

MAIL SERVICE.—There are in the United States 63,514 miles of railway mail service, that being an increase of 5,603 miles since the same period last year.

GENERAL NOTES.

Milwaukee contains 20,000 beer breweries and distillers. San Francisco is building a balloon 180 feet in circumference.

Soldiers on the western frontier raise their own potatoes and other vegetables. The working population of the United States is estimated at 13,000,000—

It is estimated that it has already cost Stokes $150,000 to keep his neck out of the noose.

Dresses woven from bamboo fibres are the latest things for belles to do their bonboning in.

The bridge at the Coliseum Grounds, which Boston paid $10,000 for, were sold last week at auction for $550.

A Massachusetts postmistress has resigned her office as a matter of honesty, because she cannot find time to read all the postal cards and attend to her other duties besides.

Mrs. Lyster, aged ninety-one, was buried at Graysville, Indiana, in the wedding garments which she wore seventy-three years ago.

And now comes news that the girls of Elkhardt, Indiana, are forming a smoking club. And so in the wild era of "female advancement" women are dropping, one by one, their distinctive charms.

An Iowa matron, who, after languishing in bonds of matrimony for thirty-five years, recently came into an unexpected inheritance of $500, immediately invested in a divorce.

Miss A. Radcliff, of Chester county, Pa., was so shocked at the death from paralysis of her sister, that she died too, and both were buried in one grave.

A Tennessee lady presented her husband with a pair of twins, and in due season added triplets. "Dear me," exclaimed an astonished neighbor, "I suppose Mrs. Stebbings will have quadruplets next and then centipedes."
