Do you think so?"

"Yes indeed. How does she trot?" continued Sheridan.

The creditor, highly flattered, put her into a full trot. Sheridan bolted round the corner, and was out of sight in a moment.

☞ Don't trifle with the affections of young ladies. They are institutions that were never established for any such purpose. If you don't contemplate marriage certificates and the parson, French bedsteads, a five hundred dollar house rent, and a respective home to the old folks, just take your hat and leave. You've no more right to go on trifling with confiding calico, than a holy-shock has to pass itself off for a rose.

☞ In short, ladies and gentlemen," said an overpowered orator, "I can only say —I beg leave to add—I desire to assure you —that I wish I had a window in my bosom that you might see the emotions of my heart." (Vulgar boy from the gallery.) "Won't a pane in your stomach do this time?"

☞ Talking comes natural to women.—We suppose it is born in the dears. While man runs clear ashore for words, and has nothing more to say than a stone dog, woman keeps a flow of gerbsjabs as fast and as wide as Niagara. There is no more end to a woman's tongue, than there is to a cart wheel.

☞ Complaisance is no longer confined to the political circles. A captain of a vessel was lately called out of a coffee house at Wapping, by a waterman, with the following address: "Ah!—please your honor, the tide is waiting for you."

☞ A paper out West says: "We hear constantly of absconding railroad contractors. It is not a matter of much surprise when it is remembered that it is a regular business with these fellows to make tracks."

☞ An Urchin, not quite three years old, said to his sister, while munching a piece of gingerbread,—"Sis, take half up dis cake to keep to afternoon, when I gets cross."

☞ Constitutionally Tired" is now the polite way of expressing the fact that a man is naturally lazy. We live in wonderfully refined times.

☞ Why is a muff like a silly gentleman? Because it holds a lady's hands without squeezing them.

☞ The reason why some people put on airs is because they have nothing else to put on.

☞ End of all Argument. "You're

PURE WHITE LEAD
WETHERILL & BROTHER, Manufacturers, No 165, NORTH FRONT street, Philadelphia, have now a good supply of their warranted pure WHITE LEAD; and those farmers who have been supplied in consequence of a run on the article, shall now have their orders filled.
No known article possesses those preservative and beautifying properties, so desirable in a paint, to an equal extent with unadulterated white lead; hence any admixture of other materials only mars its value. It has, therefore, been the steady aim of the manufacturers, for many years, to supply to the public a perfectly pure white lead, and the unceasing demand for the article, is proof that it has met with favor. It is invariably branded on one head: WETHERILL & BROTHER in full, and on the other, warranted pure, all in red letters.

BLAKE'S Patent Fire Proof PAINT.
FROM OHIO.
THE subscribers have just received a further supply of this elegant and valuable substance. In addition to the slate color, they have a beautiful chocolate or brown, resembling the sandstone now in use, and so much admired for the front of buildings.
In principal ingredients are silica, aluminum and protoxide of iron, which in the opinion of scientific men satisfactorily accounts for its fire-proof nature—the two former substances being non-conductors, and the latter acting as a cement, to bind the whole together and make a firm and durable paint.
For use it is mixed with Linseed Oil, and applied with a brush, the same as ordinary paint, to wood iron, tin, tile, canvas, paper, &c. It hardens gradually and becomes fire-proof. It is particularly suitable for roofs of buildings, steamboat and car-decks railroad bridges, fences, &c. A roof coated with the article is equal to one of slate, at a vast saving of expense.
Specimens may be seen at the office of the subscribers.

Zinc Paints.
Once Third Cheaper than White Lead, and Free from all Poisonous Qualities.
THE NEW JERSEY ZINC COMPANY,
HAVING greatly enlarged their Works, and improved the quality of their production, are prepared to execute orders for their
SUPERIOR PAINTS,
DRY, and GROUND IN OIL, in assorted packages of from 25 to 500 pounds; also,
DRY, in barrels of 500 pounds each.
Their WHITE ZINC, which is sold dry or ground in oil, is warranted PURE and unsurpassed for body and uniform whiteness.
A method has recently been discovered, which enables the Company to warrant their paints to keep fresh and elastic in any climate or exposure, and in this respect their paints will be superior to any other in the market.
Their BROWN ZINC PAINT, which is sold at a low price, and can only be made from the Zinc Ores from New Jersey, is now well known for its productive qualities when applied to iron or other metallic surfaces.
Their STONE COLOR PAINT, possesses all the properties of the Brown, and is of an agreeable color for painting Cottages, Depots, Out-buildings, Bridges, &c.

CHILLSON'S FURNACES,
For Heating Public Buildings, Houses, &c.
THESE FURNACES are highly recommended by Scientific Persons and the late invented Downing, as being the very best in use; they do not burn the air thrown into the room, but give a pleasant, healthy and uniform heat, the want of which was never met with the Furnace. They are being used in all the School Houses, Public Buildings and Private Houses generally in our cities. They vary in size and price from $200 to $125.
MARBLEIZED & ENAMELED IRON MANTELS.
We would call the attention of those about building to the beautiful articles above mentioned. The enamelled Mirror Mantels are beautifully inlaid with pearl; Color and Chamber Frame Grates, all of the most exquisite designs and the most elegant finish. We have also in stock a variety of patterns of the Sliding Fire Mantels, which have been so recently introduced. They are made in exact imitation of the most costly marble, such as Egyptian, Italian, Sienna, Cobellated and others, all of which for beauty of design, and exquisite finish, cannot be surpassed. They are sold at about half the cost of marble, and will compare favorably with the best qualities of marble material. Those which we have already set up, have attracted much attention and elicited expressions of the highest admiration. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to examine our stock of Mantels before purchasing marble.
EMERSON'S PATENT VENTILATORS for Chimneys, which prevent Chimneys from Smoking, and makes them draw; effectually prevents a current of air down the Chimney in any situation.
☞ The subscriber has been appointed Agent for the sale of the above Ventilators, Mantels and Ventilators by the Manufacturers, in Schuylkill County, who will furnish them at city cash prices, carriage only added. Books containing descriptions and recommendations to be had at the Store, and any information will be given. Specimens can be seen at his Warehouse, back of the Miners' Journal office.

F. BROWN'S ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.
THIS Essence is a preparation of unusual excellence. In ordinary diarrhœa, incipient cholera, in short, in all cases of prostration of the digestive functions, it is of inestimable value. During the prevalence of epidemic cholera and summer complaints, it is peculiarly efficacious; no family or individual should be without it.
Caution.—Be sure to get the genuine essence, which is prepared only by F. BROWN, at his Drug and Chemical Store, N. E. Corner of Fifth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, and for sale by all the respectable Apothecaries in the United States, and at Pottsville, Pa., by JOHN G. BROWN.

NOTICE! NOTICE!
To all Owners of Houses, and those contemplating to build, call and see Nutting's PATENT EXPANDING WINDOW SASH,
WHICH has all the advantages which Weights and Pulleys have in keeping Windows in any position; and obviates the necessity of ever disturbing one of which are these: If you use Weights on upper Windows, it is necessary to get out of sash, cords break, &c. The Expanding Sash cannot break. If you use Weights the Sash must be loose in the Frame, so as to allow an unpleasant noise every time the wind blows, and also to admit dustand air in abundance to the great inconvenience of good housekeepers. The Expanding Sash is tight by expansion, and therefore will not rattle nor admit dust and air. Upon the Expanding Sash you cannot remove the Windows from the Frames without removing the strips from the sides, thereby causing the paint to be rubbed off and leaving a rough surface in the operation. The Expanding Sash can be removed from, and returned to the Frame, in a moment.
Another great advantage in favor of the expanding sash, is the cost which, in a new house, would not be more than one-half the cost of building the ordinary frame with weights, cords and pulleys. The Patent can be applied to old sash, whether they are new or old, and at an expense less than a small reconsideration of the many advantages, and, it is, in fact, the only sash which combines economy, convenience and durability in its construction.
Call and examine it; it will cost nothing to look at it. ☞ SHOP-RIGHTS will be sold in Carpenters.
GEORGE BIDDIS.
