Elk Lodge, A. Y. M.

Stated meetings of Elk Lodge will be held at their hall on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

G. L. McCracken, Sec'y.

BILLHEADS, letterheads, etc., printed at the ADVOCATE office. Send in your orders.

METHODIST SERVICES.—Rev. J. W. Davis, will hold religious services, in the Court House, next Sunday, morning and evening.

SHERIFF OYSTER, has a piece of land which he advertises for sale this week. The sheriff sells his goods cheap, and it is likely a good bargain could be had.

APPLES.—Nice apples by the peck, bushel, or barrel at A. Cumming's Ridgway Bakery. Main street, near the post office.

SNOW fell here to-day to the depth of four inches. It seems as though winter was determined to "linger in the lap of spring."

The way to support a newspaper, is to subscribe and pay your subscription; one ounce of this kind of support is worth fourteen pounds of good wishes unaccompanied with the cash.

LAND SALES.—The finale adjourned sale, of unseated lands for taxes for 1870 and 1871, yet due and unpaid, will be held at the Court House in Ridgway, on Monday, April 14th, 1873, at one o'clock, p. m.

LOOK HERE.—Five hundred agents wanted for the sale of Kenoucy's Photographic Family Record, the most beautiful pen work of the age, both useful and ornamental. Apply, at once to H. J. & B. F. Kennedy, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The paying of salaries to all county officers, instead of fees, is a proposition that is meeting with favor in all parts of the State. It is proposed to pay all fees into the public treasury, and the officers to receive their pay from the Treasurer. No doubt an effort will be made to incorporate this feature into the new Constitution.

ARRESTED.—Two young men named Alex. Nolf and Perle Fields, about fifteen years of age, were arrested yesterday by Constable Wensel, for stealing lumber from J. S. Hyde, at the Mead Run Steam Mill, and brought before Esquire Beeman. They had rafted in three platforms, and eight casks deep and had run the raft as far as the ice would permit. Perle Fields received bail and Alex. Nolf, was consigned to Fort Oyster in default of bail.

RAPPING.—The lumbermen in this section of the county, are busy at work, rafting in lumber, and making preparation for the spring run. However, the ice is so thick on the streams; and the snow so deep in the woods, that it will take a great deal of good weather to make a running stage and now the fear is that if the snow should go off with a rain, that a bank sweeper equal to the one of 1861 would be the result, the indications present are that the lumbermen will have a good run.

PAYING TWICE.—Some of our subscribers have complained that they have paid for the ADVOCATE twice or that they have paid four dollars for one year's subscription. Now if our subscribers will do us the favor to be sure they have paid two years subscription for one year's paper we will be under obligations, if any have done so we will send them the ADVOCATE a year free. We will fill out all back subscriptions, and we hope our subscribers that feel an interest in having a good paper, will be prompt in sending the pay for subscriptions now due us. It very often happens that subscribers complain of paying twice for one year's subscription, when the facts of the case will show that they have paid for one year and expected to receive the ADVOCATE a year free.

FELL SHORT.—A Kentucky man set out to husk eight bushels of corn, the other day, but right in the busiest part of the task he was called off to shoot a man who had proposed an elopement with his wife. He therefore fell short two bushels.

NINE counties and cities have so far voted "for license," and eighteen "against license." The aggregate vote for license is 8,473, and against 16,291; majority against license 7,818. BAD luck is simply a man with his hands in his pockets and his pipe in his mouth, looking on to see how it will come out. Good luck is a man of pluck with his sleeves rolled up and working to make it come right.

FRIEND ADVOCATE.—Sitting at my window, watching the clouds, as they float through the misty ether chasing each other in quick succession; each in its turn gathering fire and beauty as it dons the east of misty garments, of its floating neighbors, now frowning darkly, now beaming with light, now spreading the folds of its spectral mantle o'er the fragile form of a weaker brother, then fading, swiftly fading into the dim blue of the distant horizon, my eyes then drop from their airy gaze, and my thoughts from their dreamy flight fall flat, prone to earth, shocked perhaps at the scene that meets my eyes. In full view from my window several young men are playing at "throw and catch ball;" an amusement laudable and innocent in its kind but not appropriate to the day. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy;" was one of the copies under which we used to scrawl with our cramped novice hand, in the thumb worn copy books of childhood days. God's fiat and long custom have made it a law universal among all civilized nations, and by them it is recognized as a day sacred to worship and to rest. From boy to manhood [we were taught the divinity of its origin, and we now sorrow to see drunken brawlers reeling along our streets breaking the sacred quiet with their heathenish howls, and idiotic gibberish. We wonder where they procure the potent liquid, for our laws prohibit vendors from selling it on the Sabbath, and our "highlights of the bowl see all honorable men." Wishing you success we (my muse and I) remain your friend.

MARRIED.—On Monday, March 17th, 1873, at the residence of the bride's mother, in Edinboro, Pa., by the Rev. W. Hollister, Mr. Henry A. Parsons, Jr., of Ridgway, Pa., to Miss Eva M. Fuller, of Edinboro, Pa.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We hear that a young man named William Dixon died very suddenly last Friday night, March 14th, at Johnson's steam mill, in Pleasant Township, about seven miles from Warren. It seems that the deceased and others came from Irvineton that night bringing with them a quantity of whiskey of which they drank quite freely during the night, and Saturday morning he was found dead in John Utter's barn. Yesterday a Coroner's inquest was held over the body by L. T. Parmlee Esq., assisted by S. B. Stoddard, Nathaniel Sill, James R. King and others, who rendered a verdict after due investigation, that the deceased came to his death from excessive drinking of intoxicating liquors.

This sad incident is an effective sermon on the evils of intemperance.—[Warren Ledger.

A REAL OLD-FASHIONED WINTER.—Where is that elderly scamp who has howled for sixty-three years for an old-fashioned winter? How would he like to run him through a planing mill run by ice water, and cut him open with a snow plow, and fill him full of snow balls, and sew him up with an icicle, and strap him to the north pole until the spring rains released him. The awful wretch.—[Danbury News.

The Michigan crop of logs this year will be very heavy, and it is estimated by good judges that there will be at least 20,000,000 more in Grand river this season than will supply all the mills during the year, allowing them to run night and day.

HONESTY PAYS.—It pays to be honest. It pays in more ways than one. It not only pays in the satisfaction it brings, but in the long run, it pays in dollars and cents. The merchant, the manufacturer, the lawyer, the doctor, every man that seeks advancement through his labor will find that honesty is not only the best policy, but the best stock in trade that he can have. It may take longer to earn a fortune by honest labor, but once earned, it will last longer and buy more solid comfort than double the amount earned by dishonest means. There is something better than wealth. Integrity is priceless. Money cannot buy it. The rich man may envy the poor man his possession, yet the rich can have it from the beginning. Start right young man. Let not ambition whip you lead you astray. Be determined to deal on the square with your fellow men. Every dollar thus earned will bring a blessing to your heart. If you can make money honestly you had better make poor all your life. It will not pay to exchange your honesty for a few dollars and cents. Money made by cheating your neighbors will burn into your conscience and destroy forever your earthly happiness. Does ambition lead the citizens to high political power? Let him understand that the only sure foothold in climbing the rugged steep of fame is honesty of purpose. He may have brilliant ability, may charm the eye and please the ear, but if he lacks integrity he lacks the one great element of lasting power. If he is false to himself he will be false to others, and his fall will be as certain as his elevation was rapid. The wrecks of ambitious statesmen are to be seen on every side. They had ability; they had the confidence of the people; they were elevated to power and influence, but they lacked honesty and they fell—moral wrecks made so by their own folly. Let their fate be a warning to public men. Let personal integrity be the priceless jewel that money can neither buy nor sell. The man that is built upon honesty will stand like the shaft of granite, the emblem of beauty and eternal strength.

HALL'S VEGETABLE SCIANTO HAIR RENEWER. Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation, which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY or FALLING HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR-DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicines. Price One Dollar.

Buckingham's Dye. FOR THE WHISKERS. As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too inquires, to restore gray or faded whiskers, we have prepared this Dye, in one preparation, which will quickly and effectually accomplish its result. It is easily applied, and produces a color which will either rub nor wash off. Sold by all Druggists. Price Fifty Cents. Manufactured by R. P. HALL & CO., WASHINGTON, D.C.

HOW TO GO WEST. This is an inquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C. & O. R. R." running from Chicago, through Galena to Burlington, and the "L. B. & W. R. R." running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Elk County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent of the B. & M. R., Burlington, Iowa.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored. Just published; a new edition of Dr. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED TREATISE ON THE RADICAL CAUSE (without medicine) OF SPERMATORRHOEA or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Emission, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Rheumatism and Gout, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, can cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 50 cents. Address the Publishers: CHAS. J. KLINE & CO., 127 Broadway, New York, Post Office Box, 4, 588.
