A SPLENDID PRIZE FOR THE LADIES.

The finest, most splendid, and costly engraving ever published in America, to be presented as a premium to each subscriber to a magazine of fashion and art in every house, a mirror of the fashions and a household convenience, acknowledged to be the most popular magazine in America.

The engraving is from the original painting by Knaus, entitled "The Picnic on the Four-in-Hand."

The engraving took a whole year and is considered the finest work ever produced in this country. The engraver was the [illegible] by three of the best artists [illegible] Rodrigo, Samuel Hall and Spencer Baird. It has recently been received from Europe to finish it. The engravers have only exceeded the success in above [illegible] Nothing artistic is carefully purposed, no skill or labor spared on it in engraving it. The general effect is very fine and the medium effects to the heads will [illegible] most minute observation. The engraving is executed with unusual skill and the combination has given the success of the engraving which is the best proof of the goodness.

The work is on the engraving stone over seven thousand dollars, but is secured by copyright, and is acknowledged by competent judges to be most exclusive and valuable work of art ever engraved in this country.

Free copies will be sent for delivery on heavy paper [illegible] and will be given as a premium to each subscriber to

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY MAGZINE.

Yearly subscription only Three Dollars and ten cents, [illegible] present with the subscription [illegible] on the engravings which will be mailed [illegible] done up on a roller.

This is certainly the largest, most liberal and splendid premium ever offered to our subscribers by any [illegible] and affords an easy and economical way for any one to secure an elegant work of art, a Parlor Picture that is only next [illegible] in the way of ornamentation, and a perpetual reminder of a day which ought to be [illegible] and held in remembrance by every [illegible] American.

The reception [illegible] magnificent picture will take every one by surprise and we do not venture anything in saying that $10 will not procure another that combines so much of interest and beauty.

Specimens of the Magazine, with circulars, giving full particulars, will be sent to any given address, post free on receipt of 10 cents.

TRADE MARK — DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY.

THIS loathsome malady does not, like the poisonous irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions with which the people have long been humbugged, simply palliate for a short time, or drive the disease to the lungs as there is danger of doing in the use of such nostrums, but it produces perfect and permanent cures of the worst cases of Chronic Catarrh, as thousands can testify. Cold in the head is cured with a few applications. Catarrhal Headache is relieved and cured as if by magic. Its offensive breath, loss or impairment of the sense of taste, smelling or hearing, watery or weak eyes, and impaired memory, when caused by the violence of Catarrh, as they frequently are. I offer a good faith a standing reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh that I cannot cure.

For sale by most druggists everywhere. Price only 50 cents.

Ask your druggist for the remedy; but if he has not yet got it on sale, don't put it off by accepting any miserable worse than worthless substitute, but enclose sixty cents to me, and the remedy will be sent you postpaid. Four packages $2 or one dozen for $6. Send a two cents stamp for Dr. Sage's pamphlet on Catarrh. Address the proprietor.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the loss of Manhood, or Seminal Weakness, Lassitude, Nervous Debility, Impotency, Premature Decay, and Impediments to Marriage in general, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price in a sealed envelope only 6 cents.

The celebrated author in this admirable essay clearly proves from a thirty years successful practice that the alarming consequences of self abuse may be radically cured without medicine or surgical operation, or the use of stimulants, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope to any address, on receipt of six cents, or two stamps.

Also Dr. Culverwell's Marriage Guide, price 25 cents.
