A SHARP FINANCIER.—The New York Post relates that a distinguished railroad financier, banker and member of the church, in getting up a bank in one of the Western cities, invoked the aid of the bishop in making subscriptions to the capital stock, by asking the loan of his note on time for a few thousand dollars, telling him it was a mere matter of form—that he would not be obliged to pay it, &c. The bishop complied, and not being a person that gave any great deal of attention to temporal affairs, and not overburdened with the "ready," his note having been passed to the hands of a brother banker of the financier, was as a matter of course protested for non-payment when it became due. Our financial friend, who had kept watch on the note, now goes quietly and with much apparent secrecy to a brother member of the church, and with benevolence beaming on his countenance, informs him that the bishop's note is lying at the bank under protest. "This is too bad," says he, "but nothing must be said about it; we must take up the note, and I will hand the subscription with $50." The requisite amount was soon raised, and the bishop's note paid. The financier made his bank stock clear at a cost of $50 only, and at once took a position in the opinion of his fellow-members as a pillar of the church.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE PRESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.

The cargo of the schr John A Stanley, previously reported ashore at Squan, consisting of cotton and hides, has all been landed on the beach. She makes no water, and it is expected that she will be floated off to-morrow, weather permitting.

All the cargo that can be got out of the ship Helen A Miller has been landed and placed in tents at the Falkland Islands. There will be a great portion more or less damaged. Her materials have been sent to Montevideo.

If a vessel can be got at a reasonable price to go to San Francisco, her cargo will be forwarded; if not, it will be sent to New York.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.

Arrived, ships Metropolis from Lozhorn; Chancellor, from Liverpool; bark Mayflower, from Barbadoes; brig Echo, from Rio Grande; brig George Alberti, from Port au Prince; brig Wm Wilson, from Laguna; schr Kate Weston, from Rio de Janeiro.

Also arrived, ships Confidence, from Newport, Eng; Benj Adams and John H Elliott, from Liverpool; Gosport, from Jarvis Island; John Jay, from Woosung; schr Enchantress, from Malaga. Spoke on the 10th, off Hatteras, schr Justina Rosalind, from Port Spain, Trinidad, for Baltimore, in a sinking condition. The captain had intended to abandon her, but having good weather, would probably reach Occacoke or Cape Henry.

Arrived, ships T B Wales, from Calcutta; Levant, jm do; barks Convoy, from Malaga; Laura Campbell, from Liverpool; brig Chima, from Rio de Janeiro.

CITY ITEMS.

PERSONS who use LOVE'S Teas, Sugars, and Coffee, will bear testimony that they stand unrivalled for quality and cheapness. Seventh and Brown.

SUPERIOR PREPARATION FOR THE HAIR.—The most popular preparation for the hair now made is Phalon & Son's Cocoin, manufactured from highly purified Cocoa-nut Oil. It is not only the best, but is the cheapest article made for promoting, preserving, and dressing the Hair. The Messrs. Phalon deserve thanks for putting up their valuable preparation in so cheap a form that it may be had by all. The price is twenty-five cents for small, and fifty cents for large bottles.—Philadelphia Ledger.

DEVILS.—

There are many devils that walk this world,
Devils great and devils small;
Devils with tails and devils without,
Devils who whisper, devils who shout,
Devils who mystify, devils who teach,
Devils who pray, and devils who preach,
But the lying devil who takes his perch
On the higher seat in the highest church,
And makes his religion the means and ends
For concealing his guilt and betraying his friends,
And exhibits his venom and cracks his jokes
At those who buy Clothing of Granville Stokes,
Is the shabbiest devil of all!

A splendid stock of Clothing at the Philadelphia Temple of Fashion, No. 607 Chestnut street.

SCHILLER JUBILEE.—The procession Wednesday night in honor of the Schiller centennary, was one of the most striking demonstrations ever witnessed in the way of a torch-light parade. The ball, which the pen of the great German poet has rendered classical, appeared at various points and in different forms, and several of the huge tintinnabulans bore appropriate mottoes in German. One of the inscriptions we translate as follows: "Buy all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

PAUL MORPHY, the great chess player, Friday evening, in the Academy of Music, played a blindfold game against three of the best players in our city. He beat them all easily, and again endorsed his claim to the chess championship of the world. His wonderful performance completely astounded them; initiated as much as do the astonishingly low prices at which the beautiful new styles of Fashionable Clothing are sold at E. H. Eldridge & Co.'s "Continental" Clothing House, northeast corner of Chestnut and Sixth streets.

WITHOUT the Stereoscope and Pictures the adornment of your home is incomplete. The largest variety in the city, at the New Emporium, 18 South Eighth street. JAMES CREMER & CO.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE Board of Managers of the HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY of the city of Philadelphia, held on Saturday evening, Nov. 5, 1859, the following communication was received and read:

To the Board of Managers of the Home Missionary Society of the city of Philadelphia:

DEAR BRETHREN: I find my business becoming so extended that it is impossible for me to do justice to it, and must hereby respectfully submit to you my resignation as an agent of the Home Missionary Society of Philadelphia. In doing so, allow me to assure you that I still feel a deep interest in the future prosperity of your institution, and will cheerfully render it all the aid I can.

Very respectfully, JOHN STREET.

October 28 1859.

Whereupon it was resolved, that the resignation of our able and efficient Missionary and Agent, the Rev. John Street, who has served this Association so faithfully and satisfactorily for the last eighteen years, be, and the same is hereby, accepted.

Mr. JOHN P. ARRISON was appointed to take the place of Mr. Street, and to be now waiting upon the public, soliciting donations for the use of the Society.

ZOLLICKOFFER'S ANTI-RHEUMATIC CORDIAL.—SIR: I have been afflicted with rheumatism for a long period—a portion of the time had no use of my limbs. Tried your Cordial in small doses and I was able to walk down stairs, and in a week the pain entirely left me. I do cheerfully recommend the Cordial to those who are afflicted with that dreadful complaint. Yours, &c. W. STEWART, Broker, 632 Pine st.
