Mr. Yancey's Calculation.

Mr. Yancey, in his speech the other day at Huntsville, said:

"The contest in 1856 was barely won by a united Democracy. We are now divided—have only 127 votes, the whole Southern States, with Oregon and California, divided between Breckinridge, Bell, and Douglas."

Thus we see (says the Vicksburg, Miss., Citizen) that the leader of the Breckinridge party, the man who played the part in the disruption of the Democracy at Charleston and Baltimore, now proclaims that very disruption as evidence that the Democracy will be defeated and Lincoln elected in November, exulting and chuckling all the while in the undisguised idea that this result will and must rend the Union in twain. He thinks he sees at last, only a little way in future, the consummation of the measure in which his whole heart has been bound up for years; and his soul revels and riots in fiendish joy.

AN ANSWER TO W. HENRY WELSH, CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—"I am asked," said Mr. Douglas, the other day at Rocky Point, Rhode Island, "why I do not advise my friends to make a union ticket with the Secessionists. WHY DON'T YOU MAKE OIL AND WATER MIX? I am willing to act with all men who agree with me on principle, and I am determined to act against all men who are in favor of disturbing the peace and harmony of the country by thrusting the negro question on the Congress of the United States."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

The Money Market.

PHILADELPHIA, August 25, 1860.

We have to notice another dull day in the stock market to-day. City and State bonds are in demand, with an upward tendency. The stocks and bonds of the coal carrying companies are strong in spite of the bear interests. Passenger Railway shares are in strong hands, and quotations are maintained, though the market for them is inactive.

The Continental Hotel Company will pay the interest on their first mortgage eight per cent. bonds, due September 1st, at the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank.

CITY ITEMS.

CARNCROSS and SHARPLEY'S Minstrels still continue to draw full houses.

A QUESTION often asked, but not so satisfactorily answered, is "Can there anywhere be obtained a pure, reliable stimulant," and until the advent of Burnside's pure Monongahela Rye Whisky it was a most difficult question to solve indeed. How to prove that so absolutely pure an invigorating stimulant can be had, all that is necessary is to test the admirable properties of Burnside's Whisky, which is conceded on all sides to be the best and purest whisky in the reach of the public. CLERY & STOCKDALE, Proprietors, No. 122 Walnut street.

BOWEN'S MEDICATED FIGS are an efficient remedy for all derangements of the bowels, habitual costiveness, sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia, piles, &c. Persons of sedentary habits should always use them. They are reliable and safe, and do not debilitate; can be taken at all times without inconvenience. They contain no mercury; pleasant to the taste. One fig has a delicate relish, while two figs are sufficient to produce an active purge. Prepared only by G. C. Bower, Sixth and Vine, and sold by leading druggists. Price per box, 37½ cents. if

REPUTATION.—

"The purest treasure mortal times afford
Is spotless reputation; that away,
Men are but gilded loam or painted clay."

Reputation is man's best legacy. A pure and unspotted character is one of the most precious gifts that have ever been vouchsafed to man. It is one of his immortal attributes. When he dies and passes away, he leaves his character and reputation behind him to influence the generations that come after him. Every family has its household traditions; and all men do more or less to shape the actions and deeds of those who succeed them. How true is it, then, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." It is more valuable than all the gold that was ever dug from the bowels of the earth; more inestimable than all the diamonds that were ever taken from Golconda's mines; more priceless than all the gems that ever sparkled beneath the sun, and when coupled with a faultless suit from the ONE PRICE Fashionable Clothing Mart of GRANVILLE STOKES, No. 607 Chestnut street, will not fail to secure its possessor happiness for the rest of life.

At this celebrated establishment a valuable GIFT is presented with each article sold. if

"OGERAU'S" CALFSKINS,

20 RUE DES PETITES ECURIES,

PARIS, 25th July, 1860.

In conformity with an often-expressed desire of the Trade, I have received on establishing, in New York, a permanent Depot for my Manufactures.

I have therefore appointed Mr. S. MENDELSON, of New York, my sole Agent for the United States, and shall henceforth keep with him a full and regular assortment of CALFSKINS, of my make.

Fully sensible of, and appreciating the favor of the Trade, which my articles have heretofore earned for themselves, I shall by strictly keeping up their standard of quality, merit the continuance of that favor in future.

FREDERIC OGERAU.

NEW YORK, 10th August, 1860.

Referring to the above circular of Mr. OGERAU, of Paris, I beg leave to state that I have taken the store No. 92 JOHN STREET, and that I have now a full and complete stock of his Calfskins on hand.

As this stock will be kept up as nearly complete as possible throughout the season, the trade will henceforth have the convenience of always being able to supply themselves with whatever size or weight of Skins they may want of "Ogerau's" brand.

Willing to sell at prices and on terms to suit the trade, I beg to claim the favor of a call and an examination of my stock.

CLUSKEY'S POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK.

A FEW WORDS TO THE PUBLIC.

We published a short time since, a most valuable book for every citizen who wants to know the states of the various political parties upon all the important questions which have appeared upon the political horizon, entitled containing everything necessary for the reference of statesmen and politicians.

THE POLITICAL TEXT-BOOK, or ENCYCLOPEDIA. BY M. W. CLUSKEY,

One large royal 8vo volume of over 600 pages, Price $3.

The book is so extraordinarily full upon every important topic, so very impartial, that it is no wonder that fourteen thousand copies are already sold, while the sales have apparently just commenced. The author prepared for the last Presidential campaign, a smaller work, but similar to this, entitled the "Electoral Hand-Book," and which was used to great advantage on Democratic out the country. The present work is vastly superior and more complete, and intended for a work of permanent value and reference, with a copious index by which the acts and opinions of all the leading statesmen can readily be found.

The popularity of this ably executed work, and the apparent need to every intelligent man to possess it, has suggested to one of the leading Republican newspapers in New-York, which occasionally dabbles in the publishing business, to make a good thing of it, by issuing a partisan work, and christening it with the leading title of our book. We, therefore, desire to caution every one to be careful to order

All that certain lot or piece of ground with the messuage or tenement thereon erected, situate on the west side of Logan street, at the distance of 112 feet southward from the south side of Vine street, in the city of Philadelphia, containing in front or breadth on the said Logan street 22 feet, and extending of that breadth in length or depth westward between parallel lines at right angles with the said Logan street 140 feet to a 20 feet wide street, which leads northward [illegible] and communicates with another 20 feet wide street, which leads westward into Schuylkill Third street; bounded on the north by a messuage and lot now or late of William Raiguel, on the south by other ground of the said William Raiguel, granted or intended to have been granted to Thomas Moore, on the east by the said Logan street, and on the west by the first above mentioned 20 feet wide street.
