THE COURTS

SUPERIOR COURT—YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

(Reported for The Press.)

DISTRICT COURT—Judge Sharswood.—Robt. Flanigan Building Association vs. Michael Brady. An action on a bond and mortgage. No defence. Verdict for the plaintiff for $272.45. J. L. Dougherty for the plaintiff.

Peter K. Cunningham vs. Daniel F. Devitt. An action on a book account to recover the amount alleged to be due for certain goods sold and delivered. Said goods consisted of all sorts of hardware. Verdict for the plaintiff for $411. J. R. Doyle for plaintiff; W. A. Edwards for defendant.

Susan H. Archambault vs William Taylor & Co. A feigned issue under the sheriff's interpleader act to try the ownership of a dry-goods store. Verdict for the plaintiff. Robert M. Lee for plaintiff; Paxson for defendant.

Thomas S. Renton and John Finlayson, Jr., administrators of William R. Renton, deceased, vs. George Martin. An action on six promissory notes. Before reported. Verdict for the plaintiff for $483.28. Page for plaintiff; Ernst for defendant.

COMMON PLEAS—Judge Thompson.—Thos. Lond vs. The Musical Fund Society of the City of Philadelphia. This was a proceeding under a writ of alternative mandamus to compel the defendants to pay over an allowance or benefit of five dollars per week from the 8d day of February, 1861, to the 1st day of October, 1856, and from the 16th day of November, 1856, to the 29th day of April, 1857, to the plaintiff, who is a professional member of said society, and claims to be entitled to the rights and privileges of membership under the charter and by-laws of defendants. In consequence of injuries to the defendant's right hand, sustained by falling on the ice in February, 1851, by which it is alleged, he became permanently incapacitated as a teacher of the piano forte, the said society on the 1st of January, 1856, constituted him a permanent beneficiary, with a weekly stipend of five dollars, commencing October 26, 1858. On the 14th of November, 1856, the defendants resolved to discontinue the allowance, it appearing by the report of the relief committee that the plaintiff had recovered, since which time he has received no relief.

The defendants allege that the plaintiff's claim is not within the scope of the charter; that he is not a musician by occupation, but a piano-forte manufacturer, and that his circumstances are such as do not require their assistance. Jury out. Wm. L. Hirst for plaintiff; Cuyler for defendant.

Cunningham vs. Cunningham. Yesterday morning the jury in this case rendered a verdict for the libellant. Daniel Dougherty for plaintiff; B. H. Brewster for defendant.

QUARTER SESSIONS—Judge Allison.—In the case of Wm. McMullin, charged with riot, etc., the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. L. O. Cassidy for defendant.

The case of John McKeon, charged with misdemeanor as an election officer, was resumed yesterday morning, and is still on trial. Mark Munday for defendant.

CITY ITEMS.

MISS KIMBERLY'S READINGS.—Our readers should not overlook the "sentimental, comical, serious, laughable, amusing, and entertaining" feast promised at National Guards' Hall, this evening, in the readings of Miss Kimberly. Those who have heard this lady express themselves in favorable terms of her reading powers. The subject selected for this evening will have much to do with attracting an audience. Longfellow's new poem, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," and Butler's very popular "Nothing to Wear," are to be given among other less extended productions. The rendering of the first of these will afford a fine field for exhibiting talent, if there be any to exhibit. Her having read Mr. Butler's poem in public one hundred times would indicate sufficient preparation for reading it well this evening, at least.

RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT.—Doster's Patent Corn Husking Machine is now on exhibition at the Bald Eagle Hotel, Third street, above Callowhill. Rights for sale. Lands taken in exchange.

A COURSE OF SPROUTS.—The following questions were asked the pupils of the High School, yesterday: What is an isosceles triangle? What is a scalene triangle? What is an acute-angled triangle? What is the diagonal of a quadrangle or quadrilateral? Define a polygon, the base, and altitude of a figure; the radius and tangent of a circle. How is the circumference of every circle supposed to be divided? How do you find the area of a rhombus? To all of which an ingenious young gentleman answered that he didn't know; but that he did know that the handsomest and best garments in the city are made and sold at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

"IF YOU WOULD HAVE A SWEET AND PLEASANT echo, you must speak sweetly and pleasantly yourself." This maxim is especially commended to parents and teachers, when instructing their progeny that the most beautiful clothing worn is that gotten up and sold at E. H. Eldridge's "Old Franklin Hall Clothing Emporium," No. 321 Chestnut street.

Our old friend Mark T. Willis, still officiates, and invites his friends to call.

PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY, NOT TUPPER'S.—"Life consists of money, a 2.40 horse and a fashionable wife." "Good!—Next, what is death?" "A payment that settles everybody's debts, and gives them a receipt in full of all demands." "What is poverty?" "The reward of merit that genius generally receives from a discriminating public." "What is religion?" "Doing unto others as you please without allowing a return of the compliment." "What is fame?" "A six line puff in a newspaper, while living, and a fortune of your enemies, when dead." Next, and last. "Which is the quickest and easiest method to be happy?" "To wear only the elegant comfortable styles of Granville Stokes, the fashionable clothier, No. 607 Chestnut street."
