FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6, 1860.

Another dull day has passed at the Stock Board, the only variations to be noted among the limited sales being an advance of ¼ in Schuylkill Navigation preferred, and ½ in Reading Railroad shares. The market closed quite firm.

The money market continues very easy, and there is nothing in prospect to warrant any expectation of an early change.

The following table shows the state of the Plantation Bank of Tennessee, and Branches, on June 30, 1860:

OFFICE OF THE PHILADELPHIA AND READING RAILROAD COMPANY, MARCH, 1860.

The holders of the bonds of the Company, due July 1, 1860, can now receive payment at this office of 75 per cent. in cash, upon the terms specified in the circular attached.

The holders are also entitled to the benefit of a Sinking Fund of $140,000 per annum, as established by the stockholders at their annual meeting, held January 9, 1860, and in pursuance of the contract, entered into by the company and duly recorded, to carry the same into effect.

A. L. BLADFORD, Treasurer.

CIRCULAR.

Notice to the Holders of Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company Bonds, due July 1, 1860.

These bonds are secured by the first mortgages on the road, amounting in the aggregate to $3,325,600. The net revenue for the last fiscal year was six times the amount of the annual interest on these bonds.

The managers propose to extend them for a period of twenty years, the holders of the bonds to hold the security of the mortgages in the precise condition in which they are now held. Fresh sheets of coupons for the interest will be delivered, free of charge.

A bonus of 10 per cent. will be given to the holders, in consideration of their assenting to the extension. This bonus will be paid in cash to the bearers of the bonds, on their signing a receipt and presenting their respective bonds at the office of the Company, or to its agents, for endorsement.

Forms of receipt and endorsement will be furnished on application.

By order of the Board of Managers.

W. H. McILHENNY, Secretary.

NEW WEEKLY PUBLICATIONS.

A NEW WEEKLY PAPER.

ON SATURDAY, 14TH OF JULY,

Will be issued, in this city, the first number of

THE METHODIST,

A Weekly Paper of Eight Pages.

It will aim to be the exponent of Conservative principles, and will be thoroughly loyal to the Methodist Episcopal Church.

While it will discuss with frankness and courage every subject of interest to the Church, it will avoid personal or direct controversy with existing Methodist journals.

Upon the subject of slavery, THE METHODIST will represent the views expressed by the Bishops in their late address to the General Conference. They are views of the application of Christianity to slavery which are believed to be sanctioned by Apostolic teaching and practice. It will resist all attempts, as the next General Conference approaches, to replunge the Church into controversy, or to make further encroachments upon the provisions of the Discipline in relation to Slavery.

Inasmuch as the subject of Lay Representation has been formally presented by the General Conference to the people for consideration, THE METHODIST will treat it as a question of moment to the denomination, and will open its columns for its temperate and loyal discussion.

It will represent no party, association, or clique. Its ample capital has been provided, apart from all combinations, by those who feel that a want of time has come for a larger, more thoroughly edited, and more independent organ of Methodism than its editors have heretofore had at their disposal. Official documents and other formal but uninteresting matter, can possibly be.

In fine, THE METHODIST will be an attempt, sustained by abundant means from the people themselves, to supply their families with an organ which shall compare with the newest and best periodicals of other denominations; which shall command the best literary ability of the Church at home and abroad; which shall be conducted in the spirit of the Discipline and of denominational interests, as well as the interests of general Christianity; which shall be conducted with prudence and dignity, and be above party partisanship and virulence; and which shall be a representative of the great religious interests of its age, as conducted by the Church.

A decided organ of the Church, it will be edited by the REV. G. R. CROOKS, D. D., AND THE REV. JOHN McCLINTOCK, D. D., LL. D.

The latter Corresponding Editor, and at present residing in Paris. The Editors will be assisted by an efficient corps of contributors, whose names will be hereafter announced.

A thorough, classified outline of the news from the religious world, in all the denominations, and of foreign religious intelligence, will be prepared by Prof. A. J. SCHEM, author of the "Ecclesiastical Year Book." It will present also a Weekly Review of the Methodist press, and of the New York city religious press. It will have a Weekly Summary of missionary news. All the usual departments of General Intelligence, the Money Market, the Prices Current, Active Items, Editorial, Literary, and Miscellaneous, will be given. Special editorial attention will also be given to the Youth's Department, which will be under the care of a special Editor for that department, who will be prepared with discrimination, so that they may always be safely relied upon.

TERMS—Two dollars a year; five copies to one address $9; twelve copies to one address $20; twenty copies to one address $30. Subscriptions received for six months at the same rates. Payments invariably in advance. Subscription terms will be adhered to strictly. Large editions, not less than 40,000 copies, will be printed of the early numbers, and circulated throughout the country.

Office—NASSAU BANK BUILDING, cor. NASSAU and BEEKMAN Streets, New York.
