MARINE MISCELLANY.

Schr Sierra Nevada, hence for Portland, before reported ashore near Brace's Cove, Cape Ann, went to pieces in the storm of Tuesday. Her rigging and other articles saved, together with her remains, were sold in Boston on Thursday for $600. The c N was about three years old, 195 tons burthen, and cost $2000 when new. She was owned by the captain and others, and belonged to Staten Island, NY. There was no insurance on the vessel, but the cost was insured.

The wreck of ship Abby Langton, at Freshwater Bay, which was sold for £220, was bought by Mr Abermant, submarine armor diver, connected with the government docks. It was stipulated, however, in the sale, that he has the privilege of saving the damaged cargo on board at fifty per cent. About 350 tons of rice have been saved dry, and there still remain on board about 1100 tons wet. The ship has bilged and hogged, and has sunk about eight feet into the sand. The tide ebbs and flows into her. On the 20th ult. it blew fresh, and it was found necessary to cut away her lower masts.

Eau Lustrale, or Hair restorative of Jules Hauel.—This article has obtained such a wide-spread celebrity for its virtues in cleansing, purifying, and invigorating the Hair, that it is now considered a sine qua non to a lady's or gentleman's toilet. Hair that has become hard or diseased from neglect or sickness, is speedily by its use, transformed into beautifully soft and glossy, and prevented from decadence. Sold by all Druggists, and at the Laboratory of Jules Hauel & Co, Perfumers and Importers, 704 CHESTNUT Street, Philadelphia. sep20-6t

Singer's new Family Sewing Machine.—After a fair trial of the several machines that have yet been offered to the public, the unanimous verdict of operators has been given in favor of Singer's. This is, in fact, the only machine capable of performing every kind of sewing, and is, beyond all question, the most complete article for family use yet invented, being at once ornamental, easily operated, and superior, in every respect, to any other machine. On this statement, we challenge the world I. M. SINGER CO, sel6 1jan22 Office, No. 602 CHESTNUT Street.

Saving Fund.—Five Per Cent. Interest.—NATIONAL SAFETY TRUST COMPANY, WALNUT Street, S. W. corner of THIRD, Philadelphia. Money received in any sum, large or small, and interest paid from the day of deposit to the day of withdrawal. Money is received and payments made daily, without notice. The investments are made in Real Estate, Mortgages, Ground Rents, and such first-class securities as the charter requires. Office hours, from 9 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and on Monday and Thursday evenings until 8 o'clock. fs6

Special Notices.

Professor Saunders' Classical Institute, at the WEST PHILADELPHIA INSTITUTE, corner of MARKET Street and WILLIAM, will be reopened on the first MONDAY of September. Pupils, to the number of fifty, will be received WITHOUT EXPENSE OF FARE ON THE PASSENGER RAILWAYS OF THE CITY.

Thus, without expense, by a pleasant and safe conveyance, pupils can be carried into the fresh air of the country in less than half an hour from the centre of the city. Several acres of open ground border on the beautiful groves of this Seminary, which is patronized by many of the distinguished gentlemen of the city, among whom are the Editors of The Press, the Ledger, and The North American and United States Gazette. Pupils are received by the day, or into the family of the Principal.

"PHILADELPHIA, July 1, 1858.

"We, the undersigned, have had sons or wards in Professor Saunders' Institute and family during the Session which has just closed. In respect to parental kindness, happy influences, attention to health, and progress in thorough education, our expectations have been fully realized. To our friends, who are looking for a decidedly good school for their sons, we cordially recommend Professor Saunders' Institute.
