Philadelphia Markets.

DECEMBER 1—Evening.

There is not much demand for Flour to-day, but holders are firmer in their views, and about 1 000 bbls ext, mostly good straight superfine, on terms kept private, including good extra at $5.75 and common family Flour at the same price. Holders now generally ask $5.87½ for straight superfine, which is an advance. The demand for home use is steady within the above quotations for superfine and extras, and $6.25@6.75 for fancy lots as to brand. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are steady at $4.25 for the former and $3.75 ⅌ bbl for the latter. Penna. Meal. Wheat—there is not much doing, and buyers are holding off. Some 4,500 bus, however, sold at 135c for prime Southern and Penna. reds, and 140@140c for good wh ta, mostly of the former description. 145c is wanted for 63c for Penna and 90c for Delaware. Corn is not so plenty, and the demand is fair at fully previous rates, new yellow, selling at 78@80c, which is an advance, the latter for prime dry lots, and old at 90@92c, as in quality. Oats are not so firm, and about 2,000 bus Delaware sold at 42c, and Penna. 44c. Rark—About 100 bbls first No. 1 Quercitron sold at $27 ⅌ ton, which is a decline. Cotton—The market continues dull, and the sales limited to a few small lots at previous rates. Groceries and Provisions—There is not much doing, but holders are firm in their demands. Seeds—The inquiry is moderate, and about 400 bus Cloverseed sold at $6.25 ⅌ 64 lbs, the latter for prime, which is scarce. Timothy also sold at $2.40, and Flaxseed at $1.50 ⅌ bu. Whiskey continues dull; 100 bbls Penna. sold at 26c@26½c; Ohio at 27@27½c, for second-hand and prime packages; 25½c for hhds, and 24½c ⅌ gallon for drudge.

CITY ITEMS.

A SAFE, CHEAP, AND BRILLIANT LIGHT.—Our attention has recently been called to a new and invaluable light, entitled the "Loveless Self-Generating Portable Gas-Burner and Fixtures," of which Messrs. Wilson & Company, No. 618 Market street, are the sole proprietors. The frequent accidents arising from the use of fluid has often been a subject of comment, caution, and even admonitorship in these columns, and we have, therefore, the more pleasure in appriring the public of an article which not only effectually obviates this difficulty, but places within the reach of all, whether in the city or country, one of the most pleasant, brilliant, and at the same time the cheapest, lights that have yet been produced.

By a most ingenious arrangement, the gas consumed by the burner is generated in the lamp to which it is attached. By actual experiments, made by scientific men, explosion from the use of fluid in these gas-generating lamps is rendered impossible. This entire security is, in fact, obvious upon examination, and, considering that the cost of light be the use of these lamps, while it is quite as pleasant a light, is scarcely one-half that of ordinary gas, we are not surprised to find that Messrs. Witters & Co. are supplying orders for them to all parts of the Union. In scores of churches and public halls throughout the country they have already been introduced, and for these purposes are found to be the most complete and in all respects desirable portable light ever discovered. As they manufacture manufacture chandeliers, in fact, every design of fixture, supplied for the consumption of ordinary gas, this light is being freely adopted in many places even where the latter is accessible. Our object in referring to this light in such commendatory terms is to attract public attention to a first rate article, which, if it were in our power, we would have to supersede the use of all other portable lights now in use, from considerations of safety, if nothing else; although there are many other reasons for its general introduction. Railroad companies are introducing them as car lights, and they are acting wisely in doing so, as the difference between the light imparted by these gas lamps and the ordinary wick lights is almost incredible. Messrs. Witters & Co. are now readily selling the State and County rights for the sale of this valuable patent light, and it will probably not be long before every town and hamlet in the Union will have made the favorable acquaintance of the "Loveless Portable Gas-burner."

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—We have been requested to direct attention to a musical entertainment, to be given at Musical Fund Hall, this (Friday) evening, by the young ladies of the Mount Vernon Grammar School. The programme combines a rich variety of chants, choruses, solos, duets, and declamations, there being in all over thirty different items on the list. The object of the concert is eminently creditable, the proceeds being intended to procure pianos for the school for the benefit of the pupils. The pianist for the occasion will be Professor Charles Jarvis. The entertainment will be given under the conductorship of our well-known townsman, Professor John Bower.

HORACE GREELEY ON CALIFORNIA AND THE MORMONS.—Mr. Greeley, of the Tribune, will deliver a lecture this evening at Concert Hall, on his experience in California and the Mormon country. We all remember Mr. Greeley's late visit to these portions of our territory; his interviews with Brigham Young; his clear and practical views of the institutions of Utah; his reception in California, and the other manifold incidents of his tour. By the especial request of the Harrison Literary Institute, as we learn, he has prepared an entirely new lecture, embracing the result of his observations and will deliver it to-night. Mr. Greeley is a for cible and readily spoken speaker, and will be listened to by our people with great interest.

WITH the advent of the Holidays, everybody is beginning to think of the time-honored custom of giving and receiving Gifts. This is right and proper, and we take pleasure in recommending all to the great "Gift Book Store" of G. G. Evans, No. 439 Chestnut street, where they may purchase a gift in the shape of a beautiful book for one dollar, and receive a handsome and costly Gift in addition. At no other place in the Union are there so many beautiful articles given away, or so many entertaining books sold.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS!—The most beautiful and appropriate Christmas present is the Stereoscope and Pictures. The largest assortment at the new emporium 18 South Eighth street. JAMES CREMER & CO.

MR. SAUNDRY would invite the attention of those who would have their Pianos properly tuned to his card on our fourth page. See Piano cut.

SECURE THE BEST, by buying your Teas at John B. Love's, Seventh and Brown.

TO A CORRESPONDENT.—The battle of Waterloo would probably have been—if we may use the expression—a drawn battle, had not Blucher come up to Wellington's help, though we think that Napoleon, during the night, would have withdrawn his forces from the field. England cannot bring into battle so large an army as Russia, at least not at the outset of the war. It is not men, however, but money, which decides the fate of a campaign. The same may be said of the motive power to a new suit of clothes from the "Continental Clothing House" of E. H. Eldridge & Co., northeast corner of Chestnut and Eighth streets.

RAFFLING FOR EDWARD EVERETT'S MANUSCRIPTS.—At the Washington Satue Fair, a raffle was held, in which Mr. Everett's manuscript of his oration on Mr. Choate was drawn by Mr. Richardson, and Mr. Everett's manuscript of his address on Webster was secured by B. J. Lang. We understand that it is also designed to put up at auction the original manuscript copy of a first-rate notice, once written by Mr. Everett for the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth.

HORACE GREELEY, the philosopher of the Tribune, will be in town to day. He will have that white hat on for the especial occasion only. He will deliver a lecture this evening before the Harrison Literary Institute, on his adventures in California and the Mormon country. He will tell the people how he bearded old Brigham in his den; how he scared the buffaloes; how he electrified the Californians; and how he was furnished by the Mormon elders with an order to procure for the inhabitants of that region complete suits of the beautiful clothing manufactured by Granville Stokes, No. 607 Chestnut street, above Sixth.
