CITY ITEMS

D. A. TEN EYCK, PHOTOGRAPHIST, 1 Arcade.—He has received a new and improved Gallery, and secured the services of Mr. Wm. Wilson, who will be pleased to wait on his friends and customers. Specimens of the art may be seen at the Gallery, and the public are invited to call and examine for themselves. Illustrations of the various styles of Photographs, Ambrotypes, and Daguerreotypes, will be found at the Gallery, and the public are invited to call and examine for themselves. Illustrations of the various styles of Photographs, Ambrotypes, and Daguerreotypes, will be found at the Gallery, and the public are invited to call and examine for themselves.

THE WEEKLY PRESS.—Parties who desire to see a good Family Newspaper, containing a condensed but comprehensive view of the events of the week, should subscribe for THE WEEKLY PRESS. It is issued every Saturday morning, in time for the mail, and contains the news of the week, carefully collated and condensed, with a variety of miscellaneous matter, selected with care, and adapted to the family circle. It also contains a large amount of original matter, including the best Agricultural Articles, Reviews of the Markets, Financial and Commercial Statistics, Reviews of Books, Miscellaneous Selections, Poetry, Science, Mechanics, Mechanical Inventions, Extracts from Foreign Exchanges, Letters from Our Correspondents, Editorial Paragraphs, Notes of the Times, Political Intelligence, Proceedings of Congress, Legislatures, Public Meetings, Accidents, Casualties, Murders, Robberies, Fires, Casualties, Murders, Robberies, Fires, Casualties, Murders, Robberies, Fires