FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 23, 1858.

The stock market was much more active to-day than for some days past, and prices improved on several descriptions of bonds and stocks, though fancies were not in favor, and did not share in the advance. There is no feeling in favor of active speculation in stocks, and it is not likely that, with the prospect of the near future in their present state, any marked movement will be made. The abundance of unemployed capital will keep dividend-paying stocks and sound and reliable bonds and loans up to high figures, but the speculative shares will not advance much, if any, beyond present prices, until the effect of the Government loans and the drain of specie to the South is fully known and met. The specie shipment from California now on the way is reported at a million and a half—considerably less than was expected.

The money market is unchanged. The banks absorb about all the best paper, and the remainder finds its way to the street, where the rates are uncertain.

The movement in cotton is very large, the last week's exports reaching 111,000 bales, equal to an exchange on Europe of six millions of dollars.

The following is a statement of the earnings of the New York Central Railroad for the month of November, 1858, compared with its earnings for the corresponding month of the previous year:

1858	$595,218 02
1857	615,366 01
Decrease	$20,148 01

The Hagerstown Herald states, that in order to provide the means for the reconstruction of the Franklin Railroad, the new company has decided to issue $200,000 of the 7 per cent. bonds, secured by a mortgage on the road, and sell the same at 80 cents on the dollar. Of the $200,000, the sum of $90,000 has already been subscribed in Philadelphia. The citizens of Franklin county, Pa., and Washington county, Md., are expected to subscribe for the balance.

Mr. Stephen K. Rathbone, receiver of the Bank of the Republic, of Rhode Island, has made his third report to the Supreme Court, showing $2,555 of the circulation received since the last decree, and $45,102 in all; leaving $15,995 outstanding. A dividend of 50 ⅌ cent. has been paid on all receipts, excepting $472; and $15,000, with $2,500 due for interest, the receiver has on deposit. All the debts, excepting $153,000, without interest, have been collected, of which debts all, except $1,100, was received by said bank from Theodore Fenny, of New York, who guaranteed the payment, but who, like his promisors, has become insolvent.

Peterson's Detector of this week contains the usual amount of correct and reliable information as to fraudulent issues, &c., &c.

PHILADELPHIA MARKETS, Dec. 23—EVENING.—The Breadstuffs market is dull, but without much change in quotations; about 250 bbls superfine sold at $5 12½, 200 bbls common extra at $5 37½, and 200 bbls good extra family, at $6.12½ ⅌ bbl. There is little or no demand for export, and the trade are the principal buyers, at the above rates, including fancy brands at from $6 50 to $7.25 ⅌ bbl. Corn Meal and Rye Flour are quiet; the former is firm at $3.25, but the last tier is dull at from $3.87½@3 ⅌ bbl. Wheat—The rye is very little doing, and prices favor the buyers; some 25 000 bushels sold, in lots, at 123@126c for fair to prime reds, and 135@140c for white. Rye is wanted at 60c for State, and 78c ⅌ bushel for Delaware, and but little offering. Corn—The demand has to-day fallen off, and the market is dull at yesterday's quotations. Sales of about 20,000 bushels, only to notice, at 65@70 cents for damp, and 70@72 cents for dry lots, the latter afloat. Oats are not much inquired for. A cargo of Delaware sold at 41½c. Bark is dull. Further sales of 20 hhds have been made at $28 for 1st quality No. 1. Cotton—There is not much doing to-day; about 100 bales sold at previous prices. Groceries and Provisions—The markets are steady but quiet; some further sales of Sugar and Coffee at former rates. Seeds are in steady demand; about 250 bus Cloverseed sold at $5.50@5 75, the latter for prime lots, and 100 bushels Timothy at $1 12½. Whiskey is selling slowly at 24½@25½c, the latter for Ohio bbl; 23c for drudge; 24@24½c for hhds.
