Later from California.

SYRACUSE P. M., July 2—The Sherman overland mail coach, with the Francisco mail dates to June 11, arrived at the Visalia telegraph station to the 12th inst., passed here late this night.

MEXICAN INTELLIGENCE.—Arrived at San Francisco, June 8, bark Vank, from Honolulu; sailed, bark Armistead, for Valparaiso.

Arrived at Honolulu, on May 11th, Emily Morgan, from New Bedford on the 19th, Ann Morgan, Stay, from Jarvis Island; 22d, schooner Fur West, from ditto. The latter reports that there were more valuable guano discoveries made.

THE NEWS.

The news is exceedingly meagre.

The nomination of Lincoln by the Chicago Convention was well received by the Republicans, who fired a salute of 100 guns in honor of it.

Since the last dates fled beyond reach of Col. Hayes' volunteers, all apprehensions of further trouble from them in the Weaver mines had vanished.

Regular troops will be stationed near the Pyramid Lake, and other places, where they can best protect the settlements.

The company who went through on the pony express route expect to obtain a sufficient force from the United States troops now at Camp Floyd, to keep the route free from danger after it is once cleared and the stations re-established.

The weather was warm and pleasant on the eastern side of the mountains.

The miners are returning to work at the placers which the Indian disturbances caused them to abandon. On Walker river and in the Monroe Lake region the Indians are peaceable.

There is no further political news from Oregon.

A stage was robbed by highwaymen on the 8th of June, near Chico, in Butte county, of $15,000 in transit by express.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

Honolulu dates to the 11th of May have been received. The Japanese embassy, Commodore Tatnall, from San Francisco, touched at Honolulu, on the 23d, on the way home.

The market was very dull.

LATEST BY TELEGRAPH TO VISALIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12—5 o'clock P. M.—Arrived to day steamer Golden Gate from Panama, and steamer Panama from Oregon and British Columbia.

Sailed ships Mary L. Sutton, for New York; Herald of the Morning, for Callao; Fleet Wing, for Hong Kong; Columbia, for China.

THE MARKETS.—The week's business opens moderately.

Judge Terry's trial has been removed to Marion county, indicating his acquittal.

Portland, Oregon, dates to the 6th of May announce that the result of the election was doubtful. The probabilities were that Lozier was elected to congress.

No quorum could be formed as to the Legislature.

Two Democrats were elected in Multnomah county, where the republicans had some hopes.

New Haven Railroad Stock.

NEW HAVEN, July 2—Judge Ingraham has delivered a decision in relation to the New Haven Railroad stock, making valid all the spurious stock which appears on the transfer books of the company, in all 17,407 shares, leaving as invalid 1,643 shares. This decision does not cover the whole of the spurious stock, and is technically in favor of the company, but places the holders of the spurious stock in the condition of creditors of the company, with power to bring actions to recover the money in full. It is not only a violation of time with the New Haven road and the spurious stock has now come to be more valuable than the original.

The New York Tragedy.

NEW YORK, July 2—Edwin Jefferds, one of the stepsons of the late Mr. John Walton, murdered on Saturday night, has been taken into our city. The suspicion of the murder, however, still attaches to Charles Jefferds, the brother of the prisoner, who is said to answer the description given of the murderer.

The Insurance on the Pemberton Mill.

BOSTON July 2—The referees in relation to the insurance on the Pemberton Mill have awarded the sum of $28,375 insurance to the corporation, being 25½ per cent. of the amount insured on the mill.

From Honduras.

NEW ORLEANS, July 2—Advices from Ruatan to the 30th ult. state that the cession of the island of Honduras was not made unfavorably. A force of British troops had arrived from Belize to maintain order. The people object to the treaty, and it will probably be amended.

Arrest for Mail Robbery.

RUTLAND, (Vt.,) July 2—John Whitcomb has been arrested for robbing the American and Canadian mails. Quite under his chamber were found $800 in Canadian money lately. Skeleton keys for opening the mail-bags were found on him.

Mysterious Murder in New York.

We have already presented to our readers a brief account of the murder of Mr. John Walton and John W. Matthews. The New York journals are filled with the particulars of the terrible occurrence. It seems that Mr. John Walton and Richard H. Pascall were walking up Eighteenth street about half past eleven o'clock, and had just crossed Third avenue, when a man, who evidently had been waiting for them, stepped up behind them and fired a pistol at the former. The slug with which the weapon was loaded entered Mr. Walton's head near the left ear, and he fell to the ground insensible. Help came to the spot, and he was taken to a drug store, and shortly afterward removed to Bellevue Hospital, where he died at eight o'clock on Sunday morning.

The murderer fled toward Irving place, followed by Mr. Pascall and others, among them Mr. John W. Matthews. Near the corner of Sixteenth and Irving place three of the persons had almost overtaken the fugitive, when he turned and shot Mr. Matthews in the breast. He then succeeded in effecting his escape. The wounded man was taken into a drug store on Third avenue, but died before it had been reached. The pistol was subsequently recovered.

It appears that Mr. Matthews had been absent all day on a pleasure excursion with his sister, and had just stepped from the Third-avenue cars, when he heard the cry of murder, and joining in the pursuit met his fate. He was a railroad contractor, and was thirty-four years of age.

Mr. Richard Henry Pascall testified to the facts of the murder as stated, declaring it to be his impression that Charles Jefferds was the perpetrator. The young man had been once before arrested for the peace for having drawn a pistol upon Mr. Walton; the weapon with which the murder was committed much resembled one which young Jefferds had some time since; and he had repeatedly threatened his stepfather's life.

Yesterday morning Edwin Jefferds, one of the stepsons of Mr. Walton, surrendered himself. He states that he knew nothing about the shooting, and will be able to prove that he was at home and in bed when it occurred. His brother Charles, he says, is somewhere in the country; where, he does not know, but has no doubt that, as soon as he learns of the suspicion existing against him, he will return and surrender himself.

Charles Jefferds is about twenty-one years of age, six feet three inches, five feet ten inches tall, rather slim, but strong and wiry; has light complexion, blue eyes, prominent Roman nose, thin lips, projecting chin, and has usually worn a light moustache and goatee. He is slow in speech, is easy address, rather pompous in his manner, and always dressed in fashionable style. This answers to Mr. Pascall's description of the murderer.

Edwin is about three years younger, a little shorter, but more thick set, has dark hair and eyes, and dresses more like a mechanic than his brother. Both have been conductors on the Sixth avenue Railroad. Edwin speaks slowly, and with a slight hesitancy.

It is rumored that a young woman will be able to identify the man who shot Mr. Walton, as she and some others had observed him hanging about the corner all evening.

The police and the friends of the deceased are doing all in their power to throw light on the matter, and bring the murderer to justice.

THE CITY.

GUARDIANS OF THE POOR.—A first regular meeting of the Guardians was held yesterday afternoon at the Almshouse.

The following was the population of the house:

On Saturday	1,928
Same time last year	1,933
Decrease	41

J. M. Maris was re-elected president, and F. A. Server treasurer.

Committees were then made for steward, clerk, physician, &c., who will be elected at the next meeting.

Messrs. McGrath, Brown, Erety, and Johnson, were sworn in as new members.

The annual reports of the out-door visitors were received and read.

The out-door agent reported collections amounting to $215 for emigrant tax, and $3,109 for support cases.

Less aid was sent in a commutation contract, on account of insufficient supply of water at the institution.

The annual report of the insane department was read, but was sent back for correction.

Mr. Dickinson offered a resolution that the Hospital Committee meet in conjunction with a committee of Common Council, to inquire whether the charge of an increase of the deaths at the Almshouse was true. Not agreed to.

Messrs. Lippard, Esher, and McGrath were appointed the Committee for July.

Adjourned.

THE COURTS.—QUARTER SESSIONS.—Judge Allison.—Alexander Dupoily was acquitted of a charge of stealing a coat, the prosecutor not appearing to identify.

John McLaughlin was acquitted of a charge of steal-ing a paper.

Jacob Keenan was convicted of a charge of committing an assault and battery upon Mary Bloomfield.

Charles Loudon and Thomas Mellhone, on cross bills, were charged with assault and battery. The parties are carriage drivers, and the difficulty arose between them near about a stand at the depot, Eleventh and Market streets. The evidence was rather contradictory, each man charging the other with striking the first blow. They were convicted, and both ordered to pay the costs of prosecution.

Mary Clopp was charged with committing an assault and battery upon Emma Jones. This was one of numerous quarrels between children residing in the same neighborhood. The jury acquitted Miss Clopp, and divided the costs.

Joseph Gaiyes was convicted of a charge of committing an assault and battery upon Bridget Toomey, and ordered to pay the costs.

In the case of Commodore Bumbrider Barry, convicted several months ago of seduction, the court granted a new trial.

No other business of any importance was transacted, and the court adjourned.

CAUCUS NOMINATIONS.—Yesterday afternoon the members of the People's party, in both branches of the City Councils, met in Common Council chamber and made the following caucus nominations, to be elected at the meeting on Thursday next:

Superintendent of City Railroads—A Bartlemome.

Commissioner of City Property—Jesse Christopher.

Chief Commissioner of Highways—Joseph Chantler.

Assistant Commissioner of Highways—John S. Mitchenson.—McLean.

Chief Engineer of the Water Works—H. P. M. Birkinbine.

All the nominations were the previous incumbents, except Mr. Bartlemome, who was nominated for assistant commissioner of highways, in place of Edward C. Jones.

There was much excitement in front of the State House all the afternoon, and the mutterings of discontent on the part of the disappointed were both loud and deep, and threats were openly made by several that as Councils would not make any change in the officers, next spring "the people" would try and change the Councils, by electing Democrats in their places.

LITERARY.—There will be an address delivered before the Literary Society at Haverford College, to-morrow evening, by Prof. Stoever, of Girard College. The several anniversaries of the recent date take place on the evenings of the 6th, 7th, and 9th. Prof. Chase will give an address before the Logonian on the 9th. The usual address before the Alumni will be made by Prof. J. Jarvis, on the morning of the 9th inst. The usual public examination will be held on the 8th and 10th instant, and Commencement is on Wednesday, morning, the 11th, at 9 o'clock. The degree of A. B. will be conferred on the following gentlemen:

Frank's Richardson, Richard Pancoast, Frederick W. Morris, Theodore H. Morris, and James B. Maris, of Philadelphia; James Tyson of Reading; Clement Smith, of Deer Darby, and Wm. M. Corlies, of Strickerville, Pa.; Cyrus Lindley, of Moorestown; and Lindley M. Chew, of Carthage, Ind.; William B. Corbit, of Odessa, Del.; Silas A. Underhill, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; and John W. Pinkham, of E. Vassalboro, Maine.

HOSPITAL CASES.—The following cases of accidents were admitted into the Hospital yesterday:

Patrick Murphy, aged 30 was severely injured internally by falling down the hold of the steamship Virginia, first wharf above Market street. He was a stevedore, and had been at work on the vessel yesterday. He was able to walk home after he got on, he started to go down the hold in the dark on some errand. He missed his footing and fell to the bottom. When taken to the Hospital, bad enough, he was in a very critical condition.

James P. Jack, 35 years old, had his right hand injured by a circular saw, while working at a planing mill on Spruce street, near the Schuylkill, yesterday afternoon.

Lewis Shaffer, aged 27, had his left leg fractured by falling off a ladder while painting the interior of the Arch-street theatre. He fell a distance of about 25 feet, and made a narrow escape from being killed.

ENFORCING ORDINANCES.—Six parties, colored, residing in Market street, were arrested by High Constable Clark, on Saturday, for violating the ordinance prohibiting the sending of offensive smells, &c. Before the Mayor they pleaded that they did not understand the action, and pledged themselves to the immediate removal of the nuisances complained of. The magistrate, considering that the offence had been committed through ignorance, dismissed the parties, with the understanding that they would be more careful in future, and that if they did not comply with the ordinance they would be fined.

INCENDIARISM.—Yesterday morning about 1 o'clock, an attempt was made to fire the premises of Mr. Blair, in Third st., below Sycamore. The door of the house was torn off, and a quantity of combustible material placed in it. The flames were discovered by the officers upon the beat, and quickly extinguished with buckets from the Hope Hose Company. Some of the boards in the entrance were upon the ground, but their services were not required.

SOLOMON'S TEMPLE will be open to visitors on the 4th of July, all day, and every day this week. There is no place in the city so well calculated to afford an hour's pleasure and profit, as a visit to this really grand historical and Scriptural curiosity. Don't fail to take the whole family, as family tickets are sold lower.

THE ARRIVAL OF THE GREAT EASTERN.—The Great Eastern arrived Thursday, and the New Yorkers, dropping the Japanese like a colorified potato, have prepared themselves to ro into an ecstasy of excitement on the shortest notice. In Philadelphia we need no such material to stir up our enthusiasm, and render us happy. We have here the Brown-Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth, to gladden our eyes, and we clothe ourselves elegantly, fashionably, comfortably, and cheaply with the garments sold therein.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.

Pennsylvania Railroad shares advanced ¼ to-day, upon an exceedingly dull market. Reading fluctuated, but closed firm at the opening figures. Schuylkill Navigation shares are dull, but the preferred stock and the bonds maintain previous advance quotations.

Money is plenty as ever, and even the financiering for the Fourth of July, which has made more activity in bank offerings, has not advanced the ruling rates upon the street.

The bank statement is quite favorable, an increase appearing in all the principal items.

The Girard Life Insurance Company have declared a dividend of five per cent. for the last six months on the capital stock, payable on demand.

The Sunbury, Williamsport, and Erie Railroad and its chattels were sold at auction at noon to-day, at the Philadelphia Exchange. Samuel V. Merrick, Esq., acting as attorney for the bondholders, was the purchaser, there being no other bidders. The following was the property disposed of, and the prices obtained:

Sixty-four miles of railroad, extending from a point eight miles north of Tamaqua to Milton, in Northumberland county, with a branch to Pottsville, about 6 miles in length, connecting with the Beaver Meadow Railroad; street, track and land in Pottsville, Schuylkill county, containing four hundred acres; a message and tract of land in Turbut township, Northumberland county, containing two hundred acres; a borough of Williamsport and a tract of land of 147-100 acres at Hupert, brought $100,000. This property was purchased at a price of one million dollars, and another for a half million.

The chattels and rolling stock were put up in separate lots under different mortgages. The first lot consisted of twelve locomotives and tenders, nine passenger cars, three baggage cars, and twenty-five hundred freight cars. These sold for $50 000. The second lot was composed of eight locomotives and tenders, thirty-seven freight cars, and one passenger car, and brought $40,000. The third lot consisted of blacksmith tools, and brought $1,100. The fourth lot was composed of two platform cars, which were next put up, and knocked down at $500. Another lot, composed of a locomotive, fifty coal cars and twenty-five freight cars, sold for $40,000. The terms of the sale were—for the first property $5,000 cash, and the balance in twenty days, and for each lot of the rolling stock $5,000 cash, and the balance in ten days, the funds of the company to be received in payment, at the value each would be entitled to under a decree, as its proportion of the proceeds of the sale.

Philadelphia Markets.

JULY 2—Evening.

The Flour market continues dull, and there is very little export demand for Flour, and standard superfine is freely offered at $5 37½@5 50, the latter for better brand, without finding buyers, except in small lots to the trade, at from this rate up to $6@7 ⅌ bbl for extra and fancy lots, as in quality. Rye Flour and Corn Meal are but little inquired for, and freely offered at $3.87½ for the former, and $3.37½ ⅌ bbl for the latter.

WHEAT.—There is rather more offering to-day, but buyers are holding off, and prices are nearly nominal at 130@135c for reds and 136@140c for white, as in quality; about 1,00 bus of the latter sold at 138@139c for fair and prime Penna; some small lots of new Southern remain on the market unsold. Rye is steady at 78c ⅌ bus. Corn is also steady and rather more inquired for, and 500 bus prime yellow sold at 68c afloat. Oats are dull and unsettled, prime Penna being offered at 40c without finding buyers.

BARK.—Quercitron is lower, and selling at $27 ⅌ ton for 1st No. 1.

COTTON.—The market is quiet to-day, but without any change to note in price or demand.

PROVISIONS.—There is very little doing, and no change to note in the market.

PROVISIONS.—There is not much doing, and prices are advancing in Bacon. Green Meats, and Lard, which are held 5c⅌lb higher. Of Pork, sales of 750 lbs Mess are reported, mostly on private terms. Nothing doing in Butter and Cheese.

SEEDS.—The market is very quiet, and we quote Cloverseed at $4 50@4 75 ⅌ bushel.

Whisky moves off as wanted, at 20c for drudge and 21½c for Pennsylvania bbls; 250 bbls Ohio sold at 22c, and bhds at 21c ⅌ gallon.
