TH' BALLIES.*

A True Lancashire Story.

BY. J. BOLTON ROGERSON.

Aw's stondin' by Dick Livesey heawve,
The Fleece i' Whity Grove;
His wife an' him wur fofin' cawt,
So in aw thout aw'd shove.

An' theer, on th' sonded kitchen flure,
Aw reod Dick glooarin' stond,
Wi' face as red as th' kitchen foyar,
An' th' poker i' his hond.

Aw fix'd on Dick my awfo'-e'en;
Aw spoke but theeas wo tahl,
An' said "Neaw Dick, lad, come wi' me,
An' drink a gill o' ale."

His yed it tumbl'n on his breast,
An' th' poker tumbl'n too;
Aw said "Come, Dick, an' sit the deawn,
An' dunno' be a foo."

We sest us deawn, an' goet some drahk,
When in Dick wife hoo sahlies;
An' at my yed, wi' aw hur meet,
Hoo bang'd a pair o' bellies.

The bellies whistled i' mo ear,
An' smashed on th' alcheawse wall,
Or saw should ne'er ha' towld this tale,
Or stood beside my stall.

Aw fix'd on th' wife my awfo' e'en,
Boh fun it would no doo,
Se aw thow aw'd tak yo hel away,
If ho'od boh lemme goo.

My hure stood up, my pluck wur deawn,
Aw wacket cowd an' pale;
Aw thowt aw'd grope my way to th' dur,
Boh first aw awoipt my ale.

Dick wile hoo glooarl, an' aw's so feart,
Aw couldno' tak my wint,
Boh aw hotled into Whity Grove,
An' never look't behint.

So neaw aw'm safe—tak my advice,
An' keep fro' Dick's an' Mallio's,
For if yo goo 'tween moin an' wile,
Hoo'l split yer yed wi' ballies.

* The Bellows. The above bagatello is the verification of an anecdote related of himself, at a social meeting, by a Lancashire author, whose skill in the vernacular idiom is well known. The conclusion is somewhat altered from the original narrative, for the purpose of drawing a sort of moral. The verses were written merely for the amusement of a few friends, but, at the request of several admirers of the dialect, the author has included them in the present volume.

☞ SAN DIEGO.—The following is by "Squibob," of the San Diego Herald, who has many aliases, but who is recognizable under them all. Speaking after the manner of people, he is the K. N. Pepper of the Pacific.

SANDYAGO—A SOLIQUY.

Oh my what a trying thing it is for a fellor
To get kooped up in this ere little plais
Where the males dont run regular nor low
Nor the females number, cos their aint none
By the males I mean the post orifices
By which we git our letters and sulfoth
From the Atlantic States and the Injun provinces.
But here there aint no kind of a chance
Except by the Sulkerner or the icky Fremont
Which comes very seldom and cost us the latter
I come to this plais and wish I was turder.
The natives is all sorte complicated
Some white, some black, and some kinder speckled
And about fourteen rowdy vagabonds
That gits drunk and fights round pretty lively everybody
And four stores to every white human
Which are kept by the children of Zion
Where they sell their goods hart as jection
At seven times more than they erogled
With a grand jury like sitting before
But dont never seem to indite nothin
And if they do what comes on it
The petty onks finds em not guilty
And then they go off much in licker
And hit the first feller they come to
All night long in this sweet little village
You hear the solt note of the pistol
With the pleasant screak of the victim.
Whose been shot perhaps in the gizzard.
And all day hosses is runnin
With drunken greasers astraddle
A hollerin and hoopin like demons
And plenty of billiards and moons
Till they've nary red cent to ante
Having busted up all the money
Which they borrowed at awful percentage
On watches which they hant no idea
To, and the U. S. board of commission
Will be darned if they ever approve it
While the squire he goes round a-walkin
And assessin all respectable persons
With his talk of rebellion and his pistols
To give a spirit of resectment
And persons fite duels on paper.
Oh its awful this here little plais is
And quick as my business is finished
I shall leave here you may depend on it
By the very first icky steamboat,
Or if they are all of them busted
I'll hire a mule from some friendly feller
And just put out to Santy Clara.

☞ CHILDREN'S TALK.—The following juvenile Americanisms are from the N. Y. Knickerbocker:

"MY LITTLE three-year-old boy never sees your Magazine, without asking his mother or me to read about the 'Knickerbocker's Babies.'"

"He once asked his mother to pick a splinter out of his hand, 'for,' said he, 'I don't want to grow up a great big tree!'"

"OUR LITTLE Charlie has always been in the habit of saying a little prayer before going to bed. A few evenings since, all things being ready for retiring, and when he was about to kneel at his mother's knee, he stopped, and looking earnestly into his mother's face, said:

"'Mamma, I am tired of saying somebody else's prayer; mayn't I make one myself?'

"His mother said, 'certainly, my boy, if you really wish to.'

"He knelt very reverently and clasped his hands; then, with the earnestness of unaffected childhood, said to his mother:

"'Mamma, if I get stuck, will you help me out?'"

"A LITTLE girl had been playing in the street until she had become pretty well covered with dust. In trying to wash it off, she didn't use enough water to prevent the dust rolling up in little balls upon her arms. In her trouble, she applied to her brother, a little older than herself, for a solution of the mystery. It was explained at once—to his satisfaction, at least:

"'Why, sis, your made of dust, and if you don't stop, you'll wash yourself all away!'"

"This opinion, coming from an elder brother, was decisive, and the washing was discontinued."

☞ THE YOUTH OF BALTIMORE.—In Baltimore a few days since, a countryman was passing down North street with his wagon, when one of his wheels came off, and he discovered that his linchpin was gone. After searching for a some time, he offered the boys who congregated a shilling to whoever would find him. They then joined in the search, and in a few minutes one of the boys brought him what he supposed to be the pin. Having adjusted the wheel, he paid the shilling and started off, but had not gone more than half a block before a wheel on the other side came off, when he discovered that the young rascal had stolen the pin from one of the other wheels to obtain the reward.

☞ SIN IN A FIDDLE.—When a violin was first introduced into the choir of the church, the innovation gave great offense to some of the worthy parishioners. Especially was the player of the base viol exercised with sorrow and indignation, when the frivolous and profane fiddle first took its place in the house of God, by the side of his sedate and partly instrument. He accordingly laid the case before the parson, who after listening soberly to his complaints, replied: "It may be as you say, sir; I don't know but you are right; but if you are, it strikes me the greater the fiddle, the greater the sin!" The hero of the big fiddle was untuned.

☞ "A GENTLEMAN of our acquaintance," says the Norfolk (Va.) Herald, "who desired some information from a country friend, by letter, wrote, paid the postage, and enclosed a post office stamp for a reply. In due course of time he received an answer to his letter, postage unpaid, and the following P. S.:—'I am very much obliged to you for the little red paper you sent me.'"

☞ "HANS," said I, "I am told you make the best cider in New Jersey." "O yass—here Hans, go draw a muck of cider. (exit Jhon) yass der eiter is very good." John brought up the desired mug, and Hans drained it to the bottom, and then turned round and said: "I tink dis is der best eiter in Jersey, and if you don't believe dat's goot eiter just SMELL de muck!"

☞ A JUSTICE of the Peace, at Lafayette, Indiana, refuses to perform the marriage ceremony when the thermometer is above 90, on the ground of unconstitutionality.

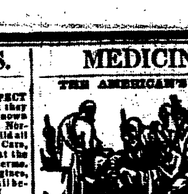
THE AMERICAN'S FRIEND!



HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

To the Citizens of the United States:

I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take this opportunity of stating that my Ancestors were Mr. American and Chilly, and that, I entertain for all that concerns America and American, the most lively sympathies, so much so that I originally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions and manner of living, intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York. PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD,
AND
LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.

The Citizens of the Union suffer much from disorder of the Liver and Stomach, scarcely any are free from the influence of these destructive maladies, hence life wears fast. The fair sex, perhaps the most numerous in the world, up to a certain period when, distressing to say, many look their teeth and good looks, while yet in the heyday of life, such and evils may be effectually remedied by continually keeping the blood pure, and the Liver and Stomach in a healthy action, when life will flow smoothly, and be enjoyable pleasure in a congenial clime, where an eternal spring appears to reign. As it regards the preservation of the human frame, and the distribution of life, much may be effected, and very fearlessly, that health and life can be prolonged for many years beyond their ordinary limits, if Holloway's Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.

A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY, OF 10 YEARS' STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John Johnson, Astor House, New York, January 5th, 1854.

TO PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 80, Corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York—Sir:—It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was in the country, but all to no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when at last I was recommended to try your Pills.—After using them for three months, I am happy to say I am now healthier health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as I ever was in my life. You are quite at liberty to make this known, for the benefit of others. I remain, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) JOHN JOHNSON.

These celebrated Pillsare wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Notice to the Unfortunate Female.

I feel it a duty incumbent upon myself to declare publicly the great blessing Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon has proved to me. For two years my health was almost unable to do a single work. Physicians pronounced my case falling of the womb, extensive ulcerations, commencing with fluor albus. The pains, irritation, prostration, and the innumerable fatal discharge rendered life almost a burden.—In this miserable condition, Dr. P. P. Newland recommended Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon. After taking four bottles I find myself in perfect health. Gratitude for my restoration makes me solemnly desire that all my sex, alike unfortunate, may find sure relief from this inestimable medicine.

ELIZABETH A. NEWLAND.
No. 10 West st., Utica, N. Y.

The above statement I know to be true.

P. P. NEWLAND, M. D., Utica, N. Y.

I have no hesitation in saying Dr. Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon is invaluable to the female sex generally. I have used it in Fluor Albus, Amenorrhea, Prolapsus Uteri, and in cases of extensive ulceration of the vagina and womb. It is worthy of the notice of the faculty.

of what we have asserted.

J. H. McLEAN, Sir: Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: I was afflicted for fifteen months with rheumatism, so much that I was unable to attend to any business, my legs, arms and fingers were swollen dreadfully, the muscles were contracted, and I suffered the most excruciating pain. Supplied some five or six bottles of Mustang Liniment; it had no more effect than so much grease. Obtained some dozen bottles of Volcanic Oil Liniment of your agent, Mr. Pike, for which I shall ever feel grateful to him, and in five days was perfectly well, and I feel bound in duty in commending it to the public. And I also add that one of my horses got cast in the stable and was unable to stand for two days; I made one dose of my boys rub on some of your Liniment, and in three hours he could walk about the yard, apparently as if nothing had happened to him. Mr. Blanchard, a carpenter on my premises were present at the time, and they concur with me in saying that no planter should be without a supply of this invaluable medicine on hand. I remain yours, &c.,

MOSES B. WHITE.

Panola, Miss., Feb. 5, 1854.
