Saturbay evening, October 12, the citizens of Jersey Shore were thrown into quite an excitement by four or five rowdies indulging in a first-class riot. They met at Schiele's hotel, armed with knives, billies and clubs, and assaulted and beat Mr. Schiele and other quiet citizens who happened to be there at that time. They then broke the windows, doors and furniture with stones and brickbats. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the offenders, and placed in the hands of Constable Brown. who, with some assistance, was conveying them to Esquire Gowan's office. On the way and when near S. ONE MILLION OF LIVES SAVED.

Is one of the most remarkable facts of this remarkable age, not that so many persons are the victime of dyspepsia or in-digestion, but its willing victims. Now, we would not be understood to say that any one regards dyspepsia with favor, or feels disposed to rank it among the luxuries of life. Far from it. Those who have ex-perienced its torments would scout such at. dea. All dread it, and would gladly dispense with the unpleasant familiarities. Mark Tapley, who was jolly under all the trying circumstances in which he was placed, never had an attack of dyspepsia. or his jolity would have speedily forsaken him

Of all the multifarious diseases to which the human system is liable, there is perhaps no one so generally prevalent as dyspepsia. There are discusses more acute and painful, and which more frequently prove fatal, but none the effects of which are so depressing to the mind and so positively distressing to the body If there is a wretched being in the world it is

A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC.

We have said that dyspepsia is perhaps the most universal of human diseases. This is imphatically the case in the United States Whether this general prevalence is due to the character of the food, the method of its preparation, or the hasty manner in which it is usually swallowed -is not our province to explain. The great bet with which we are called to deal is this:

The extracts from which they are compounded are prepared by one of the ablest of German chemists. Their effects can be beneficial only in all enses of the billions. the billinry system. Hoofland's German Bitters stand without an equal, acting promptly and vigorously upon the liver; they remove its torpidity and cause healthful secretion of bile-thereby supplying the stomach with the most indispervable elements of sound digestion in proper proportions.

They purify the blood, cleansing the vital fluid . all hurrful impurities and suplanting them with the elements of genuine e althfulness.

Now, there are certain classes of per ons to whom extreme Bitters are not only unpalatable, but who find it impossible to take them without positive discomfort. It is the medi-cinal virtues of this health-giving plant in a perfectly pure and highly concentrated form. The Podophyllin acts directly on the Liver, stimulating its functions and causing it to make its billiary secretions in regular and proper quantities. The inju-rious residts which invariably follow the use of mercury is entirely avoided by their use. But it is not upon the Liver only that their powers are exerted. The extract of Mandrake contained in them is skillfully combined with four other ex-tracts, one of which acts upon the stomach, one upon the upper bowels, one upon the one upon the upper lowers, one upon the lower bowels, and prevents any griping effect, thus producing a pill that influences the entire digestive and alimentary system, in an equal and harmonious manner, and its action entirely tree from nausea, vomit-ing or griping pains common to all other purgatives.

Lines on the death of O. P. Kelts. Friends and neighbors listen to The story ive to tell, Of h m who lies in you church yard, Who once with us did dwell.

He was a man of noble mien, A fa her, good and gind. A loving husband ever true, No fault in him we find.

His wonderous skill was widely known In the mechanic art And ever to his trust was true, He acted well his part.

In search of honor wealth and fame, He left the friends he know, And took his loved ones far away, His wife and children two.

But soon alas the scene is changed, He sickens droops and dies. And shining angles hore His spirit to the skies.

Thus in the prime of useful life, Our friend and brother's gone, While we are left to mourn his loss, We'll try to follow on.

O God ? be this our happy lot, When we are called away, To meet the loved ones gone before In realms of endless day.

HON. HENRY SOUTHER .- It is with feelings of deep regret that we learn that Judge Souther has decided to leave Pottsville for the purpose of taking up his residence in Erie, Pennsylvania, and there resume the practice of his profession, at the bar of that county. Judge Souther, it will be remembered, came among us a year ago last February as Associate Law Judge, appointed by Governor Geary, in accordance with an act of the Legislature of that winter, creating this new office He occupied the ows the sinking into insignificance of position, discharging the duties of that responsible position with strict fidelity, great ability, and with honor to himself and the beach, until his successor was elected by the people at the following October lection.
