The Impeachment Question—Meeting at the Corners.

POST OFFICE, CONFEDNIT X ROADS (which is in the State uv Kentucky, Feb. 22, 1868.—Yesterday we received the Louisville paper, and I notist in it the reports of mass meetings in Chicago and all over the country favorin impeachment. I felt that the hundid President, denounced and persecuted ez he is, shood at least have sympathy from one spot—shood at least know that in one place he had sound and solid friends, who wood stand by him in this tryin period uv his eggsistence.

I therefore called a meetin uv the Corners, which wuz held last nite. I okkepied the chair, and made the speech of the okkasion, which I allus do. I remark that never in the history of the Dimekratic party wuz the clouds lowrin so fatefully over it ez now... I spoed it wuz a fixed fact that the President would be impeached and removed, making that hory headed Ben Wade, who is a profane persekooter uv the saints, President in his stead. Here wuz wat eggsited my alarm for the future uv the Dimocracy. It aint that Johnson is again out. It aint that I care so very much for him, but the fact that he will certinly be impeached, shows that there is a plot beyond which ethereal patronage cann't control. I ask ez more ez nothin but trouble. If Wade is President the grate moral question is who will be Postmaster at the Corners? Will Deekin Program's paper still continyoo to pass thru the hands uv a sound Constoobsional Dimekrat? or will that skeeer Pollock hold it out? Will I be forced to leave these sylvan retreats, this haven of rest, and agin, in my old age, buffet the cold world? Good Heavens! The very idjee makes me shudder, and that same shudder will convulse the entire South.

Wat kin we do? Shel the Corners sit idly by and permit this grate wrong to go unrebooked?—Is a President to be deposed and his postmasters endangered for nothin? I am too full for further utterance.

Capt. McPelter, late uv the C. S. A., sed he had never felt so good sence the Fort Piller affair. Uv course A. J. wood resist, and then his sword wood again leep from its scabbard. In the coz uv sich a Yoonyun ez the President wantid, he felt leg the low-down go calmly to his death. His sole wiz up and eager for the fray. In such a coz, he cood gather about him agin all the brave men he led doorin the whole uv the late war, every one uv wich wuz alive and in good health, enptin one who had died recently uv delirium tremens. He longed for it to begin. He had Abliabinists in his mind's eye, wich he wood like to go thro—he knowd uv safe places to cross into Ohio and Injiany, and uv farms rich in horses. O, for a return uv them days.

To ashoor the President and to stiffen his backbone, the follerin dispaches wuz sent:

To the President:—The Corners is with yoo.—We will, in the comin struggle, take care uv the niggers. They hev chattles. How soon shall we begin?

ISSAKER GAVITS.

To A. Johnson:—Your friends here are mooryin. Be firm and steadfast. I pledge yoo the aid of every Confedrit soljer in this section.

HIRAM MCPELTER,
Late Capt. C. S. A.

To the Chief Magistrate:—The people are with yoo. Never permit yoor power to be wresteld from yoo. The Corners will continyoo to speak. In such a coz I am willin to go all I hev.

BASCOM.

To A. Johnson and his Cabinet:—Kentucky is yoo to yoo. She will uphold your hands. Execute the laws and ez much uv Congris ez yoo kin. Death to Radicalism and nigger skeitin!

A. PENNEBACKER, Jr.

To the President:—Will volunteers to aid you agin the yoosurpashons uv Congris, receive the same bounty ez the Federal Government pade doorin the late crooside agin Suthern rites? Answer by telegraph prepaid.

ABEL PUNT

To the President:—Send me $10,000 to be yoosed in recruotin men for yoor service. I pledge on the hearty co-operation of Kentucky.

NASBY.

Deekin Program remarked that so far ez Injuz personally concerned, he had no interest in the matter. Andrew Johnson wuz nothing to him. I ez much ez anything to Andrew Johnson, but he wuz a believer in constitutional liberty. He wanted his niggers back again, and wat hope we had there uv that, with that pestiferous Ben Wade in A. Johnson's seat? He shuddered at the idee. With Congris in the hands uv the Abliabinists, with President deeply dyed with Radikalism, how long wood the little remnant uv rites wich Kentucky enjoyed be left her? How long wood it be before we should be compelled to admit niggers to a kuality with us? How long wood we hold fen the shite control uv em we now hev? Why, nider sich rool we might expect to see some day, the stars and stripes flaunt in the air in the Corners, and hear Yoonyun speeches made in front uv Bascom's. What chance, he asked, wood there be uv continyoolin in the struggle agin Congris? Wat earthly hope cood the first families hev uv arpetoostin their rood? None. Let us arouse! let us do sumthin! Let us, ez Kentucky alroz has done, resolve. He begged leave to submit the followin:

WEREAS, Andrew Johnson, the President of the Yoonited States, has not a Dimekrat, is cordrably neerer thereto than Abliabinist Wade, and

WEREAS, He removed from offis one Edwin M. Stanton, a bloody-minded Abliabinist, a thing all grateful to the Dimekratic heart; and

WEREAS, For this act of justice a Rump Congris at this time engaged in a attempt to depose im,

WEREAS, We the Dimocracy uv Confedrit X roads, feelin a love for the Yoonion but in nitely low buzzems, and feelin, also, that the sed Yoonion is in imminent danger uv utter and onre destruckshen onless the operashins uv an unholy Congris is checked, therefore be it

Resolved, That we look with alarm upon the action uv Congris, aimed at our beloved President, and do hereby protest agin such action.

Resolved, That we, the Dimocracy uv the Corners, feelin the need uv decisive action in this crisis, appoint the President to be dictator.

Resolved, That we, uv the Corners, respectfully commend the immejit arrest uv every member uv the rump Congris who votes for impeachment, on the ground uv opposin the execushen uv the law uv the Executive, and, also, the removal of Sen. Grant from the offis he okkepies, and the appointment in his stead uv sich a Contooshnel Dimekrat ez Gen. Rosso.

Resolved, That ez the Corners is in a state uv continyooal feverish anxiety to know the intensions uv His Eggsalency, we recommend the holdin uv conversashens with the correspondent uv the New York Herald reglerly, at least once per day, if this crisis hez passed.

Resolved, That if need be, to prevent the power of the government from passin entirely into the hands uv a sklishu Congris, we, the Democrisy of the Corners, pledge bureelves, our forchoons and our sacred honor, to assistsin the Executive all the means in our power.

Bascom complained that them resloosehens smelt strong snuff. Good Lord, he trembled when I thot uv the consekenses that wood onsoo if the President shood be removed. Uv coorse the German uv this meetin wood be onseated from his set Offis, and wat wood become uv the Corners then? Wat wood become uv the debt he (the Postmaster) owed him? Bascom? Wat wood become the debts he owed every citizen uv the Corners to hed anything wich good he borrered or bot credit? "My—" he remarked, "the Corners could be ruoined!"

And realizin myself the awful consekences uv stroyin the hope they wuz livin on, I bustid into wu, at which they wiz all visibly affected. Joe Bigler rose, and sed he perposed that this setin never adjourn, but that it keep in continual session, passin resolooshens, that bein the sire extent uv the aid the President wood git in Kentucky. If resolooshens wood do A. J. good, he wuz in favor uv givin them to him the yard. Uv coorse, if ther wuz a struggle, nincky wood remain neotral. It pays best, you kin thero rifle the corpses uv both sides, payin no attenshen to the words uv the scorn, we separatid sadly, waitin further developments.
