MESSRS. E. G. WEIVNAN & Co., Second street, below Chestnut, have deservedly the reputation of manufacturing and selling the richest and purest, and in all respects the most delicious confectionery in the country. To those gentlemen more than to any other house, the community are indebted for a wholesome revolution in the manufacture of these popular edibles. Physicians declare that confections of the high standard of purity of those sold by Messrs. E. G. W. & Co., instead of being hurtful, are at once wholesome and nutritious. It is this fact that accounts for the crowds of customers which may be seen at their store every day in the week. They have just added several luscious new preparations. Try them.

THE POINT BREEZE OVATION.—At the recent visit of Baron Renfrew to the Point Breeze races, he was honored with a sumptuous repast. Mr. Jones, of Twelfth street below Locust, one of our most noted colored caterers, prepared the supper, and was gratified with a deserved compliment paid to it by his Royal Highness. It is a pleasure to us thus to allude to the success of one of our prominent colored citizens. As a caterer, he surpasses any other restaurateur of this country of people of color. Mr. Jones has earned a commendable fame as the very best of our Philadelphia caterers. We commend him to the reader of delicate palate.

"FAUGALITY IS A FAIR FORTUNE AND INDUSTRY A GOOD ESTATE," as proven by the multitude who possess a combination of both the former and latter qualities, and have also, by combining fair fortune through the exercise of them; which fortunes they carefully avoid risking in any speculations, but adopt Franklin's maxim—"Make small gains, thereby miss great losses," and accordingly deposit their money in the Franklin Saving Fund, No. 119 South Fourth street, below Chestnut, Philadelphia, at five per cent. interest, where it can be withdrawn at any time, without notice. This Saving Fund never suspended. See advertisement in another column.

TRY IT, PROVE IT.—Burnside's Pure Old Rye Whisky needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its extraordinary excellence and absolute purity. Chemical analysis shows it to be the purest article of Whisky in the market, and the gratifying effects resulting from its use stamp it at once as the most reliable and beneficent stimulant of the day; being purity itself, it has no superior, and few, if any, equals. Clary & Stockdale, No. 232 Walnut street.

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR THE GROVER & BAKER S. M. Co.—At the great Fair held at Cleveland, Ohio, October 5, 1860, the FIRST PREMIUM was awarded to the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine, over all others in competition.

CHICKEN SALAD.—A superior article of Chicken Salad, as well as all the delicacies of the season, can always be had at the restaurant of J. W. Price, southwest corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets.

OAK ORCHARD ACID SPRING WATER.—This water is gaining great celebrity, and the demand for it is increasing rapidly. Its beneficial character is attested by thousands, and it is pronounced by distinguished physicians to be superior to any other medicinal Spring Water now in use. The almost miraculous cures which it has performed lead us to believe that it is destined to become extensively used in the treatment of very many diseases which ordinary remedies fail to cure. Its curative properties are established beyond question, and we feel assured that it must, to a great extent, supersede many of the artificial compounds of the day. We recommend those of our readers who may be suffering from general debility, or from any of the diseases for which this Water is prescribed, to give it a trial. See advertisement. may12-ly

THE PRINCE TO RETURN TO PHILADELPHIA.—It is whispered in knowing circles that the Prince of Wales will return to Philadelphia before leaving the United States finally. There are various surmises as to the object of this second visit, which will be strictly incog. Some say that the heir-apparent lost his heart at the grand opera; others that he desires to have a quiet look around the city; but the most probable of lest of his return will be to leave his measure at the Brown-Stone Clothing Hall of Rowhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above Sixth. In this way he can send his orders out whenever he desires to obtain a new suit of unusual excellence.

ESOPUS REDIVIVUS.

In wise old ÆSOP's famous book
We all have read, with laughter,
Of that sly fox that lost his tail
And scorned all tails thereafter.
'Tis thus with Reynards in our time,
(To illustrate the fable,)
They're "sour grapes," we will not climb,
(Because, they were not able!)
The morals of our (tail) tale is this:
Beware of envious folks,
And when you wish to purchase clothes,
Go straight to Granville Stokes'
one-price fashionable Clothing Emporium, No. 607 Chestnut street.

A valuable present accompanies each garment sold.

CHILLS AND FEVER! CHILLS AND FEVER!!—One of the greatest remedies that have ever been laid before the public, for Fever and Ague, and which have received the highest recommendations from the very first people, is DR. H. HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED BITTERS. Who would endure the torture arising from this terrible disease, when it can be so easily cured? Who would endure sleepless nights, burning fevers, and icy chills, alternately, when a remedy can be obtained for a mere trifle? And yet how many families there are, and a painful existence under this deadly blight, and do nothing but gulp down quinine, until it becomes as common as their daily meals, and yet they are not relieved. Now but the foolish and weak would hesitate to procure these valuable Bitters, and save themselves intense agony.

CATARRH is the most difficult of any of the Diseases of the Breathing Organs to relieve or to cure. The Rev. Hadford's* Olive Tar and Iron and Sulphur Powders which are advertised in this paper. His testimonial is published in a pamphlet among many others equally prominent who have been cured of chronic Throat and Lung difficulties, which will be sent free by mail. ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Pennsylvania has spoken in thunder tones in behalf of the Union, of her industry, of freedom. Her people have met the combined hosts of sectionalism, disunion, free trade, and all others who sought markets for their suffrages; and a majority of 32,000 for Governor, twenty Congressmen, and more than two-thirds of each branch of the State Legislature, attest the fidelity of our State to the integrity of our institutions, and the community of interest of our country.

Indiana, Ohio, and Minnesota have joined the Keystone State in demanding that sectional discord, wanton disturbance of the business and industry of the country, and free trade shall cease to be the policy of the National Government.

The decisive battle has been fought—a nation has been rescued from dissolution and dishonor by the verdict of Tuesday last. The issue was made by our foes, and accepted by our friends, and millions to day greet the triumph as the unerring harbinger of our national disenthrallment.

The people of the right not be content with an ordinary victory—Abraham Lincoln can be called to the Presidency by a clear majority of the people of the United States. If all who shall rejoice at his coming will but cast their suffrages forhim. To that majority Pennsylvania can and will contribute full fifty thousand votes, but to make it faithful to our great cause, and it is done. Let every man be at his post on the great day. Let the largest majority ever given to a Chief Magistrate will be cast on the 6th of November for Abraham Lincoln, for Union, for Freedom, for Fraternity!
