Military and Naval.

The United States Eighth Congress, Capt. H. M. Goldsborough, was at Maldonado on the 9th of July. Officers and crew all well.

The United States brig Bainbridge, Lieut. Commanding Marcus Woodbury, sailed from Montevideo for Rio Janeiro on the 29th of June. Officers and crew all well.

The United States steamer Pulaski, Lieut. Commanding Wm. H. Macomb, was expected to arrive at Buenos Ayres on the 7 h of July, from the Paraná. The United States brig Bainbridge, Lieut. Commanding Wm. Gibson, sailed from Montevideo for Rio Janeiro on the 29th of June. Officers and crew all well.

The new steamer Mohawk, of the home fleet, was to arrive at Pensacola on Friday, from Matanzas, which port she left on the 18th. Having given a ball on shore to her ship's company, and taken on board fresh stores and provisions, she would return to her cruising quarters.

The steam-sloop-of-war Preble will be due at Boston to-morrow. Whether she will be put out of commission or go back to the Gulf is not known as yet.

The steam sloop Richmond has "passed inspection" at Norfolk. She is now ready for sea orders. The escort of Lieut. Mullin's wagon-road party, consisting of Lieutenants White, Howard, and Lynn, and 94 men, were expected to return to the Department of Oregon with Major Blake's command on the 10th ult.

Companies H and G, of the Second Foot, arrived at the site of the new military post at Pawnee Fork, on the 4th of May. A new fort has been commenced, under the superintendence of Major Wanell, at the Fork, where escorts for the mails will be stationed. A large reinforcement of cavalry and dragoons was observed en route to the new post on the 23d of May.

CITY ITEMS.

SAUNDERS' INSTITUTE for boys. See advertisement.

A WHOLESOME STIMULANT.—Burnside's pure Monongahela Rye Whisky is one of the most wholesome stimulants to be had. Sent distilled from the very choicest rye to be obtained, all the nutritive qualities of that life-sustaining grain are imparted to it, and when it reaches the consumer, mellowed with age, and burdened with its many superior qualities, it is at once one of the most genial, pure, and beneficent articles of alcohol attainable.

CLERY & BROCKLEIN, Proprietors, No. 228 Walnut street.

DRAWING.—"Can you draw, young man?" inquired Quilp of an applicant for a private tutorship. "Certainly," replied the candidate. "At ten years of age I could draw older; at twelve, a picture; at fifteen a hardcast loaded with cabbages; at sixteen, an inference; at twenty, a bill of exchange; at twenty-one, I wore drawers; and at twenty-five, I wore garments procured at the Brown-Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill and Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth."

HOWES'S MEDICATED FIGS are an efficient remedy for all derangements of the bowels, habitual costiveness, sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia, piles, &c. Persons of sedentary life should always use them. They are reliable and safe, and do not debilitate; can be taken at all times without inconvenience. They contain no mercury or poisons to the taste. One fig has a laxative effect, while two fig are sufficient to produce an active purge. Prepared only by G. C. Bower, Sixth and Vine, and sold by leading Druggists. Price per box is 37½ cents. tf

REPUTATION.—

"The purest treasure mortal times afford
Is spotless reputation; that away,
Men are but gilded loam or painted clay."

Reputation is man's best legacy. A pure and unspotted character is one of the most precious gifts that have ever been vouchsafed to man. It is one of his immortal attributes. When he dies and passes away, he leaves his character and reputation behind him to impress the generations that come after him. Every family has its household traditions; and all men do more or less to shape the actions and deeds of those who succeed them. How true is it, then, "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches." It is more valuable than all the gold that ever lay in the bowels of the earth; more precious than all the diamonds that were ever taken from Golconda's mines; more priceless than all the gems that ever sparkled beneath the sun, and when coupled with a faultless suit from the ONE PRICE Fashionable Clothing Mart of GRANVILLE STOKES, No. 607 Chestnut street, will not fail to insure its possessor happiness for the journey of life.

At the celebrated establishment a valuable GIFT is presented with each article sold. tf

TENTH REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT.—At a meeting of the Democratic citizens of the Tenth Representative District, held at the house of Thomas Carroll, corner of Twenty-fourth and Spring Garden streets, this day, Mr. HENRY A. LEMENING was unanimously nominated as the candidate for Representative in the Assembly.

The following resolution, offered by Mr. John W. Tully, was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That for the purpose of effecting a thorough organization in the Democratic party throughout the city of Philadelphia, this Convention urgently recommends the Democratic citizens of the several divisions of the Tenth Representative district, as well as of all the election divisions in the city, to meet at the earliest practicable period, and organize in close connection with the several Ward Executive committees, and organize for the State campaign by the formation of division associations, and by a thorough canvass of the population of each division, the accomplishment of entire harmony in the party, and united action at the polls on the second Tuesday in October next.

A CARD.—THE UNDERSIGNED, proprietor of the Montgomery House, Norristown, notices with regret the statement of the special correspondent of the Philadelphia Journal, on the 20th inst., in regard to the conduct of the political clubs visiting that town on the evening of the 23d inst. No such rowdyism as stated occurred, and no loss was sustained other than that consequent upon so large a gathering. The behavior of the clubs was peaceable, orderly, and respectful in every respect while at the Montgomery House.

OFFICE OF THE PHILADELPHIA AND READING RAILROAD COMPANY.

The holders of the bonds of this Company, due July 1, 1860, can now receive, upon application at this office, 10 per cent. in cash, upon the terms specified in the coupon by attached.

The holders are also entitled to the benefit of a Sinking Fund of $140,000 per annum, as established by the stockholders at their annual meeting, held January 9, 1860, and in pursuance of the contract, entered into by the company and duly reported to carry the same into effect.

E. BEADFORD, Treasurer.

CIRCULAR.

Notice to the Holders of Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company Mortgage Bonds, due July 1, 1860.

Those bonds are secured by the first mortgage on the road, amounting in the aggregate to $3,500,000. The net revenue for the last fiscal year was six times the amount of the annual interest on these bonds.

The managers propose to extend these bonds for a period of twenty years, the holders retaining the bonds and the security of the mortgage in the precise condition in which they are now held. Fresh sheets of coupons for the interest, payable half-yearly, will be issued.

A bonus of 10 per cent. will be given to the holders, in consideration of their assenting to the extension. This bonus will be paid in cash to the bearers of the bonds, on their surrender, upon and presenting their respective coupons at the office of the Company, or to its agents, for endorsement.

Forms for the receipt and endorsement will be furnished on application.

By order of the Board of Managers.
W. H. WEMPY, Secretary.

NOTICES.

READ THE OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The (New York) World says:

"It differs from ordinary campaign publications in not being a one-sided advocate of any part cular party or platform. It contains in a portable form almost every-day reference, the most important materials for forming a correct judgment on political questions that now press for solution, and contains a great mass of information pertinent to living issues, and indispensable to every intelligent actor in our present political life, which is increased by an alphabetical table of contents."

The Chicago (Ill.) Journal says:

"It is a work which, from a hasty perusal, we pronounce one which will be invaluable to the political man and which should be in the hands of every voter. It is no argument for the tenets of either party, but a simple record of the political action of all parties since the commencement of the Union. Among its contents is a history of all the political Conventions ever held, with the platform adopted in each, which of itself is worth the price of the volume."

The Sandusky (Ohio) Register says:

"It would seem to be a repository of a mass of political information, which could otherwise be obtained only by search in a multitude of widely-separated sources. Every man, who has at any time had any connection with political discussions, has
