Hon. Joshua R. Giddings of Ohio, and Hon. Horace Greeley of the New York Tribune, will lecture in this city during the winter. Mr. Giddings has been very successful in New York city and Boston, where he has lately delivered lectures on his experience in Congressional life. We believe he will lecture on the same theme in this city, and from the reception tendered him by our Eastern friends, he may look for a warm welcome in Philadelphia. The subject of Mr. Greeley's lecture, we learn, will be his experience in California and the Mormon country. Great interest has been felt as to the result of Mr. Greeley's travels, and as he is a man of fine parts and shrewdness of observation, his conclusions in relation to the mysterious and singular habits of the followers of the Mormon creed will be looked for by our people with exceeding interest.

Dr. John Lord will deliver a course of lectures this winter, on favorite themes. His success as a lecturer last year will insure him good audiences. Dr. Lord will deliver a single lecture previous to his course, under the auspices of some "Literary Institute" of our city.

A CHARITABLE OBJECT.—A floral, musical, and fruit festival, for the benefit of the sick and poor of the Catholic denomination will be held at the grounds of the St. John's Orphan Asylum, on next Thursday. The display will be of a most attractive character, and as the object is an exceedingly praiseworthy one, we commend it to the attention of our citizens.

ELECTION AT WILLS HOSPITAL.—Dr. Thos. George Morton, was yesterday elected by the Board of managers of this institution, to the office of Attending Surgeon, in place of Dr. Edward Hartshorne, resigned. Dr. Morton is a son of the late distinguished Dr. Samuel George Morton, of this city.
