MEDICINAL.

DYSPEPSIA.—FIFTY YEARS INDESCRIBABLE AGONY FROM DYSPEPSIA, Nervousness, Sickness at the Stomach, and Vomiting, have been restored by DU BARRY'S delicious health-restoring REVALENTA ARABICA FOOD.
[From the Honorable Isidore J. Blake.]
SYDNEY, 43 Elizabeth street, 17th August, 1859.
DEAR SIR: I am happy to inform you of the great benefit my daughter has received from the Revalenta Arabica. She was very thin and delicate, being too tall for her age, between ten and eleven, when she commenced taking it. It has made her quite strong and healthy. I consider it the most nutritious restorative food for children and delicate persons.
Believe me, dear Sir, truly yours, I. J. BLAKE,
48 Union street, Third district, New Orleans.
March 13th, 1855.
For seventeen years I have been laboring under an insufferable affection deprived of sleep, and so dizzy at times that I could not help myself; my stomach would fail me, and I thus became a helpless, enervated invalid. At last, on the 15th of June, 1854, I was taken down with an alpine fever and killing pains in the bowels. Often as I went to bed at night, I thought I should never see the morning. My medical attendant and friend, in whom was all my trust, could do nothing to relieve me my sufferings, and sent me to one of his colleagues, whose attendance proved as unsuccessful, all the remedies prescribed failing to afford me any relief. It was at this stage of my disease that, on the 5th of September last, I happened to meet one of my friends, who told me that Mr. J. B. Monier had passed through the same ordeal, and had been radically cured by Du Barry's Revalenta Arabica. Therapon I immediately began to make use of it, and, soon after, I felt relieved; and the extraordinary change for the better I have gradually experienced since, owing to that excellent Farina, induces me to believe that I am completely cured.
P. E. BERNARD,
Commercial Abstract Clerk in the Collector's Office.
CASE NO. 54,815.
[From the Rev. James T. Campbell, Sydenham Rectory, near Fakenham, Norfolk.
GENTLEMEN: In all cases of Indigestion, and particularly when the Liver is more than usually affected, I consider Du Barry's Revalenta Arabica Food the best of all remedies. You may, if you think proper, place of this communication, I am, Gentlemen, yours, &c.

RUSHTON'S
COD LIVER OIL, FOR CONSUMPTION.
ja30-3m.

SIMES'
PURE COD LIVER OIL,
PERFECTLY SWEET AND PALATABLE, manufactured at Newfoundland for the proprietors, from fresh and healthy livers, by steam, at a low temperature, thus preserving the medicinal and nutritive properties. Only while the natural fishy flavor is perfectly covered, and the oil rendered palatable and agreeable to the taste.
The proprietors of this Oil spare no expense in having their Oil prepared at Newfoundland, the only place where the Gadus morrhua is found in abundance. The true Cod is frequently mistaken by dealers here with oil from other species of the Gadus family, and only that coming from the "Banks" can be relied upon as the genuine.
Our Oil has been analyzed, and pronounced to be pure, and the perfection of its quality—characteristics which enable it to maintain its superiority over all other kinds.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

HON. ROBERT DALE OWEN'S
NEW WORK,
FOOTFALLS
ON THE
BOUNDARY OF ANOTHER WORLD.
SIXTH THOUSAND.
OVER 5,000 COPIES HAVE BEEN SOLD SINCE JAN. 1.
ONE VOL., 12MO. PRICE $1 25.
This work is devoted to an inquiry whether occasional interferences from another world in this, be reality or delusion. It treats of the phenomena of sleep, dreams, somnambulism. It examines the alleged evidences for presentiments, second-sight, house-hauntings, and apparitions; referring to the most approved modern works on hallucination, insanity, and the nervous system. It inquires whether, when we set down the narratives of all ages (including our own) that touch on the marvels referred to, as mere mythic superstitions, we are overlooking any actual phenomena.

The unexpected sale of this remarkable volume is everywhere the subject of amazement, and has been pronounced as the best effect of the publishing art.
The New Orleans Delta says: "This remarkable work has produced an impression upon the reading public, almost without parallel in late years. Such audacity and delicacy, such rigorous analysis and tender sentiment were scarcely ever before so artistically and effectively combined. The style of the work is fit for its important theme—dignified, eloquent, vigorous, and chaste."

One volume, 12mo. $1.
[From The Saturday Press.]
"Throughout it breathes the true spirit of Summer sunshine and the murmur of Summer winds. Its feeling is genial, it has a moral tone. Its style is mimetic life are drawn with sympathy, and therefore with truth. It is written in a terse and classical style."
[From The Church Journal.]
"A quaint volume it is—and a rich and a rare; with abundance of solid meat in it. Though some will find it not easy to discover the flavor of the meat through the superabundance of the dressing, and spread with much pepper and gravy. The Doctor loves to startle, and evidently thinks that a good scare is provocative of thought in minds unused to think. He does not fail, likewise—great faith in the dietetic and other uses of laughing."

REVOLUTIONS
ENGLISH HISTORY,
Robert Vaughan, D. D.
Vol. I.
REVOLUTIONS OF RACE.
Price $2.
In this work, Dr. Vaughan, the Editor of the British Quarterly Review, intends to group together the leading facts of English History, so as to reveal at a glance the process of the nation's life-long development. The publication of English History, By the term Revolutions, the author intends to indicate the great epochs of change through which both the Government and people of England have passed during the historical period of their existence.
"A work of this kind," says Blackwood's Magazine "cannot be superficial, it must be learned; and the honorable position which Dr. Vaughan has earned for himself in Irish theology and literature gives us a guaranty that this will be one. The work, accordingly, may honestly recommend the reader, as the front of steep and continuous ingenuity, to a rich, full, and enlightened spirit."
"This treatise is, in fact, the London Athenæum," or rather narrative, is deeply and variously interesting. Written plainly, but with all the characteristics of independent thought and accomplished scholarship, it may be pronounced a masterly survey of English civilization from the Roman conquest down to the commencement of the fifteenth century. We have found this volume in every way excellent. It is at once a narrative and a description, learned, genial, critical, and also picturesque."
The Westminster Review, the very highest critical authority upon English literature, pronounced this work upon its original publication in England—"We can sincerely recommend Dr. Vaughan's Revolutions in English History as a thoughtful, interesting, scholarly presentment of the principal sociological vicissitudes of more than two thousand years of our British existence."

HOTELS.

CONTINENTAL HOTEL, PHILADELPHIA, CORNER OF CHESTNUT AND NINTH STREETS—OPENS FEBRUARY 8TH.
This magnificent establishment has been erected by subscription of the stockholders, comprising a large number of the most enterprising business men of the city in which assembled the Continental Congress that gave to the world the Declaration of American Independence.
The hotel has accommodations for about one thousand guests, and is supplied with every modern improvement for the comfort and convenience of families, business men, and the travelling community.
A vertical railway is being constructed upon a novel and scientific principle, which renders accident impossible, and will convey passengers to the upper stories without the fatigue of ascending continued flights of stairs, giving easy access to the purer air and quiet of the upper rooms.
The spacious corridors for ventilation, and every precaution against the dangers of fire, have been liberally introduced.
An extensive reading room and business exchange, with telegraph office and connecting writing rooms, have been provided on the first floor.
The whole of the interior arrangements and furnishing have been under the personal superintendence of FARAN DEVENS, our whose management the success of the Revere House and Tremont House, Boston; the Battle House and Point Clear Hotel, Mobile; and the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York, has been established.
The various departments of the Continental will be conducted upon the same liberal scale which has earned for the above-named hotels their well-known and extensive share of public patronage.
All communications for apartments, or upon any business connected with the hotel, should be addressed to Continental Hotel, in order to insure immediate attention. [fe17-12t] J. E. STEVENS & CO.
