A CARD.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Notices of the strike of a portion of our men, about one-third of the whole number employed, and an advertisement of an association which extensively is endeavoring to maintain an antagonism between workmen and employers, having appeared in the papers, we notice them to correct the misstatements

"It is not true that we are desirous of employing men more than ten hours per day; neither is it true that we have reduced the price for overtime. The rule which the association desires us to change or abrogate is as follows, viz:

"Work necessary to be done before or after regular hours will be rated at time and quarter, time, and it is expected every one will do his part cheerfully when called upon."

This rule has been in operation two years and two months, without alteration or modification. It is printed in large type, and conspicuously placed in every workroom and office in our establishment since January, 1858. This was the first and only Rule we ever had on the subject. Previous to this we had no written rules, and overwork was done at various rates, as foreman and men agreed upon; but generally, and principally, at time and quarter time or 25 per cent advance on pay. Instead in making the rule the price was fixed at the highest average rates of other city shops; work done at the rates fixed is a loss to the proprietor. We therefore virtually abolished, and we would gladly do so, when wages vary, and on no other account do we permit it.

To show our estimation of overwork, we will state that, during the year of 1859, the average time of our overwork per man was three hours, and the difference to the men, if his wages are $2 per day, is 15 cents per annum, viz: at our rates 75 cents, at the association's rates 90 cents. It is evident, from this statement, that it is but a plea to get the control of shops in which their members are employed, and to prevent employment of any who are not members of the association. And as a further proof of this, we quote the 2d article of the constitution of the association:

"The objects of this Union shall be to unite and associate together as far as practicable, the efficient workmen of the two trades represented in this Association, for the purpose of securing concert of action, in wholever may be required as conducive to their united interests, as the attainment of a fair rate of wages, the shortening of and rendering uniform the hours of labor, the fixing of a proper ratio of apprentices to journeymen, the protection of the regularly-apprenticed mechanic, and the abolition of obnoxious and oppressive rules in workshops."

This organization, screening itself from responsibility by its secret character, not only governs its own members, but seeks, by intimidation and threats, to prevent those from working who are anxious and willing to do so. They declare in their preamble that

"The relation between capital and labor must, of necessity, (so far as the price of the latter is concerned,) result in an antagonism of interests."

We think otherwise, and intend to manage our own business in the recognition of the mutual interests existing between our men and ourselves.

No objection to the practical operation of our rules has been manifested by our workmen, acting independently of this association. Many of those who are members freely express their regrets at the strike, and would resume work at once if free to follow their own judgment.

With this statement we leave the matter to the judgment of the public.

OFFICE OF THE PHILADELPHIA AND READING RAILROAD COMPANY.

The holders of the bonds of this Company, due July 1, 1860, can now receive, upon application at this office, 10 per cent. in cash, upon the terms specified in the circular attached.

The holders are also entitled to the benefit of a Sinking Fund of $189,000 per annum, as established by the stockholders at their annual meeting, held January 9, 1860, and in pursuance of the contract, entered into by the company and duly recorded, to carry the same into effect.

CIROUAR.

Notice to the Holders of Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company Mortgage Bonds, due July 1, 1860.

These bonds are secured by the first mortgages on the road, amounting in the aggregate to $3,300,000, and the net revenue for the last fiscal year was six times the amount of the annual interest on these bonds.

The managers propose to extend them for a period of twenty years, the holders retaining the bonds and the security of the mortgages in the precise condition in which they are now held. Fresh sheets of coupons for the interest, payable half-yearly, will be issued.

A bonus of 10 per cent. will be given to the holders, in consideration of their assenting to the extension. This bonus will be paid in cash to the bearers of the bonds, on their signing a receipt and presenting their respective bonds at the office of the Company, or to its agents for endorsement.

Forms of receipt and endorsement will be furnished on application.

By order of the Board of Managers.

W. M. MCILHENNY, Secretary.

THE NEW NOVELS.

I.

LIFE BEFORE HIM.

A NOVEL OF AMERICAN LIFE.

One Volume. 12mo, 401 pages. Neat Cloth. Price $1.

"A book of singular originality and genius. . . . It style is crisp, fresh, and vivid: its characters are such true flesh and blood creations as to fit before you not like unsubstantial pageants, but positive entities. . . . The whole tone and temper of the book is healthful and delightful, and the views of life the most pleasant and entertaining we have seen, continually drawing strings out of his story to address the reader, and then in the minor flashes, he is fanciful, brisk, and fascinating."—Home Journal.

II.

AGAINST WIND AND TIDE.

BY HOLME LEE,

AUTHOR OF "KATHIE BRANDE," "SYLVAN HOLT'S DAUGHTER," ETC.

One Volume. 12mo. 440 pages. Cloth. Price $1.

From the London Literary Gazette.

"The new publishing season has commenced auspiciously; and the novel now before us is, by many degrees, the best specimen of Fiction that has been placed in our hands; with much of the tenderness and vigor of Adam Bede, it has a refinement which we do not find in that very clever work, and a combined knowledge of the world and insight into character which render the tale a startingly real and life-like."

From the London Athenæum.

"We prefer this novel to any of the author's previous ones. The story is interesting, and the characters well designed. . . . The incidents are true to life and death; the style is good with a pity deeper than tears can speak it."

Sent free by mail, postage free, for retail price. Address,

W. A. TOWNSEND & CO., Publishers, mh15-2t-the 46 WALKER Street, New York.
