CELEBRATION AT THE INSANE HOSPITAL, YESTERDAY.—There was a celebration at the Insane Hospital yesterday, in West Philadelphia, in consequence of several new buildings additional to the old having been completed. Speeches were made by Mr. Moses Dawson, Mr. William Welsh, and Mr. Morton McMichael. The patients, who were very numerous, were assembled in the building with the arrangements of which they appeared exceedingly satisfied.

IMPROVEMENTS IN REAL ESTATE.—The northwestern part of the city, in consequence of the improvement at Fairmount Park, is improving wonderfully. Persons who have not been in that section for a year or two, would scarce recognise the place. At the present time there is no less than seventy dwelling-houses in course of erection between Sixteenth and Twenty-second and Green and Coates streets.

PARADE POSTPONEMENT.—The Cadets of Temperance were announced to have a parade yesterday, and accordingly several sections gathered at Broad and Spring Garden streets, at the time appointed for the formation of the procession, but, in consequence of the muddy condition of the streets, it was deemed advisable to postpone the demonstration.

IN A PRECARIOUS CONDITION.—Mrs. Warner, the wife of the proprietor of a lager-beer saloon, in Fifth street, near Cathrine, lies in a very critical condition from brutal treatment received on Wednesday at the hands of a gang of ruffians who were robbing the house. The woman, who was in delicate health, was thrown down a flight of stairs by the brutes.

THE JULIANS—TRUE HEBREW congregation, "Rodef Sholem," has elected, by acclamation, as their preacher and Rabbi, Rev. Henry Vidaver, a young man of eminent scholarship and eloquence, who will deliver, Saturday, the 29th inst., at 10½ o'clock A. M., his inaugural serve on, in the Julians-street Synagogue.

WANTED—AN OWNER.—On Wednesday night a lot of wet clothing was found upon the person of one Samuel Stacker, who was arrested at Fifth and Callowhill streets. The clothing awaits an owner at the Central Station.

RECOVERING.—Mr. Isaac J. Neall, late Representative from Philadelphia, who has been confined to his room since the 3d inst., from a severe attack of rheumatism, is rapidly recovering.

FLUID EXPLODING.—On Wednesday evening there was a fluid-lamp explosion in a cigar shop in Manayunk. Damage was occasioned to the amount of thirty dollars.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27, 1859.

The stock of the Chestnut and Walnut-street Passenger Railway Company was offered at 19 without sales. Second and Third-street Railway stock sold at 30¾. Reading Railroad shares were of slow sale at 19. Pennsylvania Railroad shares sold at 57¾, and Minehill at 55¾. Bank stocks are firm. We note sales of City at 46, Commonwealth at 24¾, Consolidation 24¾, Girard, old stock, 12¼, Mechanics' 27¼, and Western 6¾.

The second-mortgage bondholders of the Williamsport and Elmira Railroad Company met to-day at the Philadelphia Exchange. C. H. Clark, Esq., the chairman of the committee of the second-mortgage bondholders, submitted the following report:

"They have had various interviews with the committee of the first and chattel mortgage bondholders, and also with the officers of the company, with the design of doing since some plan for the reorganization of the company on a basis which meeting the views of all parties interested, and that would command the cordial support of all classes of creditors.

"Thus far they regret to report they have been unable to arrive at any satisfactory solution of the difficulties. They

"They submit a copy of the resolutions passed at a recent meeting of the board of managers of the road; also, a letter from the president, calling the attention of your committee to a proposed arrangement offered by the first bondholders, through their committee, by which the endorsed debt is to be capitalized, and the equity of redemption is given to the second-mortgage bondholders till the 1st of January, 1861.

"It will be seen, from the letter addressed by the president of the company, that the committee of the first-mortgage bondholders have obtained signatures to a majority in amount (about $600,000) of the first-mortgage bondholders to a power-of-attorney authorizing their agent to take any steps necessary to protect their interests, and that the committee intend to sell the road and its franchises under the power contained in the mortgage.

"It is, therefore, necessary, in the judgment of your committee, that some prompt and energetic action should be taken by the second-mortgage bondholders, to prevent their property being swept away, as is now threatened, by the action of the committee of the first-mortgage bondholders.

"Your committee have also to report that bondholders to the amount of $256,000 have paid the assessment of $1 on each share."

A pretty full discussion of the proposition made by the first-mortgage bondholders followed, after which Mr. Clark stated he had submitted the following propositions to Mr. Whelan, the attorney for the first-mortgage bondholders, desiring from him information as to whether he would accept them or not:

That the first-mortgage bondholders take a redeemable scrip, to be paid before any dividends are paid on the preferred stock, for the scrip of 1858, and coupons due July, 1859, and January, 1860. A monthly amount to be taken from the earnings, and deposited in some sinking fund, to insure the prompt payment of the July, 1859, coupon. That the second-mortgage bondholders make some arrangement with the chattel bondholders and with the endorsers of the floating debt, and reorganize the company with a preferred and common stock in lieu of the present second mortgage; and that Mr. Whelan had answered favorably as far as he was concerned, but was of the opinion that they would not be agreeable to the committee.

Messrs. F. A. Van Dyke, Stephen Crawford, James S. Cox, William Short, and John Tucker, were appointed a committee to confer with the committee of the first-mortgage bondholders, and the meeting adjourned.

The afternoon papers give the following description of a bloody morning counterfeit, which made its appearance this morning on the Commercial Bank, R. I. Ide altered from broken Commercial Bank of Millinsburg, Md.; viz. female, spinning-wheel. 4-24, 10 in die on each side, X in centre of right pad. Ten across left end.

Judge Whitmore, in the Perry-county (Ohio) Common Pleas Court, rendered the following important railroad decision: At the June term of the court an order was made in the case of the Scioto and Hocking-Valley Railroad directing Mr. Webb, receiver, to sell, to the highest bidder, the entire road, machinery, fixtures, depots, locomotives, cars, property, and franchises of the company—the proceeds to be paid over to the mortgage bondholders, according to the priority of their mortgages. A motion was thereupon made, in behalf of the company, and the city of Portsmouth and the counties of Scioto and Jackson, as stockholders, to set aside the order of sale thus entered.

The judge, in an elaborate opinion, decided in favor of the motion—holding that, under the act of 1848, authorizing railroad companies to pledge and mortgage their income and property, road, franchises, &c., and that even if they had such power, under the law as it now stands, the courts could not decree a sale of the same. The order of sale heretofore made was accordingly set aside; but the road remains for the present in the hands of J. W. Webb, receiver. The case will probably be taken to the District Court.

The decision is one of great importance, as it embraces points substantially the same as must be passed upon in the case of the Marietta and Cincinnati, and other insolvent railway corporations in Ohio.

E. S. FARON & CO.'s, southwest corner of Second and Dock streets.

ADDITIONAL ATTRACTIONS.—Another artist has been added to the very popular troupe of Dogs and Monkeys now performing at National Hall, and will make her debut this evening. If she is equal to some of the stock company she will undoubtedly prove very attractive. We have been long used to tests by those who have attempted imitations of the Monkey; we have had enough of that, and it affords us pleasure to have an entertainment that we can recommend without fear of being legitimate. A grand performance on Saturday afternoon, also at evening.

THE HAREN'S FERRY AFFAIR—STARTLING REVELATIONS.—The capture of Cook and others, implicated in the insane insurrection at Harper's Ferry, has brought to light certain documents which will, when they are published, create an immense excitement in certain circles. We are informed that Osswattomie Brown had issued private circulars, requiring all who gave allegiance to the "new Republic" to buy their clothes at the elegant establishment of R. P. M. Estrada, No. 21 South Seventh street.

THE FIRST SNOW.—The first snow of the season fell on Wednesday. The streets, the trees, and the housetops were whitened. Young America was on hand with his sled, and out-of-door things looked decidedly wintry. There was not a sufficient quantity of snow fell to insure good sleighing; but there was quite sufficient for a foretaste of winter and to impress upon the mind the necessity of procuring elegant and comfortable winter garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

WHY is a lady pulling on her corsets like a man who drinks to drown his grief? Because, in so lacing herself, she is setting tight. We are not personally responsible for the above—and would simply advise its perpetrator to "buy his clothes at the Continental Clothing House" of E. H. Eldridge & Co., northeast corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets.

REMEMBER—

'Tis well to walk with a cheerful heart,
Where'er our fortunes call,
With a friendly frame and an open hand,
And a gentle word for all.
Since life is a thorny and difficult path,
Where toil is the portion of man,
We all should endeavor, while passing along,
To make it as smooth as we can.
We all should endeavor to smooth the way,
By pleasant converse and jokes,
And lead the throng, in quest of clothes,
To the store of Granville Stokes.
