THE CITY.

AMUSEMENTS THIS EVENING.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MUSIC, Broad and Locust Streets.—"Lucia di Lammermoor."

NATIONAL HALL, Market street.—Old Folks' Concert Company.

NATIONAL THEATRE, Walnut street, between Eighth and Ninth.—"Dan Rice's Great Show."

WALNUT-STREET THEATRE, Second street, Walnut and Ninth streets.—"Ireland as it was"—"An Hour in Seville"—"The Irish Tutor."

CHESTNUT-STREET THEATRE, Chestnut street, Arch street, above Sixth.—"A Daughter's Vow"—"Nine Points in the Law."

TEMPLE OF WONDERS, northeast corner Tenth and Chestnut streets.—Signor Blitz.

MCDONOUGH'S GAIETIES, Race street, below Third.—Entertainments nightly.

METROPOLITAN HALL, Jayne's Commonwealth Building, Chestnut street, near Sixth.—"Thiodon's Museum of Art."

ANOTHER NEW MARKET HOUSE.—Another new market house has been commenced on the south side of South street, above Ninth, designed for butchers, dealers, and farmers. It occupies a lot of ground extending from South to Shippen street, upon which it also has a front, adjoining the old Hancock Temperance Hall, opposite Kendleton Cemetery. There will be three rows of stalls, about eighty in number, between which there is a passage-way running from Shippen to South street. A lot adjoining, to the west, will be fitted up with stalling for the horses of the stall-renters. The old Hancock Hall will be turned into a market tavern, and the large dwelling on South street, connected with the same property, will also be used for the same purpose.

THE REMOVAL OF THE MARKET SHEDS.—The persons engaged in removing the market sheds on Market street are characterized by the most "masterly inactivity." At the progress now being made, they may be regarded as disappearing at the rate of a brick a day. There is every reasonable hope of seeing the last of them about the time of Mr. Buchanan's departure from office, but we have no fears of their going before that time.

A BEAUTIFUL PRESENT.—A beautiful silver horn has just been finished for the Assistance Fire Company of this city, as the fit prize for hand engines in the trial on the Fair ground at Powelton, in September last. The horn was cast up at the expense of Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society. It is elaborately wrought, and it bears the figure of a stag, (the emblem of the company) in bold relief. It also bears an appropriate inscription. The prize is very beautiful and it is alike creditable to the company and to the society by which it was got up.

ROBBERY OF A STORE.—Some time during Tuesday night the auction store of J. Perry & Co., No. 35 South Front street, was entered by forcing a back shutter, and robbed of articles worth about one hundred dollars. Drawers were broken open and ransacked, and an attempt was made to force open the fire-proof. The scamps helped themselves liberally to wine and cigars. No arrests were made.

A NEW HALF-DOLLAR.—A new half-dollar has been got up at the United States Mint to be submitted to Government for its approval. The new coin, although of the same diameter as that now in circulation, is much thicker at the rim in consequence of the deep cut sinking of the die, and hence much more durable. On one side is a medallion portrait of Washington, with the head wreathed with laurel; the word liberty upon a scroll over the bust; at the bottom of the date, 1859; and around the whole the words United States of America. In plain, well adapted raised letters. On the reverse side, a wreath of grain envelopes the words half dollar, in the same beautiful letters. The coin is very handsome.

FINAN CIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, December 7, 1859.

The stock market is steady, with very little business doing. In city loans there is not so much doing as there was, the action of Councils in fixing the tax rate too low auguring unfavorably for their market in 1860. All the fancies are in disfavor.

The public are cautioned against a new fraud, being an altered $5 note, purporting to be the true issue of the Freehold Banking Company of New Jersey, which has just made its appearance. Vignette—three men rolling a log; man, oxen, and man cutting a tree in the distance; Five in blue across the upper centre of note; 5 in both upper corners; two men gathering corn in lower right corner; two men shaving sheep, boy, &c., in lower left corner. Unlike genuine. Look out for them.

Messrs. George Peabody & Co., of London, have recovered the large verdict of $47,105.54 against the Middlesex Company, for money paid by Peabody & Co., as acceptors of drafts drawn by Saml. Lawrence, for the payment of purchases of cotton made by him in 1857 in England, part of which went to the use of the defendant. The case is very important one in the amount involved, and will go, upon the law, to the Supreme Court at Washington.

Counterfeit twenty-dollar bills on the Bank of Northumberland have been put into circulation in Dauphin county, the past week, by a stranger. The paper is light and the engraving somewhat imperfect.

Philadelphia Markets.

DECEMBER 7—Evening.

There is no change in Flour, but the market is dull owing, in some measure to the inclemency of the weather; sales include 1 000 bbls of W. B. Thomas' superfine at a price kept private, and 500 bbls extra family, at $6 25 ⅌ bbl; standard and superfine is offered at $5 87½, without sales, except to the trade, at from this figure up to $5 75 for superfine and extras; $5 87½@6 25 for family, and $6 50@7 for fancy brands, according to quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are steady at $4 87 for the former and $3 75 ⅌ bbl for the latter, and very little doing. Wheat sets rather more plenty to-day, but still at previous quoted rates; sales include 3 000 bushels of chiefly fair to prime Penna red at 130@132, mostly at the latter rate; white is quoted at 140@145, and very little doing. Rye continues in demand and rather scarce at 85c for Penna and 86c for Del. Corn meets with a fair demand, and about 2 500 bus. new yellow sold at 73c for damp, and 77@80c for dry lots; old is worth 82@85c. Oats are wanted, and 1,500 bus. Penna. sold at 44c. Delaware are in demand at 42c. Barley: Malt sales of 20,000 bus. were made at 95c, to be out of the market. Bark—Quercitron is quiet, and No 1 is offered at $27 per ton. Cotton—The market is rather more active, 250 bales sold at about previous rates. Groceries and Provisions are but little inquired for; holders are very firm in their views. Seeds—There is more doing in Cloverseed, and prices are unsettled; sales of 500 bushels are reported at $5 25, including some lots from western at $4 50@4 75, and some choice from second hands at $5 50 ⅌ bushel. Whiskey is steady, Pennsylvania barrels selling at 26@26½c; Ohio at 27@27½c; hhds 25½c; and drudge at 24½c.

Markets by Telegraph.

APALACHICOLA, Fla., Dec. 3—The receipts of Cotton during the past week amount to 4,100 bales and the export to Boston and Providence Co 2,300 bales. Stock in port 11,500 bales, against 14 500 bales last year.

BALTIMORE, Dec 7.—Flour dull at a decline of 12½c; Howard-street sells at $5 75. Wheat quiet; the offerings are limited. Corn heavy and unchanged. Provisions steady; Mess Pork $16 25; Prime $10 00@11 50. Lard in Bbls 10½. Whiskey quiet at 26½c. Exchange on New York steady.

MOBILE, Dec. 6.—Sales of Cotton to-day 3 000 bales at 10½@10¾c for Middling; sales for three days 11,000 bales; receipts for the past 24 hours 5,500 bales; stock 217-186 ½. Exchange on New York 9-16@¾ discount.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 6.—Sales of Cotton to-day 5 500 bales at 10¾@11; sales for three days 29,500; receipts 33,000 bales, against 40,000 bales for the same time last year; the receipts at this port are now 350,000 bales ahead of last year. Sugar buoyant at ½ advance; sales at 7¾@7¾. Molasses 40@40½. Flour advancing; sales at $6. Corn advancing, sales at 66@70c. New York, Dec 20. Sterling Exchange 108¾@109¾; Exchange on New York ½ discount.

CITY ITEMS.

HENRY WARD BEECHER AT CONCERT HALL THIS EVENING.—The evening is last of the course of lectures before the People's Literary Institute, this season, will be delivered at Concert Hall by Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. His subject will be "Heads and Hearts," and a rich intellectual feast may be anticipated. Mr. Beecher is probably the only lecturer whose attractive powers are sufficiently strong to crowd any hall in this city without regard to the weather. There are probably enough tickets sold already to give him an overflowing house, and persons desiring admission should therefore go early. The lecture will commence at a quarter before 8 o'clock.

LECTURE BY HON. HENRY J. RAYMOND.—The citizens of Philadelphia will be glad to learn that an opportunity will be affor ed, on the evening of the 15th inst., to hear a lecture from Hon. Henry J. Raymond, the accomplished editor of the New York Times. On that evening (Thursday of next week) he will deliver a lecture at Musical Fund Hall, in this city, before the Evening Literary Union, his subject to be "The Late War in Italy." One of the most entertaining, polished, and instructive lectures of the season may be expected.

THE "FOREST LAND OF WM PENN" is the subject of Professor Coppee's lecture this evening. He will, amonest other things, examine the charges brought against Penn by Lord Macaulay, and we presume completely refute them. Such a character as that of our great Founder of Pennsylvania must not be tarnished without the clearest evidence. If Macaulay should fail with his proof, his character as an historian will lose its brilliancy.

BUY your friends a 5, 6, or 10-pound box of Love's pure tea, at 50 cents. Warranted equal to 75-cent goods. Seventh and Brown.

PARSON BROWNLOW AND HIS COFFIN.—Among the notables present at the late mass meeting at Lynchburg, Va., called to express the opinion of the people of that section in relation to the Harper's Ferry raid, was the well-known Parson Brownlow. His remarks on the occasion were characteristic. A reporter, in noticing the speech, says it was "intensely Southern," and represents the parson as saying "he would rather be with the South in Pandemonium than with the Abolitionists in Heaven." The parson also remarked that he intended to give his family instructions not to bury him in a Yankee coffin, but if, in case of an emergency, they should be forced to do so, that they must leave both ends open, so that when the devil or Abolitionists came at one end he could crawl out at the other. The "Parson" should have advised his hearers to buy their clothing at the Palatial Store of Granville Stokes, No. 607 Chestnut street.

ELEGANT FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING—at Robert H. Adams', southeast corner of Seventh and Market streets—Dress and Frock Coats of the best quality; Business Coats, Promenade Coats, and Riding Coats, in all the latest styles, and a stock of Overcoats that cannot be surpassed in variety, style, or quality. A full and complete stock of Black and Fancy Cassimere Pants, of the best and choicest fabrics, and a superb stock of Silk, Velvet, Cashmere, Grenadine Cloth, Satin, and Cassimere Vests, all cut, made, and trimmed equal to customer work, expressly for retail sales, and will be sold at the most reasonable prices. nfe-smw&th-to jal
