CITY ITEMS.

LECTURES.—It will be remembered that Dr. Boynton gives the opening lecture to his course this evening, at Hauel and Haydn Hall, corner of Spring Garden and Eighth streets. The low price at which these lectures are given, added to the brilliant and attractive style of the lecturer, will doubtless secure as large an audience as attended the opening lecture at Concert Hall, on Friday evening.

ADVANTAGES OF CALAMITY.—Times of general calamity and confusion have ever been productive of the greatest minds. The purest ore is produced from the hottest furnace, and the brightest thunderbolt is elicited from the darkest storm: so the most beautiful clothing worn is from the palatial store of Granville Stokes, No. 607 Chestnut street.

"NO MAN LIVETH UNTO HIMSELF."—It is written on the flowers that sweeten the air—upon the breeze that rocks the flowers upon the stem—upon the rain-drops that refresh the sprig of moss that lifts its head in the forest—upon every penciled sheet that sleeps in the caverns of the deep; no less than upon the mighty sun that warms and cheers millions of creatures which live in its light—upon all, it is written—"None liveth for himself." And in the fulfilment of this immutable decree, we live to advise our readers, that the largest and most beautiful stock of gentlemen's clothing to be found in this bailiwick is at the old Franklin Hall Clothing Emporium of E. H. Eldridge, No. 321 Chestnut street.

SIR CHARLES NAPIER IN A FIX.—Sir Charles Napier was invited, on a recent occasion, to dine with Queen Victoria, but not having a vest which was sufficiently decent to appear in before royalty, he borrowed one from his valet. It is evident that Sir Charles does not procure his garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, or he would always be fit to dine with anybody.

SILVER PLATING AND gilding of every description is done in the best manner for families or the trade, at the manufactory of R. W. Carryl, 714 Chestnut street. Old work replated to look as well as new.

WASHING FOR DIAMONDS IN GEORGIA.—A correspondent of the Augusta Chronicle says—"You will be surprised, probably, to learn that arrangements are now being made to commence washing for diamonds in Georgia; yet it is so. Two localities have been found where the true matrix, with all its accompanying minerals, is found in abundance, and from the upper section, in Hall and other counties, several have been found of the finest quality. The classic sandstone (Itacolumite, the true matrix of the diamond) extends quite across the State; but diamonds have been found only in those places where gold washings are carried on, by being found in the sands of the riffles with the gold; elsewhere they have never been sought after. The other locality has but recently been discovered, and is of limited extent—merely a protrusion of the sandstone and magnetic and peculiar oxide of iron through the surrounding pyritic (auriferous) slates, together with immense quantities of stella lata of unparalled beauty, associated with magnificent crystals of rutile from a few lines to four inches in diameter. The Itacolumite is thickly imbedded with splendid crystals of lazulite of three different forms. The lazulite is a very rare mineral, found in but few places in the world; is one of the accompanying minerals of the Brazilian diamond mines. Gold exists in the pyritic slates on the south side of the mountain, which is a corresponding formation with the celebrated Dorn mine in South Carolina. They also exhibit every external evidence of the existence of copper, lead, and silver. That diamonds abound here there can be no doubt; yet they may be so scarce as to render it unprofitable to mine for them alone. In Hall county they are found in the gold deposit washings, and cost nothing to find them, comparatively."

Burnett's Cocoaine.

A compound of Cocoa-nut Oil, &c., for dressing the Hair. For efficacy and agreeableness, it is without an equal.

It prevents the hair from falling off.
It promotes its healthy and vigorous growth:
It is not greasy or sticky.
It leaves no disagreeable odor.
It softens the hair when hard and dry.
It soothes the irritated scalp skin.
It affords the richest lustre.
It remains longest in effect.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

BOSTON, July 19, 1857.

MESSRS. J. BURNETT & Co.—I cannot refuse to state the salutary effect in my own aggravated case of your excellent Hair Oil—(Cocoaine)

For many months my hair had been falling off, until I was fearful of losing it entirely. The skin upon my head became gradually more and more inflamed, so that I could not touch it without pain. This irritated condition I attributed to the use of various advertised hair washes, which I have since been told contain camphene spirit.

By the advice of my physician, to whom you had shown your process of purifying the Oil, I commenced its use the last week in June. The first application allayed the itching and irritation; in three or four days the redness and tenderness disappeared—the hair ceased to fall, and I have now a thick growth of new hair.

Yours, very truly,
SUSAN R. POPE.

BURNETT'S COCOAINE.

A single application renders the hair (no matter how stiff and dry) soft and glossy for several days. It is conceded by all who have used it, to be the best and cheapest Hair Dressing in the World.
