CONFIDENCE GAME SUCCESSFULLY PLAYED ON A SEMINARY.—A fine-appearing, well-dressed, middle-aged man of insinuating manners recently called at a fashionable seminary in New York, and stated that he had three children whom he desired to educate most liberally, and that the institution in question had been specially recommended to him. He was exceedingly particular regarding the character of the religious instruction which was to be dealt out to the three children he was about to bring, and insisted upon having proper references shown him. He was finally satisfied with references, and the amount to be paid for tuition was soon agreed upon. The principal of the institution informed the gentlemanly stranger that it would be necessary for him to pay in advance. The stranger drew forth a roll of bank notes, but, unfortunately, there was not money enough to pay the bill. He then pulled out a check for a considerable amount, which he handed the principal, receiving in change $78 of good money. Of course, the three pupils have not made their appearance, while the check has been ascertained to be entirely valueless, except as a cigar-lighter. The police are looking for the gentleman of pleasing address, and the managers of the seminary are bewailing the loss of their $78.

CITY ITEMS.

THE THIRD LECTURE OF PROFESSOR COPPEE, on American History, takes place this evening. Valuable lessons are imparted by the facts of history. Like hand-boards in the country, where several roads meet, direct the traveller in the proper course, the lessons of history point out to future generations the ignis fatuus dangers and follies of the past, and bid them take warning. Those lectures impart lasting instruction to all classes, particularly to the young and inexperienced. The lecture this evening will treat of the first English settlements in Virginia, which will bring to view the beautiful devotion of Pocahontas.

THE BEAUTY of the Stereoscope and Pictures elicits the highest praise of all refined persons. The finest variety in the city, at the New Emporium, 13 South Eighth street. JAS. CREMER & CO.

LOVE'S TEA Warehouse, cheap Sugars and Coffees. Everything in the grocery line cheap, Seventh and Brown.

A GHOST.—It is currently rumored that a ghost is to be seen nightly on the wire bridge, over the Schuylkill. Several persons who have seen it declare it to be a female ghost; we presume they found their opinion on the redundancy of its nether extremities. Be that as it may, however, it is said to be a veritable ghost, or spook; or to speak in the phrase rose, and does not wear the elegant and becoming styles of Granville Stokes, the fashionable clothier, No. 607 Chestnut street. Our readers need not think this is a puff, but a simple fact; we quote for the special purpose of directing their attention to the splendid stock of clothing at the above place.

WONDERFUL IMPROVEMENT.—A gentleman announces that he will deliver a lecture in this city, in the course of which he will exhibit a "model of his steam battering-ram, by which two men can wipe out any war vessel now afloat, without firing a gun or losing a man; and also a model cannon, that will load, aim, fire, and swab itself out". He has also on exhibition a model suit of clothes from the "Continental" Clothing House of B. H. Eldridge & Co., northeast corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets, at which place our readers, in quest of elegant clothing, are invited to call.

A METEOR IN NEW YORK.—The New Yorkers have been getting up a meteor, or an exploding balloon, or somethine else, which came down somewhere in the city yesterday, and not only astonished the Gothamites but scared some of them considerably. A fiery something about as big as a "horse," or a "house," or a bit of chalk, and having a tremendous long tail, came down with a rush. Upon proceeding to the spot where it fell, no trace could be found of it, and there was nothing lying about loose upon the earth except a neatly folded note, which, upon being opened and read, was found to contain the following: "Buy all your garments at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, Philadelphia.

A FIRST CLASS HUMBUG.—The Harper's Ferry "insurrection" continues the great bug-a-boo of Northern dough-faces and Southern sensationists. An original devise has been adopted to keep the "pot boiling" that is, to write a ridiculously nonsensical letter, about insurrection, &c., and drop it in a railway car or steamboat. It will then be published, and the Union per consequence is convert ed (!) It is slightly astonishing that some of our popular tailors, R. P. M. Estrada, No. 21 South Seventh street, for example, don't adopt the same plan to advise the world that theirs is the place to buy fashionable, seasonable, and cheap clothing—What says John Hobson?

BRONCHITIS.

BRONCHITIS.—A Chronic Inflammation of the small Mucous Glands connected with the Membranes which line the Throat and Windpipe; the approach of which is often so insidious as scarcely to attract notice—an increase of Mucus, and a sense of weariness and loss of power in the Throat, after going out of doors or singing. It arises from cold or any unusual exertion of the voice. These incipient symptoms are allayed by using BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES, which, if neglected, an entire loss of voice is often experienced.
