Special Notices.

Fires in Pennsylvania.—Books, Papers, and Money saved by Farrel, Herring, & Co.'s Patent Champion Safe.

GREAT FIRE AT WILKESBARRE.

WILKESBARRE, Penna., June 3, 1859.

Messrs. FARREL, HERRING, & Co.:

GENTS: On the night of the 30th and morning of the 31st May, a fire broke out in this place, originating in my store, and consuming sixteen buildings in its ravages.

The Safe of your manufacture, purchased from you a short time ago, was in the hottest part of the fire for upwards of six hours, and was red hot for a long time. I take great pleasure in informing you that my books, papers, &c., have since been taken from the Safe in a good state of preservation. I shall purchase another of your Safes as soon as I become located. Yours, respectfully, ROBERT WILSON.

FIRE AT RESACA, MORGAN Co., PA.

RESACA, Pa., April 28, 1859.

GENTLEMEN: The Herring Safe which we purchased from you a short time since, was tested by fire on the 8th inst., by the burning of our warehouse. It gives us pleasure to inform you that it preserved our books, papers, and money uninjured, although it was exposed to an intense heat for a long time. You will please make another safe, of larger dimensions, as the other was too small to contain all our books. Yours truly,

MILLER & MACKEY.

The above SAFES manufactured in this State only by FARREL, HERRING, & CO.,

FACTORY—Willow street, between Broad and Fifteenth streets. 1t

Great Fire at Galena—June 3, 1859.—A Herring heard from in the Northwest!

FIRE ON MAIN STREET, GALENA, ILL.

The "Herring" Safe owned by J. A. Packard, and in his store, No. 105 Main street, was subjected to a severe test on the morning of the 3d inst., when that and the adjoining buildings were entirely destroyed by fire. It was taken out of the ruins after a 28 hours roast, and the fittings were found uncharred, and the Safe in every respect in tip-top condition. Yours, &c.,

Many Thousands of People visited the Great Strawberry and Floral Festival of the Young Men's Christian Association, at Jayne's Hall. Looking out of the windows of the hall they saw 623.. WHEELER & WILSON ..623..

SEWING MACHINES.

"And there," they exclaimed, "is the office of that magical machine! Possessed of it, we can save time, eye-sight, and money; wear neatly-stitched clothing to the Festival; spend a little change there without a heart ache, and afford strawberries and cream at home besides."

There is much more than "strawberries and cream" in a WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE, as any one knows who has ever seen one; and as every one may see who will call at the office, 623 CHESTNUT Street, and examine them. 1t

The Dyspeptic.—The trials and sufferings of the Dyspeptic can only be realised by those so unfortunate as to be afflicted by this disease, and yet how many of them suffer, and continue to suffer! Why they do this so patiently it is impossible to tell. It may be from ignorance of any CERTAIN REMEDY, or it may be from prejudice against the use of a Patent Medicine. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS has cured thousands of the worst cases of Dyspepsia, and each day adds new names to the record of its usefulness. Give the Bitters a trial. For sale by all Druggists and dealers in medicines, at 75 cents per bottle; also, by the proprietors, Dr. C. M. JACKSON & CO., 418 ARCH street, Philadelphia. 1tdx&w

New Publications.

READY SATURDAY, JUNE 18, the sterling English novel—"THREE ERAS OF WOMAN'S LIFE. By Elizabeth Elton Smith. One volume, paper cover. Price 25 cents.

This book is the production of a superior mind—a mind that has contemplated the existing combinations of society with a more philosophical spirit than is common with novelists. It will please those whom fashion and its worshippers delight to honor. The style and execution of the work are charming, the dialogue is spirited, the ideas striking, and the remarks rational.

From the numerous commendations of the work by the English Press, we select the following extracts:

"We have been struck by the intellectual power displayed in these volumes, and have passed upon many striking and original thoughts, happily expressed, which are indicative of a superior talent. We have read the book with interest and pleasure."—London Athenæum.

"We most cordially recommend this work to our readers. The girl, the wife, and the mother: such are the three eventful epochs that the author has undertaken to delineate; and with equal truth, delicacy, and feeling has she drawn her pictures. The characters are well developed in an interesting story."—London Literary Gazette.

For sale by all Bookseller. Sent by mail to all parts of the United States, under 3,000 miles, POSTAGE FREE, on receipt of price.

COHEN'S PHILADELPHIA CITY DIRECTORY FOR 1860.

The recent Subscription Canvass for this work having resulted in unexpected success, the Canvassers have been withdrawn. As soon as the proper Blanks are prepared, the Canvass for Names, Occupation, and Location will commence. The record of 300,000 persons, in manuscript, compels us to the task at once but revision will be up to the 10th of February. The canvass in the heart of the city being very difficult, Mr. COHEN will head his force, and personally enroll all persons residing or doing business in the section, viz: From the south side of Market street to the north side of Walnut street, from the Delaware river to east side of Broad street, inclusive It is hoped that citizens will cheerfully give information to the Canvassers without detention. COHEN'S DIRECTORY is published only for Subscribers. Subscribers' names printed in CAPITALS. Price $2 per copy. Address through Blood's Despatch,
