FOOTFALLS

ON THE

BOUNDARY OF ANOTHER WORLD.

BY

HON. ROBERT DALE OWEN.

SECOND EDITION READY THIS DAY.

One Vol. 12mo. Price $1.25.

This work is devoted to an inquiry whether occasional interferences from another world in this be reality or delusion. It treats of the phenomena of sleep, dreams, somnambulism, and of the alleged evidences for presentiments, second-sight, house haunting, and apparitions; referring to the most approved modern works on hallucination, insanity, and the nervous system. It inquires whether, when we set down the narratives of all ages (including our own) that touch on the marvels referred to, as mere vulgar superstitions, we are overlooking any actual phenomena.

"He (the author) certainly discusses the subject with calmness, discretion, and ability, and his volume must at once take its place as a valuable collection of facts and speculations on the mysterious subject of which it treats."—N. Y. Tribune.

"The work before us is one to make a decided sensation in the intellectual world. Its contents are matter that is calculated to excite much interest, and criticism. It is sufficient for us to call attention to it as an extremely well-written, clear, and attractive work on a subject in which every reading and cultivated mind that is not a slave to bigotry must take a deep interest."—Evening Bulletin.

"Enough has been said to call attention to a sterling book—one of the few on this subject which are worthy of print. If not convincing, it is certainly entertaining."—The Press.

Where sure that those whose taste is cultivated will find "Compensation" a very delightful novel."—Knowing Journal.

NICCOLO DEI LAPI;

OR, THE

LAST DAYS OF THE FLORENTINE REPUBLIC.

BY MASSIMO D'AZEGLIO.

Translated by

H. HALLET.

One Vol., 12mo. Price $1.25.

"It is, perhaps, sufficient to state that this book is written by one of the best Italian authors, that it is full of the warmth, passion, fire, force, and genius which characterize the fire writers of that nation. No one can pursue these glowing pages, which relate to every and man of a chivalric and grand age, without having the blood quicken in his veins, and the heart respond to noble deeds and lofty sentiments.

In the country of historical and novelist, D'Azeglio has woven a literary web which is as powerful as it is charming."—Review. ja21-tf.

ILLUMINATED EDITIONS

OF

"WASHINGTON'S FAREWELL ADDRESS"

TO THE

PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Embellished with Arabesque Designs, in colors, and RECENT VIEWS OF MT. VERNON.

The publishers feel improved with a conviction that a time has come which demands a more thorough and serious examination of the principles and truths contained in this great State Paper; and that it should be more generally diffused among the people at large. To this end they have striven to give the "Address" a form and garb in some measure worthy its importance, and calculated, they trust, to popularize and give it permanence.

The "Address" is in quarto form, printed in colors, on superior plate paper. The publisher cannot but hope that with the attractive externals of illuminated typography, and artistic embellishment, it may be commended to public taste, and its teachings, by these means, be more effectively recommended to, and fastened upon the popular mind and heart.

Price of the "Address," single copies, one dollar. Early orders respectfully solicited. A liberal discount to the trade.

[H] B-RIXA, a delicious Health Restoring Food, THE REVALENTA ARABICA, at a cost of a few cents per meal, speedily eradicates the above and kindred children's complaints, and saves fifty times its cost in medicine. It does not interfere with a liberal diet but imparts a healthy relish for lunch and dinner and restores the faculty of digestion and nervous or muscular energy to the most enfeebled. We extract 64 low out of 50,000 cures:

Cure No. 1771. Lord Stuart de Decies, of many years' dyspepsia.

Case No. 64,856 From the Rev. James T. Campbell, Sydenstone Rectory, near Fakenham, Norfolk, 5 Dec, 1859. Gentlemen: I have long known and appreciated the virtues of Du Barry's Revalenta Arabica food. At one time I took it for eighteen months, and whenever I feel unwell, I take it for breakfast. When taken by itself in this way, it invariably relieves the stomach and prepares it for other food; while at the same time it gives the patient as good a breakfast as he could desire in all cases of indigestion, and particularly when the liver is more than usually affected, I consider it the best of all remedies. It requires the bile duct to be free in cases which would not admit of mercury in any shape. In short, a healthy flow of bile is one of the earliest and best symptoms. You can make what use you please of this communication. I am, gentlemen, yours, &c., JAMES T. CAMPBELL.

Cure No. 48,832 Fifty years' indescribable agony from dyspepsia, nervousness, asthma, cough, constipation, flatulency, spasms, sickness and vomiting, have been removed by Du Barry's excellent Food. MARIA JOY.

Cure No. 425, of Mr. Sergeant-at-Law Wilkins, I have taken the Revalenta Arabica for the last six weeks and have great pleasure in bearing testimony to its efficacy. For years before I had recourse to the excellent food I had been terribly nervous, I was a dyspeptic. I am now enjoying perfect digestion, and all the consequent advantages. I am, my dear sir, your truly obliged friend, CHARLES WILKINS, R. L.

Cure No. 65,315. Field Marshal the Duke of Pluskow, of Spain, constipation, nervousness and liver complaints, which had resisted all baths and medical treatment.

Cure No. 67,121. Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, of extreme nervousness, indigestion, gatherings, low spirits, and nervous function.

Similar testimonials from Dr. Ure, Dr. Harvey, Dr. Shorland, Jr. Campell, and many thousand other respectable persons who can be referred to.

Packed with full instructions in canisters, $1.50 to $12. The latter carriage free on receipt of cash.

Sold at the Revalenta Arabica Food Depot, 823 South Third street, Philadelphia, by H. SIUNRO, Principal Agent for the United States. W. Parrish, Fourth and Twelfth streets. D. L. MECHANICAL BAKERY, S. W. Corner BROAD and VINE Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

This establishment is now in successful operation, day and night, and all are respectfully invited to call and see the whole process of bread-making for themselves.

The undersigned takes the liberty of saying that for thirty-five years he has been a practical baker—five as apprentice, and five as journeyman in one of the first houses in Scotland, and twenty-five as master—during which time he has had the opportunity of making many experiments, and observing all the improvements which have been made during that period.

In this establishment, of which he has now the management, in addition to the complete labor-saving machinery, he has how facilities of many kinds not heretofore possessed.

Being unrestrained in the purchase of flour, none but the soundest and best shall ever be used, and he has no hesitation in saying that Bread of all kinds can be delivered, unsurpassed in quality and weight by that made by the ordinary process.

Families in which the Bread made by the Mechanical Bakery has not been tried, or in which it has been tried only at its commencement, before the machinery was in perfect working order, are respectfully asked to give it a trial now, the undersigned believing it would lead to mutual advantage.
