THE RECEPTION OF MONEY.—The strangeness of the reception of Mr. Murphy, the great chess player, have been conquered. On his arrival in the city he will be met by a committee of ladies who will escort him to a hotel, where after taking some refreshment, he will be taken direct to the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, where he will be fitted with a new and elegant suit of clothes.

He piped in thought,
And with a green and yellow melancholy
Sat, like patience on a monument,
Smiling at grief."

A sad, but inevitable result of being compelled to wear an ill fitting garment, while "luxuriant joy and pleasure is exceed, sparkling, exult on every brow, and revel unrestrained," is the lot of those who wear the elegant fitting garments, gotten up at the palatial clothing store of Granville Stokes, No. 607 Chestnut street.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, May 5, 1859.

The warlike news from Europe arrived too late to affect the day's operations at the stock board, which were very dull. Prices were unchanged in any material degree.

The money market continues easy. Trade is dull. The exports are very light, and the imports heavy in comparison, but perhaps not so much the imminent danger of European war is taken into account.

If the disturbance abroad have the effect to increase emigration to this country in American vessels, the shipowners, whose "years of famine" seem to be badly prolonged, may find some return from their now idle, yet expensive investments in floating property.

The break in the Erie canal, it appears, is a very serious matter. The embankment that gave way was an important work, built at a cost of $150,000, to shorten the canal.

We are in receipt of the Bankers' Magazine for May, 1859, published in New York by J. Smith Homans, Jr., 192 Pearl street. The contents embrace, among the usual variety of articles, a paper on the Currency, by James H. Carroll, of Boston; a well-written article on American Trade to the Southern Pacific; two valuable contributions from Stephen Colwell, of this city, and from Thomas Hankey, ex-governor of the Bank of England.

Among the dividends of the banks of Pennsylvania, outside of Philadelphia, are the following in Pittsburg:

Pittsburg	4 per cent.
Exchange	6 "
Mechanics' and Manufacturers	4 "
Mechanics'	4 "
Allegheny	4 "
Citizens'	4 "
Iron City	4 "

and the

Easton Bank	5 "
Farmers' and Mech's Bank of Easton	4 "
Bank of Chambersburg	4 "
Harrisburg Bank	4 "
Capitol Deposit Bank	5 "
Miners' Bank of Pottsville	4 "

The amount of coal shipped by the Wyoming Canal Company, for the week ending April 30, was 3,331 tons. Amount reported previously, 19,851.

Total shipping of navigation April 4	23,182
The canal opened, last year, about the 25th March, and there was shipped, up to the 1st of May	12,710
Increase in 1859	10,473

Special Notices.

Special Notice.—The Susquehanna River and North and West Branch Telegraph Co. has opened an office in the Franklin House, 317 Chestnut street, and is now ready to do business promptly and efficiently, having direct communication with the great coal and iron regions of Pennsylvania, the valley of the Susquehanna, and both branches connecting with reliable lines through Northern and Western New York, the Canadas, and Northwestern States. my6-1m* Renovation.—How often do we come in contact with persons who are always complaining of ill health! They never feel well; are either weak, debilitated, nervous, or have no appetite. We would say to this class, procure a bottle of HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, use it according to the directions, and you will soon be restored to health and vigor.

Great Victory.

CHRISTIANSBURG Montgomery co., Va., April 20th, 1859.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON,

No. 26 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia:

Gentlemen: I had the misfortune to have my store destroyed by fire on the night of March 31st, 1859, and the Salamander Safe I purchased from you several years ago was in the store, which was part brick and part frame, and ninety-nine feet long, and it made a very hot fire. The Safe tumbled down, and was much warped by the intense heat. My policy of insurance and papers were found preserved in perfect order, on opening the safe the next day.

Yours, respectfully,
J. H. GUGGENHEIMER.

A large assortment of the above Salamander Safes for sale by EVANS & WATSON, No. 26 South FOURTH Street.

Premature Loss of the Hair, which is so common now-a-days, may be entirely prevented by the use of BURNETT'S COCOAINE. It has been used in thousands of cases where the hair was coming out in handfuls, and has never failed to arrest its decay, and to promote a healthy and vigorous growth. It is, at the same time, unrivalled as a dressing for the hair. A single application will render it soft and glossy for several days.

Prepared by JOSEPH BURNETT & CO., Boston, and for sale by dealers generally. ap25-mw&f1m
