The Miners' Journal.

POTTSVILLE, PA.

SATURDAY, OCT. 21, 1854.

☞ THE MINERS' JOURNAL has a larger circulation than any other Newspaper published in Northern Pennsylvania. It circulates among the Coal, Iron and business men, not only in this and the adjoining counties, but in all our cities, and it also circulates largely among the masses in Schuylkill County, which renders it one of the most valuable Advertising mediums in the County. But few papers have so many capitalists enrolled on its subscription list.

AGENTS FOR MINERS' JOURNAL:

David J. Lewis, Mt. Carmel;
Isaac F. Davis, Ashland;
Frederick Lauderbern, Tamaqua;
Thompson A. Godfrey, Tremont;
E. W. Carr, South 3d street, Philadelphia;

C. F. Norton, Coal Merchant, 522 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

Who are authorized to receive subscriptions, advertisements, &c., for the Miners' Journal, and receipt for the same.

☞ THE Journal will appear in new type in two weeks. Subscribers will please forward their names, and advertisers their favors.

☞ THE CONCERT announced for last week by F. Becker, to be assisted by Prof. Lehsen, was postponed, and will be given next Tuesday evening, at the Town Hall

☞ WANTED.—From 300 to 500 new subscribers; or, even 1000 can be accommodated. Won't each present subscriber try and do something for us? Send in the names, friends—and the money!

☞ OURSELVES.—If our subscribers will only bear with our small paper this and another week, we hope by that time, unless greatly disappointed in our arrangements, to have a press of sufficient dimensions to publish the Journal in the enlarged form contemplated, and also in an entire new dress.

☞ MISSED THE MAILS.—Some of our subscribers were served later than usual last week, in consequence of our missing the first usual mails. Our paper went to press late, and the labor of working off our heavy edition by hand rendered some such cases unavoidable. We will try to prevent similar accidents in future.

☞ CLEVER.—A number of our subscribers in Port Carbon, we understand, held a meeting on Saturday evening last, and resolved unanimously, each to pay a year's subscription in advance! That's the right sort of sympathy. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

☞ LITERARY SOCIETY.—We are desired to call a meeting of the members, at 7½ o'clock, next Wednesday evening, 25th inst., at the office of Wm. B. Wells, Esq., to make arrangements for the coming Winter's session. A Secretary is also to be elected.

☞ Some time ago we enclosed bills to our subscribers abroad. Many of them have neglected to attend to our call. They would oblige us particularly just now, by remitting the several amounts due us. Cash is demanded for almost everything we want to purchase, and it is but fair that those indebted to us should furnish us the means.

☞ To ADVERTISERS.—Yearly advertisers in the Journal, wanting any changes, will please send in the copy as early as possible.

The advertisements that were pied by the fire we are having re-set as fast as we can—all will appear as usual, perhaps, next week. All omissions we will make good by extra insertions.

☞ MILITARY VISIT.—The Cleaver Artillerists, of Mauch Chunk, Capt. Wolf, paid a visit to their military brethren of this place, on Thursday last. They were received by the Washington Artillerists, Capt. James Nagle, together with the Major and Brigadier Generals and their staffs, the field officers of the regiment, and the commissioned officers of the several companies of this place. They will be escorted out on their return today, by the Scott Rifles, Capt. Philip Nagle. They have doubtless been shown the elephant during their short stay in Pottsville, if they had any desire to see that famous animal.

☞ "AMERICAN" & CAMPAIGN SUBSCRIBERS.—We send this number of the Journal to most of the subscribers of the American & Temperance Advocate, and also to the Campaign subscribers of the Journal. Should they be pleased to continue the paper, we shall be thankful for their patronage, especially in our present misfortune, and will do our best to render them a fair quid pro quo. If however, they do not want it, they will oblige us by returning their respective papers, by mail or otherwise, at the earliest convenience.

PA. CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION.

The old party hunkers have been thoroughly thrashed throughout the State.—Look out for squalls! We append a list of the Representatives in the last Congress, and also those newly elected—Whigs and American Democrats in italic; foreign Democrats in Roman letters:

Total in the State, twenty-three Whigs and American Democrats to three Douglas-ites. Pennsylvania gave eleven votes for the Nebraska bill in the last Congress to fourteen against it. Most of the successful candidates have large majorities.

☞ CORRESPONDENTS will please make their favors short, as our space is limited.

☞ A HIGH-HANDED OUTRAGE.—One of our subscribers at Minersville, an Englishman, informs us that in the last number of the Journal before the Election, he received a Pamphlet addressed to Foreign voters.—How many others received the same we do not know.

No such publication was sent from our office, and the only way of accounting for this high-handed fraud is by supposing that our papers were opened, in one of the Post-offices, and these villainous documents inserted for distribution! Thank Heaven, there is a prospect that the day of grace of Postmaster Campbell and his supple minions is nearly at an end.

THE COAL TRADE FOR 1854.

The quantity sent by Railroad this week is 28,719 07½ tons—by Canal 16,215 01 tons—for the week 44,934 08 tons. Increase by Railroad 388, 508 09—do. by Canal 57,728 01, to same period last year.

The shipments are light this week, showing a falling off since last week of 21,170 13 tons.

The Coal Trade is in "a snarl"—consumers abroad still continue to hold back, expecting Coal to fall—Jeaters of course cannot purchase—and the trade at Richmond cannot sell. Freights and wages remain without change, and our Operators cannot furnish Coal at the prices offered for it—hence they have determined to suspend operations until the Coal is wanged at a price that will pay for mining at the present rates of wages, and materials that enter into the business. This was the only course left for the Operators under the circumstances. The suspension is pretty general—only a few persons who have contracts continue to mine.

The trade here have reduced the prices as low as the circumstances will permit, and if the Editors of those Papers abroad, and those philanthropists who feel so deeply for the consumers, desire to try the Coal business, and furnish fuel at lower rates, they can purchase at least three-fourths of all the Collieries in this region, at from one-fourth to one-half their actual cost—and possession given instanter. This will afford them a fine opportunity for testing their philanthropic feelings—and the experience they will soon gain may cause them to change their views materially without regard to our Operators, and recall some of the censure so freely heaped upon them.

Just as our paper was going to press we learned that the suspension will be almost, if not quite, general throughout the ensuing week.

But about five weeks of the shipping season remain, and some of the markets we learn are bare of Coal; and so long as the press abroad teems with articles stating that the price of Coal is falling, so long will the consumers hold back—this is the natural course of trade—and if they are caught with a short supply, let the responsibility rest where it properly belongs.

Our Operators have furnished an increase of 446,326 10 tons over the shipments of last season, in the teeth of all the publications made in the cities last Winter and Spring, that they could not increase the trade one ton on the sea-board this year; consequently they have done their duty towards supplying the market, and are not liable to any censure, if the supply should prove to be short

It may as well be understood that the Money article writer in the Pubic Ledger is deeply interested in Lehigh stocks and loans, which will account for his Coal extravaganzies relating to that quarter.
