E. SCUDDER'S GREAT LECTURE ON INDIA.—A request of many of our citizens, the Rev. Henry Scudder will repeat his wonderful lecture on "India. Races, Language, and Religion," at Musical Fund Hall, this (Tuesday) evening, commencing at 7½ o'clock. Scudder's intimate acquaintance with his subject in details, having himself been a life-long resident of the country of which he is to speak, renders this lecture absorbing interest. Those who heard it on a former occasion, will not willingly forego the pleasure of hearing it again, and those who have not should not fail to embrace this opportunity. He will be introduced to the audience this evening by Dr. Edgar, of Belfast, the distinguished divine now on a visit to this country, as one of the deputation of the Irish Presbyterian Church, to enlist the sympathies of our churches in behalf of important missionary enterprises now in progress in the Emerald Isle.

MEN of honesty, enterprise, and persevering industry are sure of success. Such men not only build themselves up, but enhance the welfare and prosperity of those around them. They consider nothing more conducive to a healthy prosperity in business than the judicious application of time, without it may be a judicious application of money in favorably representing their business to the trade; and Butler's influential "Southern and Western Trade Directory"—through the reliable Mercantile Agency of R. G. Dun & Co., successors to B Douglass & Co.—in the pockets of five thousand active, responsible merchants visiting Philadelphia for the purchase of goods, directing them to honorable dealers, can but be of the greatest advantage in its design, to call the attention of the Southern and Western trade to Philadelphia as possessing every facility as a great manufacturing and mercantile city—and to its patrons, individually, as prominent, enterprising, and liberal, and in every way entitled to the entire confidence of correspondent or interest purchasers. This enterprise receives much encouragement from Mr. Butler, by whom it was contemplated, whose offices are at No. 105 South Fourth street, and 16 Summer street, Boston, who informs us he is meeting the same entire appreciation and support of the leading houses in Boston, which enables him to complete so satisfactorily his second edition here, now held in such high esteem by his patrons, our most prominent dealers and manufacturers, supported by our best houses. We wish this enterprise, with a hearty good will, the greatest success.

HENRY WARD BEECHER never used a more expressive metaphor than when he spoke of Wendell Phillips as the "silver-tongued orator of America." This eminent gentleman, one of the first orators and orators in the United States, will deliver his celebrated lecture on the "Lost Arts," before the Harrison Literary Institute, on Thursday evening, at Jayne's Hall. This masterly production, which has been delivered over two hundred times, and which is regarded as one of the greatest lectures of the day, needs no praise of ours to commend it to an intelligent public. In order to accommodate the great crowd sure to be present, the Harrison have secured Jayne's Hall. The tickets, which will be only twenty-five cents, are for sale at the principal bookstores, and at the door on the evening of the lecture.

SIGNOR BLITZ'S wonderful performances continue to attract crowded audiences at his Temple of Wonders, corner of Chestnut and Tenth streets. He has added to his entertainment many novel and attractive features. To those who can appreciate a hearty laugh and a pleasant evening's enjoyment, his performances offer a rare inducement.

COMPLETE the attractions of your house by purchasing a Stereoscope and Pictures. The largest variety, at the new Stereoscopic emporium, 13 South Eighth street. JAMES CREMER & CO.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.—Prominent among the persons having more or less chance of nomination for the next Presidency, may be mentioned: W. H. Seward, Colley Clibor, Capt. Rynders, Horace Greeley, E. Meriam, James Gordon Bennett, Lucy Stone, Barney Field, S. A. Douglas, John C. Heenan, Henry Ward Beecher, William E. Burton, Stephen H. Branch, Lord Dundreary, Sylvanus Cobb, Jr., Henry A. Wise, George Munday, Andrew Gardner, Andrew Jackson Davis, Jefferson Davis, Abby Folsom, Tom Hyer, J. C. Fremont, the Voice of the People, Chevalier Wikoff, James Buchanan, Jane G. Swisshelm, Ned Buntline, Thomas Thumb, P. T. Barnum, Mrs. Bloomer, Parson Brownlow, Deacon Hallock, and Mr. Yeadon's "Orator. Patriot, Sage, Cicero of America, Laudator of Washington, Apostle of Charity, High Priest of the Union, and Friend of Mankind," whose vocation seems principally to consist in oozing upon all mankind and the rest of the world the importance of buying their clothes at the palatial store of Granville Stokes, No 607 Chestnut street.

OUR FOREIGN CORRESPONDENT SAYS:—"The Emperor Napoleon has declined to be present at the banquet offered to him by the Commissioners of the Municipality of Bordeaux; it is, therefore, supposed that his Majesty will not make the anticipated speech, but the Emperor and the Empress intended to be present at a grand ball to be given in their honor on the evening of October 11." We are unadvised in regard to this pageant, but have no doubt his Imperial Majesty wore the elegant costume cotton up by Hobson, at the fashionable tailoring establishment of R. P. M. Estrada, No. 21 South Seventh street.

SHOT AN EAGLE.—John Smith, a well-known citizen of Manayunk, while out gunning one day last week, "brought down" an eagle on the wing. The bird measured six feet from tip to tip of the wings. Mr. Smith took the bird home, and on reaching his house his wife discovered a piece of ribbon round its neck. On examination, they found that there was attached to the ribbon a medal, on which was engraved: "Buy all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

TO BECOME celebrated, a man must either lead or oppose. A ship must either move faster or slower than the stream. This is also true of the fashionable world; and to keep with the current it is necessary for all to purchase their clothes at the Continental Clothing House of E. H. Eldridge & Co., northeast corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets. Let all who would be celebrated for propriety in dress make note of it.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC CITIZENS OF PHILADELPHIA.—The leading article of the Pennsylvanian of yesterday, in alluding to the conduct of the present Administration, refers to their course in the nomination of Mr. Vaux. Dr. McClintock, and myself, in a way, if unanswered, to leave a false impression upon the public mind; and, as I am alluded to by name, I take the earliest opportunity to correct the misstatements.
In addition to many instances of undue and improper interference by the officers of the National Government against my nomination, I have leave to refer to the case of Mr. JOHN FULLERTON, of the Eighteenth ward, the messenger of Mr. John Hamilton, Jr., Surveyor of the Port, who was dismissed for voting for my nomination, and so informed at the time of his dismissal.
That this was the sole cause of his REMOVAL, Mr. Hamilton avowed to me in the presence of others. Who Mr. Fullerton is, and was, the Democrats of Old Kensington well know. I may say that he is one of the best of men—was a good officer—and has been a consistent DEMOCRAT all his life, which is nearly double that of Mr. Hamilton.
The reference to my nomination, therefore, is entirely unfounded in fact.
