Wyck, Grand, and the Bennett Concern.

We entreat Mr. Buchanan—as he values the honor of his country, as he values the integrity of the Democratic party, as he values the purity of the executive office, as he values his own fair fame—to revoke, vacatedly revoke, at once, the commissions of the second felon of a Satrilical pandemonium and the notoriously infamous pedlar in politics, as in morals, whose name is familiar to every ear as "the lowest Hessian of them all!"—When, if he has departed from New York, can he, and, he drunk, scitering, in hotels, London or Paris, playing of his official importance in a rare manner. Grand is more likely to be at one or another of the German watering places, magnifying the nature of his employment—in fact, insinuating to official circles that he is superintendent in general and special, controller in particular, of our European legations. Let the former be overtaken by the next mail—the manner which goes on Wednesday—with an official revocation, and the latter promptly dismissed. Let the national pleasant upon the heir appointments be wiped out, as far as such a disgrace can be removed. And let the Executive portals be hermetically sealed hereafter to the remainder of the infamous disreputable Jack Ketch clique.

We may have incurred the displeasure of the President of the freedom with which we have written on this subject. We care not for that, since if it has been incurred, it results from the discharge of a conscientious duty as an independent, fearless journal. We know, too, we speak the sentiment of the startling expostulations which we are making. Hundreds manifest such appreciation in a substantial form, through every mail that arrives. They beseech us to go on—holding up public vice and immorality to patriotic scorn, as leaning, rank, poisoned round the earth! Let laughers—if "Mum" move—leave nothing unrolled in the interest of official morality while there is a disclosure to make."—Washington States.

President Buchanan's Expenses.

Much has been said of the expense connected with the White House, and the cost of keeping up the dignity of the President's position. There never was a greater mistake. Mr. Buchanan must save at least $15,000 a year from his salary, as will readily be seen by a comparison with his predecessors. Mr. Polk, when he retired, with very considerable provisions. Mr. Tyler is believed to have carried away $30,000 or $40,000. Mr. Polk took home a much larger sum. Mr. Fillmore, who served something over two years and a half, was called upon to the mark of Mr. Tyler, and Mr. Fillmore, who lived more hospitably and generously, than either of these named, saved about $50,000. All these Presidents incurred some expenses from which Mr. Buchanan is entirely exempt. The White House is now heated and lighted entirely at the public charge. The kitchen garden is cultivated, which furnishes all the vegetables required, and more. A fine green-house has been added, which is found both useful and ornamental. Just before the inauguration of Mr. Buchanan the salary of the secretary of the President was made a salaried office, with 2,500 per annum, and a clerkship attached to it. The steward, who was previously paid out of the President's private purse, was also salaried at $1,200 a year. Two coachmen were added, and that reduce the entire servants. The only serious cost now incurred is for the official dinners given during the session of Congress, and it is well known that Mr. Buchanan has been prudent beyond all example in this respect. His ordinary household consists of three or four persons and the servants, and there are fifty gentlemen in the city who maintain more style and spend more money, without any appearance of extravagance. Mr. Buchanan, since he has been President, has had now and plenty of time to examine his market-book, and all the cares of State and the pressing demands for office.

A Family Poisoned.—On Thursday evening last, the household of Mr. Robert Stuart, at Newberry, N. C., consisting of four white persons and six negroes, were poisoned with arsenic, mixed with their food by the cook, a mulatto girl. She confessed the deed, and charged a young white man named Saunders with furnishing her the poison. It was ascertained that he had made two purchases of arsenic. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, a Mrs. Wilkes, and one of the negroes, it was supposed, would die. Saunders and the girl were arrested.

An Irish Family in Cincinnati, Ohio, consisting of seven persons, it has been discovered, have been living for a month past in a hog-pen.

CITY ITEMS.

Superior Refrigerator.—We yesterday examined the celebrated refrigerator, advertised in another column to day by Messrs. North, Chase, & North, known as "Winship's Patent." Beyond all question it is a very superior article. The scientific principles involved in its construction recommend it at once as most ingenious and complete. Indeed, after having had pointed out to us the philosophical reason for its superiority, we were not surprised at the extraordinary encomiums it has received from some of the most eminent men of learning in the country—for which the reader is referred to the advertisement. The preserving qualities of the refrigerator, we opine, are as complete as science could make it, and to all who are in want of one of these very necessary articles we would say by all means examine "Winship's Patent" before purchasing.

A German "savant" has taken the trouble to count the number of hairs existing in four human heads. He found in a blonde, 140,000 distinct hairs; in a brown, 109,440; in a black, 102,960; and in a red, 88,740. The above task we should judge to be about as difficult as to count the numerous suits of clothing that are sold each week at R. H. Eldridge's "Old Franklin Well Clothing Emporium," No. 824 Chestnut street.

Naming the New Hotel.—The stockholders of the new hotel, at Chestnut and Ninth street, held a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of naming their architectural pet. A number of names were offered for the banilling, and after a long discussion it was agreed that let what might be the popular opinion concerning the name, there could be no diversity of views concerning the excellence of the garments made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

Tears and Laughter.—God made both tears and laughter, and both for kind purposes; for as laughter enables mirth and surprise to breathe freely, so tears enable sorrow to vent itself patiently. Tears hinder sorrow from becoming despair and madness; and laughter is one of the very privileges of reason, being confined to the human species, and more frequently enjoyed by those who buy their clothes of Granville Stokes, the fashionable clothier, No. 607 Chestnut street.

A very extensive and choice style of carpetings has just been opened at Reeve L. Knight's, 262 South Second street, selected with correct taste, eminently suitable for villa, marine cottage, or town residences.

Special Notices.

Reduction!—Great inducements will be offered during JUNE, to close my extensive spring stock of Raven, Bacon, & Co., Nunns & Clark, Gale & Co., and Hallet, Davis, & Co. Pianos. Fox'ts. J. E. GOULD, Seventh and Chestnut. jel-1m Complexion.—It is an impossibility for any person afflicted with a diseased liver, or with any disorder of the digestive organs, to have a good or clear complexion. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS will remove all disease from the liver and digestive organs, and, by thus giving health and strength to those organs, remove that sallowness of appearance and roughness of the skin, noticed in so many. These Bitters are prepared by Dr. C. M. JACKSON & CO., 418 ARCH Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and sold by all druggists and dealers in medicines, at 75 cents per bottle.

When you ask for Kingsford's Starch, see that you get it:
It is the best Starch in the world. jel-1m

To Consumptives.—Persons wishing to have their lungs examined by, or advice from, Dr Schenck, will please defer it until SATURDAY, June 4th, as he has been professionally called out of the city. my31-4t*

Genuine Wedgwood Stoneware.—Just received, per ship Richard Morse, the most splendid assortment of the justly celebrated WEDGWOOD STONEWARE ever imported to this city. Selected, and bought at an unusual sacrifice, by M. J. KERR, now in Europe, we are enabled to offer this invoice of fancy articles at one-half the usual price. The public are invited to call and examine these rare specimens of art.

W. J. KERR & CO., CHINA HALL, my31-tuth&s3t 529 CHESTNUT Street.

To the Ladies.—Their attention is requested to Dr. MARSH'S CATAMENIAL BANDAGE, (or monthly protector,) a new and highly approved article. Female Supporters, Elastic Belts, &c. Ladies waited on in private rooms, by a competent female attendant.

AMBROSE SMITH,
my31-5t. Truss Office, 38 South Seventh street.

Constipation of the Bowels.—How many of our citizens are suffering from this disease, and expecting to be cured by the use of violent purgatives, which debilitate the system, and cause a return of the disease with increased asperity? Is it not better to have a remedy that will cure, by giving strength and vigor to the bowels, enabling them to perform their functions in a natural manner? Such a remedy is HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. It will not purge you, but, by its great invigorating and tonic properties, will give your system a tone that will enable it to perform all its functions in a vigorous and natural manner. For sale by the proprietors, Dr. C. M. JACKSON & CO., 418 ARCH Street. 1t-dW

An Infallible Restorer of the Hair and Sight.—JULES HAUEL'S EAU ATHENIENNE HAIR RESTORER acts beneficially on the sight as well as on the hair. By stimulating the cuticle, it affords health to the hair, keeping it firm and healthy, preventing baldness, and causing a new growth where it previously existed, and changing gray hairs to their original life color. Sold by all Druggists, and by JULES HAUEL & CO., No. 704 CHESTNUT Street, Philadelphia. my30-6t

Piles! Piles!! Piles!!!
WHAT IS IT? HOW CURED?

Thousands of Persons have Piles—suffer for years with the disease—yet few know what it is, or how it is cured. Every case of Piles, whether manifested in the form of external tumors, frequent bleedings, or in violent itching and irritation, depends essentially upon congestion of the abdominal venous circulation. This produces the engorgement, dilation of the veins, formation of tumors, hemorrhages, pain, and suffering; and the disease can only be fundamentally cured by medicines which, taken internally, relieve this abdominal venous congestion. Hence ointments, washes, and even injections, are so ineffectual.

HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC PILE SPECIFIC, a simple sugar pill, taken two or three times per day, cures the disease by curing the condition upon which the disease depends. Hundreds have been cured by it, even of the most obstinate cases. All will be promptly benefited by it. Price,

FIFTY CENTS A BOX.

N. B.—A full set of Humphrey's Homeopathic Specifics, with book of Directions, and twenty Remedies, in large three drachm vials, and morocco case, $5; do. in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $2.
