MEDICINAL.

MRS. WINSLOW,
AN EXPERIENCED NURSE AND FEMALE Physician, presents to the attention of mothers her
SOOTHING SYRUP
FOR CHILDREN TEETHING, which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation; will allay ALL PAIN and promote motion, and is SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWELS.
Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves and
RELIEF AND HEALTH TO YOUR INFANTS.
We have spoken thus of and for our infants, the mixture has stood for over ten years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—NEVER HAS THERE BEEN AN INSTANCE TO OUR KNOWLEDGE THAT IT FAILED IN A SINGLE INSTANCE, TO EFFECT A CURE, when timely used. Never did we know an instance of dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted to speak in terms of the highest commendation of its magic effects and medical virtues. We speak in this matter "what we do know," after ten years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what here is claimed. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be manifested after the first hour of its administration.
This valuable preparation is the PRESCRIPTION OF ONE OF THE MOST EXPERIENCED AND SKILFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with never-failing success in THOUSANDS OF CASES.
It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN, whether it arises from teething or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has not tried it, we say from the bottom of our hearts, we do not let your prejudices, or those of others, stand between you and your suffering child, or the relief that will be SURE—yes, ABSOLUTELY SURE—to follow the timely use of this medicine. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTISS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.
Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Principal Office, No. 13 CEDAR Street, New York. jy14-1y
Price 25 cents a bottle.

The Press.
MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1859.

A Protest.

[For The Press.]

I beg leave to enter a protest against your continuing your animadversions upon the actions, speeches, and character of Hon. Wm. B. Reed, for the reason that you will, or may, drive him from the Democratic party, and force him into our ranks, where he is not wanted. As an old-line Whig I was once in intimate political relations with Mr. Reed, and I learned to know him thoroughly. We worked in harness together. Afterwards I became a member of the so-called Know Nothing organization, and although Mr. Reed did not enter that association as a member, yet he nevertheless aided us with his counsel, his pen, and his speech. He was in all our secrets, and knew beforehand, as well as I did, by what means we intended to elect Governor Pollock. He subsequently continued to co-operate with us, and was a member of our State Executive Committee, in 1855; met us frequently, and spoke at our meeting, in Pittsburg. All at once he came out with a letter of resignation, betrayed our confidence, and denounced our principles. He then, per saltum, became a leading Democrat (Heaven save the mark!) in the campaign of 1856, since which period we have congratulated ourselves of being rid of one whose selfishness has ever ignored integrity of political principle, and whose radical defect of moral constitution has ever rendered him an object of mistrust and suspicion. "Age is nothing—blood will tell," is a truism applicable to men as well as horses. PEOPLE'S PARTY.

The English Debt.

[Correspondence of The Press.]

WEST CHESTER, Sept. 30, 1859.

In your article yesterday on "Pennsylvania Credit" I think you made a misstatement in regard to repudiation being the effect of a reduction of interest by the English Government. When this reduction was made it was not compulsory, as the bondholders had the choice of taking the reduced interest or of receiving the principal back. It amounted to nothing more than a new loan, at less rate of interest. The only compulsion was the receiving back the money when the holder of the loan was unwilling to take less interest. But, sir, I am surprised that you and others pass without notice the manner in which Pennsylvania bondholders are treated, and that so much laudation was bestowed on the late purchase of State stock by the State. Do you not think it discreditable for the great State of Pennsylvania to buy its own loans, and those too matured loans, at about 90 cents on the dollar? Promising when borrowing to return dollar for dollar at a certain period, and yet when the period of maturity arrives advertising to buy their bonds from the lowest bidder, and thus repudiating, as in the late instance, nearly 10 per cent. of their debt. Is not this shameful?

Let our State, if she wishes to be honest, pay her loans at maturity, and not pass them by with calm indifference, taking advantage (I suppose) of a pitiful quibble in the certificate, which says payable "at or after a certain day." Do you suppose the money was loaned to be returned when the State saw fit, or never if she chose? Mr. Editor, I call upon you as a Pennsylvanian, and one who desires his State to stand unspotted, to draw public attention to the fact that we are buying our matured loans under par. Yours truly, E. A. H.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 28, 1859.

To-day the annual fair of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society was formally opened in this city. The show of stock is extensive, and comprises many fine specimens. The exhibition of horticultural productions is rather slender; but the display in the mechanical department, and of other articles, is excellent. The attendance from all parts of the State and from abroad is very numerous.

Some fast horses are exhibited; and upon a race-course not far from the fair grounds races come off, for which "Reindeer," "Honest Anse," and other celebrated Western horses are entered.

An address is to be delivered by Hon. Abram Lincoln, of Illinois. A regatta, with handsome prizes, comes off to-morrow. A firemen's tournament took place to-day, participated in by companies from different cities and villages in the State. On Saturday, Prof. Steiner is to make a balloon ascension. Altogether, the fair is a decided success.

Business in every department is nearly stagnant, the produce trade alone being active. This State will export about eight million bushels of wheat this year.

Democratic Douglas clubs are being organized in several of the larger towns, and much interest is manifested. Yours, W.

RESUSCITATION OF THE EMPIRE CLUB—EX-CONGRESSMAN PLAGLER NOMINATED FOR THE LEGISLATURE—AN IMPORTANT EVENT IN TRINITY CHURCH: ELECTION OF REV. MORGAN DIX AS ASSISTANT RECTOR—FAIR OF THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE—PRIGHTENING OF THE BEARS.

[Correspondence of The Press.]

NEW YORK, Oct. 1, 1859.

There is no doubt but that, in the ensuing political campaign for city, county, and State officers, the fight we men intend to act a conspicuous part, and claim, after the battle is over, such of the loaves and fishes as, in their opinion, they may have the right to ask; and, in all probability, they will be successful. There are always anxious candidates who are willing to concilate, for a sum certain, the preliminary aid of such fellows and ready to promise office in case of success. The Empire Club has been reorganized. Three or four prominent officers are state in the gubernatorial firmament. The president is Jim Irving; one of the vice presidents is Andy Sheridan, and the grand marshal, Johnny Austin. There you have an organization combining great wealth of muscle, and a notorious amount of intellectual morality! What is it for? What interest are they banded together to serve? Nominally they are Democrats, but the respectable portion of the party stand in fear of them, and deprecate most of their movements. They are the creatures of a few controlling spirits of the party, and wield their persuasive Hudgeons and their influence as ordered. They will be found at the polls ready to "defend the sanctity of the ballot box" by punching heads and bruising bodies upon the slightest possible pretence. They surround their friends who canvass the ballots, and assist in making them all right. They very rang in a terrific row last night, yet it seems to be no way of getting rid of them. The most effectual mode is, of course, a stoppage of supplies, and this has been partially commenced by the refusal of the paving Democracy to respond to the assessments levied upon them by Tammany Hall. It is doubtful, however, whether they can at present be disposed of. They are shrewd chaps, familiar with every avenue to the hopes, fears, and pockets of candidates, and have reduced their business to a scientific art.

We talk of the Erie or the Erie Railroad is a problem just reaching its solution. The receipts thus far in September, the present year, are about 270 thousand dollars, while in September 1858, though the business is rather improving. In a case brought against the company by James Brown, the Supreme Court has denied the motion to pay interest on the fourth-mortgage bonds, probably the preliminary movement to enforcing the terms of the bonds, which, in default of interest, become due in October.

Thomas T. Flagler, formerly editor of the Lockport Courier, and for four years a representative of the Niagara and Orleans district in Congress, has been nominated by the Republicans for the Assembly from the First Assembly district of Niagara. Probably he aspires to the Speakership.

An important event took place on Wednesday evening last, in the corporation of Trinity Church, in this city. Trinity parish is understood to
