Special Notices.

A Public Singer Cured of Bronchitis of Long STANDING.

PHILADELPHIA, May 17, 1858.

DR. C. M. JACKSON:

DEAR SIR—Thanks to your "Hoofland's Balsamic Cordial," I am now a happy man. I was cured of that soreness in the throat which has distressed me for many years. You may not know that I am mainly dependent upon my salary as leader of a choir for a subsistence. About eight years ago, I first felt a weakness in the throat, which, as I supposed it was but temporary, gave no uneasiness. But it soon became so painful as to incapacitate me, for a time, from filling my situation. I therefore desisted from all vocal exercises, for a month, when my throat became better. Resuming again, the soreness returned with increased violence. I now had recourse to medical advice, and after wards to several advertised remedies; with but slight effect. Despairing of a cure, I relinquished my situation, and had turned my attention to other business, when one of your circulars fell into my hands. I determined to try the Cordial, and bought a bottle with that view. I could not see that I was any better, after taking it, yet determined to persist. I accordingly bought a second, and soon after a third bottle, by which time I felt so much better, that, though I could scarcely afford it, I determined to purchase a half dozen. When I had taken the sixth bottle, I felt that I was cured, and I have taken no more since. Six months have passed away, and I have felt no return of the disease. I have resumed my old situation, and the future looks bright before me. I think you are entitled to this certificate—it is at your service. Truly yours,

C. S. GARRETT.

Prepared only by Dr. C. M. JACKSON, 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, and for sale by Druggists and Storekeepers throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cents per bottle. 1t
