GENERAL NEWS.

THE LAST BAND OF FILIBUSTERS.—The Galveston (Texas) Civilian is responsible for the following piece of information: The Knights of the Golden Circle, who have been so far benighted as to march to Western Texas, have concluded that they have had about as near a view of the elephant as would pay. The Corpus Christi Rancherio says: "The last detachment of Knights of the Golden Circle that arrived here, instead of going farther towards the 'seat of war,' left, we understand, for their respective homes. Those who went to the Banquette came back here and did likewise; and as they performed the trip into the country and back on foot, will satisfy the Civilian they did not carry bridles with them. This morning another party of K. G. C., from the States, arrived here. There must be mismanagement on the part of the leaders, or else a concentration of force would be better understood. Young men at a distance should be cautious how they enter upon quixotic and desperate expeditions of this kind. The whole scheme, in the present state of affairs, is chimerical and dangerous in the extreme."

MELANCHOLY FATE OF A MISSIONARY'S WIFE.—On the 11th of September, the bark Punjaub, of Sunderland, having on board as passengers a French missionary, (Rev. A. Abousset,) his wife and six children, struck on the Seven Stones, between the Scilly Islands and the Lizard, three miles from land. The longboat was got out, and after great exertion four children were got into her, but the wife of the Rev. Abousset could not be taken from the vessel. Seeing that the vessel was sinking the rigging, and the remainder of the crew went fast, the captain still tried to extricate Mrs. Abousset from her perilous position, but could not succeed. Shortly after, the vessel sank. Mrs. Abousset, going down with it, in the sight and amid the screams of her husband and children. The two boats were afterwards picked up. M. Abousset has been laboring in Southern Africa since 1853, on behalf of the Paris Evangelical Missionary Society. He had no time to save anything. Mrs. Abousset was an English lady, about 48 years of age.—Liverpool Times.

CAPTURE OF FUGITIVE SLAVES.—Deputy United States Marshal Manson, and seven aids, captured four fugitive slaves and two free children from the neighborhood of Sandusky, and returned to Kentucky, with the aid of a United States Commissioner in this city on Saturday last, to Mason county, Ky., from where the slaves had escaped. The particulars of the capture are so enveloped in a cloud of mystification and mirk, that the facts are not easily obtained. Huge stories are current about these mighty Nimrods being pursued up hill and down dale, through woods and corn fields, over fences and across running waters, by several hundred armed men, who shot at them from every brush and fence-corner, yet not one of the valiant hunters. These were the stories told through the city yesterday, but we fear that the true history of this affair will never reach posterity.—Cincinnati Gazette.

A STORTY GIRL in Plymouth, N. H., a somnambulist, with a strong propensity to run off with things and hide them where they could not be found, nor she herself remember, so that at last it was found necessary to lock her securely at night, made off a few weeks since with a valuable watch. Then the family gave her liberty, and watched her movements in hope that the same somnambulism that carried it off would again find it. The other night she started out, followed by her brother. She walked places that he dare not follow; but the moonlight helped to show her course, and he kept along. Finally she walked up the trunk of an old tree that hung at an angle of forty-five degrees over a brook, stood firmly at the end while the tree swayed hither and thither, and stooping down brought out that watch. Returning to terra firma the brother waked her, took the property, and then hurried home.

THE men and women of Maine appear to exceed in weight those of Massachusetts. At the recent State Fair at Portland, 3,820 adult persons were weighed upon the same scales used at the Mechanics' Fair in Boston, and of this number 2,047 were women, whose average weight was one hundred and twenty-six pounds five ounces; 1,773 were men whose average weight was one hundred and fifty-two pounds. The average weight of the women weighed at the Mechanics' Fair was one hundred and sixteen pounds fourteen ounces, and of the men one hundred and forty-six pounds seven ounces, a difference in favor of the Maine women of nine pounds seven ounces, and of the men five pounds eight ounces each.

An old Dutch church in Albany brought to this country in 1765, although out of repair and running order for years, invariably strikes previous to the death of any member or relative of the family. This the owner has found to be the case in the last six instances of death in the family. The last striking took place a week ago Sunday. A short time since the news came that a brother of the owner who was travelling in Europe had been suddenly killed while out riding.

THE CROPS ABROAD.—Almost all over Europe the pitiless shower seems to have been descending. In the wine districts of France they are dubious, not whether the wine will be worth anything this year, but whether the grapes will be worth the trouble of gathering them. In England the fate of the hop is settled; the bitter of the beer must come, either from abroad, or illegally from the druggists at home. The prospects of the winter are on several accounts far from cheering.

REMARKABLE MOVEMENT IN TURKEY.—The Missionary Herald, for April, contains a letter from Dr. Shneffler, dated Constantinople, 16th November last, which speaks of a remarkable religious movement among the Turks. A new sect has started up, under the lead of a doctor of Mahometan theology and lawyer, who has opened a school, which holds doctrines closely resembling those of Protestant Christians. The sect already numbers about 10,000, and thousands sympathize with them who have not actually joined them.

WARM TIMES IN FLORIDA.—In Calhoun co., Fla., on the 25th ult., the "Regulators" killed Jesse Durden, William Musgrove, and Larkin C. Musgrove. The First brigade of Florida militia has been called out to operate against them. Judge Finley, of the United States District Court of Western Florida, has declared the country to be in a "state of insurrectionary war," and the United States marshals were summoning forces to aid the militia.

WEALTH OF MISSISSIPPI.—The Vicksburg Whig of the 6th inst. says: It has been estimated that the taxable wealth of Mississippi, in land and negroes, in the year 1860, will amount to the handsome sum of $653,100,000. The estimate for the county of Warren is put down at $19,500,000. Hinds is put down as the richest county, her estimate being $20,000,000. Lowndes comes next, $20,000,000; Yazoo and Bolivar, $25,000,000; Madison, $22,000,000; Marshall, $22,000,000; De Soto, $20,000,000; &c., &c.

A VERDICT OF A MORMON JURY.—Brigham Young has recovered a verdict of $5,316 against Peter K. Dotson, late United States marshal in Utah, for seizing the plates of "The Deseret Courtesan; or, Female Life in Utah," in which Brigham was interested. It was a Mormon jury that gave the verdict, and their forbearance in not making the damages ten times as great is the only astonishing thing about it.

HORSE RAILROAD IN LONDON.—The London Times of the 20th ult. states that a horse railroad was about to be laid down along Victoria street, Westminster. The assent of the parish authorities, and the Board of Works has already been obtained. The projectors have also made application for permission to construct a railway in the parish of St. Marylebone.

THE CRYSTAL HILLS.—The White Mountains are covered with snow, and in the clear sunlight of these October days present a beautiful appearance. When seen at this season, robed in their white winter dress, we realize the fitness of the name by which they were known to the early English voyagers, as they are, indeed, "Crystal Hills."

A NEGRO deck-hand, with a lantern in his hand, fell into the bed of the steamer Natchez, which was lying at the wharf in New Orleans, on the 7th inst. The lantern broke, and set fire to the dripping of a turpentine barrel, which soon exploded, severely burning the negro. The fire spread rapidly, but was easily quenched by turning on the steam from the boiler.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT FROM FIREARMS.—On Saturday last Sheriff Cannon, while handling a borrowed pistol at New Castle, Delaware, which he was told was unloaded, snapped it, when it went off, discharging a ball, which penetrated the skull of Mr. Robert Barr, and lodged in the brain. At last accounts Mr. B. was alive, but lying in a critical condition.

EXTRAORDINARY SNOW-STORM.—We learn from Morrison, N. J., that a snow-storm occurred on Sunday night in the vicinity of Budd's lake, and extended for many miles in every direction from that point. The ground was covered to the depth of two inches, and trees were bending under the load, presenting a brilliant and novel spectacle.

WATERING THE BALL STOCK.—The New York Evening Post understands that the Prince of Wales Ball Committee were obliged to issue some twenty-five or thirty gratis tickets to dancing men; the general run of the company invited being rather too old and slow on their pins, it was feared, to keep up with the music.

SOBRIETY OF BOOKSELLERS IN IRELAND.—There exist in Ireland, at present, about seventy towns—containing from 10,000 to 25,000 inhabitants—without a bookseller's shop; and six whole counties are found without either a pudlisher, bookseller, or circulating library.

AT THE Saturday session of the Virginia Old School Presbyterian Synod, at Lynchburg, the Board of Publication reported that in the issue of hymn books there was a saving to the Church of $200,000 annually, and that two hundred and two colporteurs were employed actively.

CONVICTIONS.—At Fredericksburg, Virginia, Thomas B. Leonard, for shooting Wm. Mooney, has been sentenced to two years and a half in the penitentiary, and Seth Montgomery, for shooting Arthur Hastings, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

HEAVY DISCHARGE.—Forty-two persons—machinists and laborers—were discharged from the machine department of the Gosport (Va.) navy yard last Saturday. This was made necessary by the exhaustion of work.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.—John H. Cannon, the negro boy who several weeks ago brutally murdered Miss Sarah Ann Griffith, in Sussex co., Del., was tried last week, and found guilty of murder in the first degree.

THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA.—Up to Tuesday evening of last week, five hundred students had obtained from the chairman of the faculty permission to matriculate. This is a larger number than at a corresponding period of last year.

ARKANSAS RIVER.—The Little Rock Gazette of the 6th says: "The river is still at a very low stage. Rain has been falling almost without intermission for the last four days, and the prospects of a rise are certainly very flattering."

THE Boston people are discussing the removal from Montreal of the immense Prince of Wales ball-room, and re-erecting it on the Neck. It is intended to use it for promenade concerts in summer, and as a skating palace in winter.

FIGS.—The fig harvest at Smyrna, this year, is much better in quality and quantity than for several years. The usual number of American vessels are waiting there for cargoes.

THE receipts of wheat at Chicago, last Wednesday, were 158,963 bushels, and the shipments 297,895 bushels, 25,000 more than ever before.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—Rev. Peter Bergeman, an assistant priest at St. Mary (German Catholic) Church, in Newark, New Jersey, died on Thursday last, from hemorrhage of the lungs.

A BALE of cotton, the first of the season, was received through the Albemarle and Chesapeake canal at Norfolk last Saturday.

THE black tongue is prevailing among the cotton in Pike county, Indiana, and it is feared the crop will suffer will fill a large quantity of seed.

Historical Memoranda.

AT the monthly meeting of the Massachusetts Historical Society on Thursday, Robert C. Winthrop referred to the visit of the Prince of Wales, and remarked:

"There was something peculiarly interesting in the fact that the Prince came attended by the head of that old house of Lincoln, more than one of whose daughters were identified with our earliest colonial annals—the Lady Arabella Johnson, who gave the name to the ship which brought over the charter of Massachusetts, who was herself a passenger in that ship, and the Lady Susan Humphrey, the wife of one of our earliest deputy governors. Mr. Savage gives an account of the family, of whom the Duke of Newcastle is the representative, in a note to Governor Winthrop's history (page 40, new edition.)

"The name of the Lady Arabella alone, so full of interest from the story of her early death and that of her excellent husband, would be enough, said Mr. W., to secure a cordial welcome to New England, and particularly to Boston, for any descendant of that ancient house.

"In the Earl of St. Germains (Mr. Winthrop also reminded the society) we have the linest descendant of that renowned Sir John Eliot, of Cornwall, who contended so bravely against the very oppressions which drove the Puritans to New England—himself the most intimate friend of John Hampden—and whose 'Monarchy of Man' bears the noblest testimony to a freedom and independence of spirit which could not be quenched even by that long and cruel imprisonment in the Tower, under which he sank bodily, and died."

The INPECTINE is the natural antagonist of all fevers, and when it comes in contact with the skin, is absorbed by the interior organs, which resist easily miasma and all tendencies toward those maladies which prostrate the mind and body with fever.

Fever and Ague result from numerous causes. No place is exempt from the causes which promote the existence of the disease. That begins once seated in the system, indeed depression of spirits, lassitude, languor, pains, chills, fever, and an endless train of disagreeable sensations, depriving the patient of all energy, and reducing him or her to a condition of

EXTREME HELPLESSNESS.

Why will any one suffer the horrors of a debilitating Intermittent Fever, when, by the use of the WONDERFUL EFFECTS.

Lemuel Bonsall, of Pittsburg, for two years useless to himself and society—a martyr to Chills and Fever—cured in less than three weeks, and improved in eight hours.

Mary K. Belknap, Sandusky, Ohio, after almost losing her reason as well as strength, by Intermittent Fever, with Chills, restored to health in twenty hours.

J. R. Tilton, of Belgrade, Maine, brought from death's door, having suffered for four years, made well in five weeks, and improved in two hours.

Adolphe Monbro, of France, relieved in one hour, while travelling in the cars of the Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad. He was apparently dying with Chills.
